JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

JAGUARS FOUNDATION

Under the leadership of Jaguars Owner Shad Khan and his family, the Jaguars Foundation continues to be a national leader in professional sports philanthropy. The Jaguars are committed to giving back and serving the community that has shown incredible support over the years. The Jaguars Foundation, in partnership with Florida Blue, the official Jaguars Community Partner, develops and implements resourceful and valuable programs that contribute directly to the Jacksonville area. Jaguars players and ROAR Cheerleaders make more than 500 charitable appearances, and the Foundation donates over 1,000 autographed items to aid organizations in their fundraising auctions and initiatives annually.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Jacksonville Jaguars Foundation is committed to support programs benefiting youth, families, military and veterans, and other NFL and team charitable initiatives.

FOUNDATION'S GRANT AWARDS TOP $19 MILLION: The Jaguars Foundation provided more than $1.8 million dollars in grants to local youth, military/veterans and other charitable organizations in the last year. The Foundation awarded its first grants in March of 1995, well before the team played its first game. Total grant making since 1995 is more than $19 million. This level of giving is among the top few in professional sports.

IMPACT ON EDUCATION: Shad Khan places a high priority on education as a key foundation for success in life. The Jaguars Foundation has adopted Andrew Jackson High School as a corporate partner, making a significant investment in the students and staff at the school. Support from the Jaguars Foundation includes an Honor Rows program, pep rallies, faculty and staff functions, prom night, scholarships and the Jaguars Reading Den. The Jaguars Foundation also sponsors City Year's supportive services at Matthew Gilbert Middle School, a feeder school to Andrew Jackson, to help students be high school ready. The Foundation also supports scholarships through the University of North Florida, Florida State College at Jacksonville, and the Jacksonville Public Education Fund.

HONOR ROWS: "Alert Today, Alive Tomorrow" is proud to present the Jaguars Foundation's Honor Rows. This unique program uses seats at Jaguars home games as incentives for youth ages 9 to 17 to set and achieve ambitious but realistic goals in the areas of academic improvement, personal behavior, physical fitness, and community service. Honor Rows youth also pledge to remain free from illegal drugs, alcohol and tobacco.

At the game, participants receive a meal, hat, Honor Rows t-shirt and special recognition by the team owner and fans. Nearly 5,000 seats will be awarded in 2015 in partnership with 41 nonprofit agencies. Since 1995, more than 55,000 youth have earned their seat. The United Way of Northeast Florida mobilizes game-day volunteers who ensure the overall safety and enjoyment of the participants.

In addition to the Honor Rows, the Jaguars Foundation awards seats to other charitable organizations. In total, 15,210 seats are allocated each season for charitable purposes with an in-kind value of nearly $300,000.

SAFETY DOESN'T HAPPEN BY ACCIDENT.

OFFICIAL COMMUNITY PARTNER OF THE JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS

SUPPORT FOR OUR MILITARY: The NFL and the Jaguars have had a long history of strong support for our troops and their families. Since the inaugural season in 1995, the Jaguars, in partnership with the Greater Jacksonville USO, have made available more than 1,000 tickets to active military at a reduced price for every home game.

HONORING OUR TROOPS

The largest block of donated tickets for active military families is in the Foundation's "HONORING OUR TROOPS" section. In partnership with UPS, Greater Jacksonville USO, area U.S. Navy bases, and other military branches and guard/reserve units, the Foundation provides more than 100 tickets each home game to local families with children who have a parent on deployment. Complimentary bus transportation, T-shirts and Jag Dollars for meals or souvenirs for the kids are provided.

The Khan family and the Jaguars have made a $1 million dollar commitment over five years to the City of Jacksonville to support transition services for veterans returning to civilian life at the Jacksonville Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center.

Jaguars players make visits to the local military bases including the Air National Guard 125th Fighter Wing (Air Force National Guard), Mayport Naval Station and NAS JAX. On these visits, players sign autographs and are given behind-the-scenes tours to help them gain an appreciation for the service men and women returning or preparing to deploy overseas. Players also make trips to military facilities such as the Bethesda National Naval Medical Center where men and women that are wounded overseas fighting for our country come for rehab and treatment of wounds caused in battle.

JAGUARS PLAY 60: In partnership with THE PLAYERS Center for Child Health at Wolfson Children's Hospital and the American Heart Association, the Jaguars Foundation offers opportunities to increase youth fitness activities and improve nutrition, as part of the NFL's Play 60 Challenge. More than 3,000-6th grade students in area schools participate along with hundreds of youth in community non-profits through programs that help youth become more active and improve healthy eating habits. More than $1 million in fitness and nutrition grants have been made to schools and nonprofit organizations. Fuel Up to Play 60 is an in-school nutrition and physical activity program launched by the National Dairy Council and the NFL, in collaboration with the U. S Department of Agriculture, to help encourage today's youth to lead healthier lives. In Florida, 2.5 million students in 3,100 schools participate in Fuel Up to Play 60.

JAGUARS IN THE COMMUNITY

HOMETOWN HUDDLE: For more than 30 years the NFL and the United Way have partnered to help build stronger, healthier communities. Whether it's reaching out to disadvantaged youth or feeding the hungry, both are committed to raising public awareness of important social service issues. Each fall, the Jaguars partner with the United Way of Northeast Florida for a hands-on community service project called Hometown Huddle. Children from United Way programs in the Jacksonville area have a chance to spend time with their favorite NFL players as they participate in a few outdoor physical activities as well as participate in one community activity to show the children the importance of giving back.

SUPPORT FOR YOUTH FOOTBALL: The Khan family and the Jaguars have made a significant commitment to support local youth football. The key for their initiative is the renovation and construction of 10 new or refurbished community football fields in Northeast Florida in the next three years. This will be accomplished in partnership with the NFL, LISC-Jacksonville, local city and county governments, nonprofit organizations and youth football associations.

The Jaguars, in partnership with the Jacksonville Sports Medicine Program and Duval County Public Schools, have embarked on an ambitious initiative to provide all 17 public high schools in Jacksonville with full time athletic trainers within four years. Currently there are no full time athletic trainers in any of the high schools, but this project will bring athletic trainers to each school that will serve all school sports teams year-round.

MOM'S CLINIC: The Mom's Football Safety Clinic, held annually, is an interactive and educational forum designed to educate moms and their children about how the game is being played safer and better than ever before. This event provides an opportunity for moms to hear from leading medical experts, get on the field to learn USA Football's Heads Up Tackling technique, and engage with other moms on issues of mutual interest regarding youth sports safety.

7-ON-7 PASSING CHALLENGE: The Jacksonville Jaguars hosted their annual Jaguars 7-on-7 Passing Challenge in June 2015. As a part of the Jaguars Youth Football initiative, 16 high school football teams participated in the tournament, which is designed to sharpen the skills of young athletes while giving them an early dose of competition as they prepare for the high school fall football season.

COACHING CLINIC: Head Coach Gus Bradley and the Jaguars hosted their annual coaching clinic in April 2015. The clinic is designed with an emphasis on the core fundamentals to the game, with fundamental sessions that Jaguars position coaches instruct on the latest teachings that our staff has incorporated. All high school coaches from Duval and surrounding counties are invited to participate.

JAGUARS 50/50 FAN RAFFLE FOR CHARITY: Fans can support the Jaguars Foundation and the Jacksonville community when they participate in the Jaguars 50/50 Raffle. Each game, fans have the opportunity to purchase raffle tickets, with a chance to be the big winner. Half of the net proceeds go to one winner, and the other half benefits the Jaguars Foundation's programs and initiatives. Since its inception in 2013, the Jaguars 50/50 Raffle has raised over $270,000.

GIVE & GO 100 PROGRAM: In a partnership with the Nonprofit Center of Northeast Florida and the DuBow Family Foundation, the Jaguars offers the opportunity to northeast Florida nonprofits to earn dollars through the sale of exclusive, discounted Jaguars tickets. Give and Go 100 allows Jacksonville nonprofits to offer the lowest priced Jaguars tickets in town for single ticket sales. Each participating organization that sells 100 or more tickets can earn $3,000 or more for their organization. The Jaguars Give and Go 100 program raised over $180,000 last year for local nonprofits.

JAGUARS IN LONDON: In addition to the NFL Play 60 programs that the Jaguars Foundation implements in Jacksonville, the Jaguars took Play 60 to London. Jaguar players, members of the ROAR of the Jaguars, team staff members and Jaxson de Ville all participated in an NFL Play 60 event promoting youth football and fitness. The Jaguars also held a London sleepover for 100 children in partnership with Ashley Furniture; each child received a bed to take home with them.

PARTNERSHIP WITH WOLFSON CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL: Jaguars players regularly make visits to Wolfson Children's Hospital to meet with kids, sign autographs and lift spirits. In 2008, the Jaguars Den was established at Wolfson Children's Hospital. The Jaguars Den is a one-of-a-kind, state-of-the-art room for children at the hospital where areas are designated for group games, pods for semi-private conversations, and individual computer stations. Stations are equipped with a keyboard and other input devices such as drawing tablets, touch pads and joysticks, all on flexible supports that children can easily adjust for their comfort.

JAGUARS ROOKIE CLUB: In June of 2003 the Jaguars established the Rookie Club for all incoming rookies. Its purpose is to assist in the transition from college to the NFL, and to introduce and involve first-year players, as a group, in charitable and civic activities in the Jacksonville community. As a group, the rookies make a number of appearances to different types of community outreaches so that each player has a chance to decide what type of outreach he has a passion for as an individual.

SHOPPING WITH THE JAGS: Each year over 100 children from different agencies have the opportunity to go shopping with their favorite Jaguars players. The children have time to talk to their favorite players about football, family and some of the player's favorite activities they did growing up. All of this interesting conversation is taking place while the players and children are trying to budget out what gifts that children will buy for themselves and their family members.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION: In 2013, The Jaguars and Jaguars Foundation were named the Business Partner of the Year by St. John's County Public Schools. In 2011, the Jaguars Foundation received the HOPE Worldwide Faith in Action Award. In 2010, the Jaguars Foundation was recognized by the Girls Scouts at the Association of Fundraising Professionals-Florida First Coast Chapter. The Jaguars Foundation was the proud recipient of the 2006 Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award from The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and the Sports Philanthropy Project for outstanding leadership in philanthropy in professional sports, both for the Foundation's work in Jacksonville and its leadership in guiding other professional teams in the development of grant making and other programs in their local markets. The Foundation's Straight Talk program received the 2005 Wilmer Shields Rich Bronze Award for Excellence in Communications by the Council on Foundations. In 2003, the Jaguars Foundation was named Jacksonville's Outstanding Foundation by the Association of Fundraising Professionals-Florida First Coast Chapter; and also received the Governor's Community Investment Award in recognition of its juvenile justice crime and youth violence prevention programs for youth. Other awards include: Florida Department of Education's Commissioner's Business Recognition Award (2001); Bridge Builder Award (1997); WTLV-12 Top of the Class Award (1996) for Playbooks; Governor's Community Investment Award (1996) for Honor Rows, and Grantmakers in Health Award (1996 and 1995). The Jaguars Foundation's innovative programs have been recognized in national media, including the January/February 2005 issue of FOUNDATION News and Commentary, as well as in articles in The New York Times, Forbes Magazine, Grantmanship Center Magazine, St. Anthony Messenger, ESPN and the "Osgood File" radio program.

OWNER SHAHID KHAN

SHAHID KHAN

OWNER

On January 4, 2012, Shahid Khan became the owner of the Jacksonville Jaguars. His dream of owning an NFL team had become reality on December 14, 2011, in a unanimous 32-0 vote by NFL owners in support of his purchase of the franchise.

A magnate in the automotive parts industry, Khan was familiar with Jacksonville long before purchasing the team. Jacksonville's port at one time was the United States' largest for automobile shipments, and Khan's fledgling business brought him to Jacksonville's Blount Island terminal to install his patented bumpers on the import vehicles.

Khan's passion for the National Football League also took root long before his entry into the league. His dream of one day owning an NFL team began while watching games with his fraternity brothers in the basement of the Beta Theta Pi house as a student at the University of Illinois. Through the success of his own business, his dream came true 40 years later.

Khan is president and owner of Flex-N-Gate Corporation, the 14th-largest North American automotive supplier and 46th largest company of its kind in the world, employing more than 17,000-plus people at 53 manufacturing and nine product development and engineering facilities throughout Canada, the United States, Mexico, Argentina, Brazil and Spain. Flex-N-Gate's major product lines include complete bumper assemblies, mechanical assemblies, exterior plastic trim, and complex welded structural assemblies for the light vehicle market.

Khan's history with Flex-N-Gate started in 1970, when he began working at the company while he was an engineering student at the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign. A naturalized U.S. citizen, Mr. Khan came from his native Pakistan in 1967 at the age of 16 to attend college. When he graduated in 1971, with a B.S. in industrial engineering, he became Flex-N-Gate's engineering manager. In 1978, Khan left Flex-N-Gate and with $13,000 in savings and a $50,000 loan from the Small Business Loan Corporation, he created the start-up Bumper Works, which revolutionized the industry through an innovative one-piece bumper design—a lightweight, continuous piece of metal with no seams to rust or corrode. His innovative design is still considered the industry standard for all seamless steel bumpers worldwide.

Bumper Works embodied two of Mr. Khan's many strengths—a deep understanding of design and a strong entrepreneurial streak. When Flex-N-Gate came on the market two short years later, Khan purchased his former employer and brought Bumper Works into the fold. During the decade that followed, Flex-N-Gate transitioned from an aftermarket parts producer to an Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM). Needing to expand his client base, Khan made sales calls for over five years to all the Japanese auto manufacturers, who, at the time, were more open to new ideas and working with smaller suppliers. This dogged determination resulted in Flex-N-Gate acquiring contracts for all the Japanese-produced trucks imported into the U.S. By the late 1980s, Toyota had selected the Bumper Works facility to be the first American parts supplier to receive Toyota's lean manufacturing training—an event Khan identifies as having a profound effect on Flex-N-Gate's ability to grow and prosper.

Widely recognized for his vision, acumen and leadership, Khan has grown Flex-N-Gate both horizontally and vertically through integration of processes and commodities. From the company's modest beginning with only the ability to stamp and weld the bumper shell, Flex-N-Gate has continually expanded to bring all the necessary processes in-house. This carefully planned expansion reduced costs and improved control, consistently making Flex-N-Gate more competitive in the industry. By leveraging what he learned working directly with automotive customers, Khan grew the company by purchasing other OEM facilities, expanding into different commodity types and broadening his client base.

Today, Flex-N-Gate has a global footprint reaching from Canada to Argentina and from the United States into Europe and Asia. The company's clients include all of the major automotive manufacturers in North America, Japan and Europe. In 2007 Mr. Khan received the Minority Business Leadership Award from the National Minority Supplier Development Council and has continued to earn honors throughout the world for his example as a successful minority business owner, which extends to the NFL as in 2011 he became the first team owner of minority ethnicity in league history.

Khan serves today on the NFL's influential finance committee and was named a charter board member of the NFL Foundation. And his vision for international growth, both for his Jaguars and the NFL, has been celebrated throughout sports and business circles as he is the only team owner who made a four-year commitment to play one home game each season in the important London and UK market.

In 2013, Khan complemented his sports club portfolio with his purchase of the London-based Fulham Football Club. As chairman of Fulham, Khan became the only person in the world to own 100 percent of both an NFL club and a Barclays Premier League team. Fulham will play in the Sky Bet Championship division of The Football League in 2015-2016.

Since early 2012, Shad and Ann Khan have focused their philanthropic giving in the Jacksonville community through the Jaguars Foundation. Through the Foundation they provided more than $1 million in grants in 2012 and $1.6 million in 2013 to children's and family programs, as well as other NFL and team-related initiatives. The Foundation also donates more than 11,000 charitable tickets with an in-kind value of nearly $500,000 annually. The Khans' charitable initiatives include a $1 million commitment to the City of Jacksonville's Veterans Resource and Reintegration Center, as a partner in the mayor's initiative to military service members transitioning back to civilian life. The Khans also made a six-figure challenge matching grant to the North Florida Boy Scouts, contributions to fund the NFL/Jaguars Play 60 program in partnership with Baptist Health, and grants to support community improvements. Khan also supported the One Spark event in Jacksonville in April 2014 with his second consecutive $1 million pledge to support creativity and innovation.

Mr. Khan has served as an active member on many University of Illinois boards, including the Engineering Board of Visitors; Department of Mechanical and Industrial Engineering Alumni Board; MechSE Extern Program; University of Illinois Foundation Board of Directors; and the Presidents Council, and was inducted into the Engineering at Illinois Hall of Fame in 2010. Mr. Khan is the current president of the Chief Executives Organization, a global community of the top 2,000 leaders in the business, government, and non-profit sectors. He also currently serves on three NFL committees: the Finance Committee, Investment Committee and the NFL Foundation.

Along with his wife, fellow University of Illinois alum Ann Carlson Khan, the Khans' gifts to the University of Illinois have enriched the university and community through donations to the Krannert Center for the Performing Arts, the University Library; the College of Business; and the College of Applied Health Sciences, where they have funded five endowed Khan Professorships and the Khan Annex—a 24,000 square foot facility with state-of-the-art laboratories, instructional, and professional collaboration spaces. The Khan Outdoor Tennis Complex on the University of Illinois campus will hosted the 2013 NCAA Men's and Women's Tennis Championships.

In 2007 the Khan Foundation was formed to expand research in the Applied Health Sciences, with Mrs. Khan serving as the foundation's president. Since its inception, the Foundation has given out more than five million dollars in grants nationwide—to libraries; organizations such as Crisis Nursery and the YMCA; and to UCLA for pediatric non-embryonic stem cell research. In 2011 Mr. Khan became a Lincoln Laureate, the state's highest award for achievement given by the Lincoln Academy of Illinois, for his philanthropic work in the state.

Mr. Khan shares his passion for the American dream with his family. The Khans have passed on their commitment to work and service to their two grown children, Shanna and Tony Khan. Tony is the Jaguars' senior vice president, football technology and analytics.

JAGUARS MANAGEMENT

MARK LAMPING

PRESIDENT

Mark Lamping was named president of the Jacksonville Jaguars on February 13, 2012. A veteran of more than 20 years as an executive in professional sports, Lamping became the Jaguars' first president since the end of the 1996 season. His career highlights include 13 years as a marketing executive with Anheuser-Busch, 14 seasons as president of Major League Baseball's St. Louis Cardinals and four years as CEO of New Meadowlands Stadium Company where he oversaw the construction and operation of MetLife Stadium. The New York Giants' 2012 Super Bowl victory enabled Lamping to become one of the few sports executives to have received both a Super Bowl ring and World Series Championship ring. Lamping earned his World Series ring as president of the St. Louis Cardinals following their 2006 championship season.

As president, Lamping oversees all business operations for the Jaguars. Since arriving in Jacksonville he has directed a restructuring of the Jaguars front office, along with multiple initiatives designed to engage with fans, improve the in-stadium experience, increase ticket sales, strengthen relationships with governmental and civic interests, and grow business opportunities locally, regionally and internationally. In 2014, the Jaguars under Lamping's direction completed a number of major fan-friendly enhancements to EverBank Field including the installation of the world's largest video boards. And this year, Lamping has been at the forefront of the team's proposal to develop the Shipyards property near the stadium into a vibrant entertainment and leisure district. Again this fall and continuing through the 2016 season, the Jaguars will play one regular season home game each year at London's Wembley Stadium. Lamping currently serves on the NFL Stadium Security and Fan Behavior Committee.

Lamping previously served as president and CEO of the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, LLC beginning on April 1, 2008. The New Meadowlands Stadium Company was the joint venture formed between the New York Giants and the New York Jets to develop the new $1.6 billion stadium in East Rutherford, N.J. Lamping was responsible for managing the construction, sales and marketing, and operation of MetLife Stadium, which opened in April 2010 and is the only NFL stadium which is the home of two NFL teams. In addition to the minimum of 20 NFL games that are played each season, the MetLife Stadium hosts events ranging from college football to international soccer tournaments to major concerts and more. In addition to numerous awards, in both 2010 and 2011, Billboard magazine named MetLife Stadium as the highest grossing stadium in North America. Lamping also helped lead the successful bid to host the 2014 Super Bowl. The 2014 Super Bowl was the first Super Bowl played in an open air stadium in a cold-weather city.

Prior to joining the New Meadowlands Stadium Company, Lamping was the president of the St. Louis Cardinals from September 1, 1994 until March 31, 2008. In addition to the club's 1996, 2000, 2001, 2002 and 2005 Central Division titles and 2004 National League Championship, the Cardinals earned their 10th World Championship in 2006. In 1999 and again in 2003, the Cardinals were honored by United Sports Fans of America as Major League Baseball's Fan Friendly Team for their superior efforts to make a day at the ballpark more affordable and enjoyable. In addition to managing the club's business and facility operations, Lamping led the Cardinals' new ballpark initiative. On April 10, 2006, Opening Day, the Cardinals officially dedicated the new privately financed ballpark, Busch Stadium. The perfect ending to the inaugural season at new Busch Stadium was the Cardinals winning their 10th World Championship.

From 1989 to 1994, Lamping served as Anheuser-Busch's group director of sports marketing. In that position, he managed the company's TV and radio sports production division and all domestic and international sports marketing activities for Anheuser-Busch's beer brands, including sponsorship agreements with the Olympics, FIFA World Cup and all major professional sports, including Major League Baseball, the National Football League, the National Hockey League and the National Basketball Association. Lamping also oversaw BudSports Productions, Anheuser-Busch's TV and radio sports production company.

Lamping joined Anheuser-Busch in 1981 in the company's Corporate Planning Executive Development Program. He then served in a variety of positions including district sales manager in Southern Illinois and Central Iowa, senior brand manager for new products and director of sales operations before being named group director of sports marketing in 1989.

Lamping was named in 2013 as a non-executive board member of Fulham Football Club in London while, closer to home, he serves on the boards of directors of the American Heart Association, Florida Forum, Jacksonville Civic Council, Jacksonville Sports Alliance, Jacksonville University Public Policy Institute, Jacksonville Sports Council, JAXUSA Chamber of Commerce, chair of the JAXUSA Business Development Committee, JAXUSA Policy Council, Ronald McDonald House Charities of Jacksonville, Inc., and United Way. While in St. Louis, Lamping was involved in a variety of charitable organizations, including board of directors, Habitat for Humanity and St. Louis Cardinals Community Fund; chairperson of the Make-A-Wish Foundation Golf Classic in 1997, 1998, and 1999; chairman of the St. Louis Archdiocese Catholic Charities 2000 and 2001 Christmas Appeal, and he also served as a chairperson for Pope John Paul's 1999 visit to St. Louis.

In 1998, Lamping was honored as Man of the Year by the St. Louis chapter of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Resources and received the James O'Flynn Award from St. Patrick's Center in recognition of his work to help the homeless in the St. Louis area. In addition, Lamping was the recipient of the Catholic Youth Council 2000 Community Achievement Award and the 2001 Marianist Youth Medal in recognition of his support of youth throughout the St. Louis area. Big Brothers and Big Sisters of St. Louis honored Lamping with its 2001 Legacy Award. In 2006 Lamping was presented the Gateway Leadership Award from the International Leadership Network. Lamping has been inducted into the Vianney High School Hall of Fame and was named 2000 Alumnus of the Year for outstanding achievement by Rockhurst University.

A St. Louis native, Lamping holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Rockhurst University in Kansas City, Missouri, and a master's degree in business administration from Saint Louis University. Mark and his wife, Cheryl, have three children; Brian, Lauren, and Timothy.

DAVID CALDWELL

GENERAL MANAGER

David Caldwell is in his third year as the general manager of the Jaguars after being named to the post on January 8, 2013. A veteran of 19 years in the NFL, Caldwell spent five seasons (2008-12) with the Atlanta Falcons before joining the Jaguars. Previously with the Carolina Panthers and Indianapolis Colts, Caldwell was with teams that went to the playoffs in 13 of his first 17 NFL seasons in Carolina, Indianapolis and Atlanta.

In his second year at the helm of the Jaguars, Caldwell continued to oversee a rebuilding roster in which rookies combined for a league-leading 82 starts, including 13 by QB Blake Bortles, the third overall selection in the 2014 NFL Draft. In his second draft, Caldwell selected nine players, including four underclassmen (Bortles in the first round, WR Marqise Lee and WR Allen Robinson in the second round and RB Storm Johnson in the seventh round). Eight of the nine draft selections made starts as a rookie, led by third-round OL Brandon Linder (15 starts), sixth-round C Luke Bowanko (14), Bortles (13) and fifth-round LB Telvin Smith (10). Three of the unrestricted free agents acquired during the 2014 offseason appeared in all 16 games (LG Zane Beadles, DE Chris Clemons and DT Ziggy Hood), including Beadles and Clemons, who both started all 16 games.

Caldwell reshaped the roster in his first season with the Jaguars with 68 different players appearing on the active roster during the regular season, the third-most in the NFL, and 31 players finishing the season with the club that were not on the roster in 2012. Caldwell and his staff made 151 transactions from the preseason to the conclusion of the regular season. His first draft class included eight players who combined to play in 92 games as rookies with 44 starts, and 20 of the 53 players on the final roster were rookies or first-year players. Five of the eight draft picks saw action in at least 15 games. The group was led by OT Luke Joeckel who was selected with the second overall pick. Second-round pick Johnathan Cyprien started 15 games at SS and ranked second on the team with 92 tackles, the highest total among rookie defensive backs in the NFL. The Jaguars signed five unrestricted free agents in 2013 with four playing prominent roles in LB Geno Hayes (14 starts), CB Alan Ball (15 starts), DT Sen'Derrick Marks (16 starts) and DT Roy Miller (14 starts).

Caldwell, 41, served the 2012 season as the Falcons director of player personnel where he was responsible for both college and pro scouting efforts under Falcons General Manager Thomas Dimitroff. Caldwell spent his first four seasons with the Falcons as the director of college scouting overseeing Atlanta's college area and regional scouts. His primary role was evaluating the hundreds of draft-eligible college players on an annual basis.

In Caldwell's five seasons in Atlanta, the Falcons advanced to the postseason four times and were the only NFC team to post five consecutive winning seasons. The Falcons had a 56-24 regular season record in Caldwell's tenure.

JAGUARS MANAGEMENT

Several of the players responsible for the Falcons' success were drafted during Caldwell's time including wide receiver Harry Douglas (3rd round, 2008), DE Kroy Biermann (5th round, 2008), linebacker Sean Weatherspoon (1st round, 2010), wide receiver Julio Jones (1st round, 2011) and running back Jacquizz Rogers (5th round, 2011). Eight rookies from the five draft classes started on opening day in 2012.

Prior to joining the Falcons, Caldwell spent 10 seasons (1998-2007) with the Indianapolis Colts under General Manager Bill Polian, helping to build a roster that claimed a victory in Super Bowl XLI and consisted of multiple Pro Bowl players drafted by the club. Caldwell was the western regional scout in his final two seasons with the Colts where he covered major college football conferences, including the Pac-10, Big 10 and Big 12. He joined the Colts in 1998 as an area scout and remained in that role for seven seasons, covering the Midwest and West Coast regions. Caldwell and his wife, Joelle, have a son, David.

DAN EDWARDS

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
COMMUNICATIONS

Dan Edwards, the Jaguars' senior vice president, communications, marks his 22nd year with the Jaguars and his 32nd season in the NFL in 2015. He is responsible for the Jaguars' communications division, which includes public relations, digital media content and broadcasting.

Joining the Jaguars in May of 1994 from the Pittsburgh Steelers, Edwards at that time had ten seasons of NFL experience with the Steelers, the Miami Dolphins and the league office. He was promoted to vice president in 2003, when the Jaguars' community relations and Internet content departments were added to his responsibilities. He is one of six current Jaguars staff members who have been with the franchise since its first year in 1994.

Edwards received a scholarship from NFL Charities in 1984 and began his NFL career that year as a public relations intern in the NFL office in New York. He spent the 1984 football season working in publicity for the Miami Dolphins, who played in Super Bowl XIX that year, before joining the Steelers in 1985.

During Edwards' nine years with the Steelers, the last seven as public relations director (1987-93), the team's public relations staff received the 1991 Pete Rozelle Award from the Pro Football Writers of America. Edwards has worked with the NFL staff at 26 Super Bowls in addition to the 1990 Pro Bowl.

Prior to entering the NFL, Edwards worked in professional baseball as an administrative assistant with the Eugene (Ore.) Emeralds, a single-A affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. He played football and baseball for Montgomery College (Md.) before transferring to the University of Oregon.

Edwards received his undergraduate degree in business administration with a major in management from the University of Oregon in 1981, and a master's degree in sports administration/facility management from Ohio University in 1984. In 2004 he attended the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at Stanford University, and for the past eight years he has served as an adjunct professor in sport communication at the University of North Florida.

Edwards serves on the board of directors of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida and is a member of the Leadership Jacksonville class of 2009. He and his wife Tricia have four children: sons Christian and Preston and daughters Danielle and Victoria.

KELLY FLANAGAN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

A Jacksonville native, Kelly Flanagan was named senior vice president and Chief Financial Officer in August 2014, after serving as a vice president since 2013 and joining the organization in 2012. She is responsible for leading the team's financial operations, including strategy, planning and business analytics, corporate accounting and financial reporting and analysis.

Flanagan has extensive experience in sports business. Prior to joining the Jaguars, along with Jaguars President Mark Lamping, she was a member of the executive team at the New Meadowlands Stadium, later MetLife Stadium, home to the New York Giants and New York Jets of the National Football League. Flanagan served in the finance department during the construction and commissioning of the new stadium, ultimately being named controller and lead stadium finance representative to the venue's primary tenants and owners, the Giants and Jets.

Prior to serving at MetLife Stadium, Flanagan was a member of the Entertainment & Media practice of PricewaterhouseCoopers in New York City, where she consulted for both public and private sports and entertainment clients and obtained her C.P.A. license. She has been named a "Game Changer" by SportsBusiness Journal.

A graduate of Episcopal School of Jacksonville, Flanagan holds a M.S. in Sports Management degree from Columbia University in New York City and a bachelor's degree in Accounting as well as an M.B.A. from the Ervin K. Haub School of Business at Saint Joseph's University in Philadelphia.

CHAD JOHNSON

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
SALES AND SERVICE

Chad Johnson joined the Jacksonville Jaguars as vice president, sales in May of 2012. He was promoted to his current position in February 2013. He is responsible for the sales in all ticketing areas, including suites, premium seating, season tickets, and group and single game tickets. He also oversees the team's tickets service and operations departments.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Johnson worked for the Miami Marlins as Senior Director, New Ballpark Sales. During his time with the Marlins he was responsible for the sales of premium seating, luxury suites and season tickets, and group ticket packages for the Marlins' new ballpark which opened in 2012.

Prior to joining the Marlins, Johnson served as Senior Vice President, Sales and Marketing for Sunrise Sports & Entertainment and the Florida Panthers Hockey Club. In that role he oversaw all ticket sales and service operations for all the entities associated with Sunrise Sports & Entertainment and the Florida Panthers, including suite sales and premium seating, as well as the club's marketing and broadcasting efforts.

Johnson joined Sunrise Sports & Entertainment in October of 2003 as Vice President of Sales & Service, before being promoted in April of 2005.

Prior to joining Sunrise Sports & Entertainment Johnson spent five years with the Tampa Bay Lightning as Director of Sales.

Johnson, who is originally from Chicago, graduated from Augustana College in Rock Island, Illinois. He made Jacksonville his home in July of 2012. He has one daughter, Victoria.

JAGUARS MANAGEMENT

SCOTT MASSEY

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
CORPORATE PARTNERSHIPS

Scott Massey joined the Jaguars organization in 2012 as senior vice president of corporate partnerships. In this role, Massey heads up the sales team responsible for securing new corporate partners, as well as the service team who ensures existing partners receive significant value for their investment with the Jaguars.

Prior to the Jaguars, Massey spent nine years at the PGA TOUR as Vice President of Business Development/Title Sponsor Relations. Before moving into the Title Sponsor capacity, he managed several of the PGA TOUR's largest Official Marketing Partnerships.

Prior to joining the PGA TOUR, Massey held sales roles with several sports related companies including International Management Group (IMG), golfweb.com and Quokka Sports.

Massey grew up in Boulder, Colo. and is a graduate of the University of Colorado, earning his bachelor's degree in finance in 1987. He and his wife Nancy have two sons, Hanks (18) and Davis (16).

HUSSAIN NAQI

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
FAN ENGAGEMENT

Hussain Naqi was named senior vice president, fan engagement in 2013. He is responsible for oversight of the Jaguars game day operations, in-stadium business operations, and non-NFL event business development. Naqi has also been tasked with overseeing the Jaguars fan development and marketing efforts in the U.K.

In the 2014-2015 NFL season, the Jaguars unveiled a $63 million renovation to EverBank Field, which feature two spa pools on a party deck in the north end zone of the stadium, as well as the two largest video boards in the world. Naqi was responsible for the programming, activation and content development of these new game day elements, which resulted in a number one overall fan experience ranking in the NFL as voted upon by season ticket members in the League's Voice of the Fan.

Naqi arrived in Jacksonville following four years with the New Meadowlands Stadium Company in East Rutherford, N.J., where he served as Vice President of Business Planning and General Counsel at MetLife Stadium, the home of the New York Jets and New York Giants.

Naqi began his career in the sports industry in 1997 with the law firm of Covington and Burling in Washington, D.C., which led to a four-year stint with the National Football League, working in the league's Management Council. After leaving the NFL in 2002, Naqi was named Assistant Director of Enforcement for the NCAA.

Naqi attended Cornell University, earning his bachelor's degree in Industrial and Labor Relations in 1997. In 2003, he returned to school to complete a joint Juris Doctor and Masters of Business Administration degree at Northwestern University. While at Northwestern's Kellogg School of Management, he developed a continuing education program for current and former NFL players to equip them with basic business skills during and after their playing careers. Upon graduation, Naqi joined the Executive Development Program with Major League Baseball and the New York Mets, serving two years in that capacity.

He is a member of the New York State Bar.

MEGHA PAREKH

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GENERAL COUNSEL

Megha Parekh joined the Jaguars as Vice President and General Counsel on March 1, 2013, and was promoted to her current role as Senior Vice President and General Counsel on August 13, 2014. In her role, Megha is responsible for oversight over all legal matters (including all compliance, transactions and disputes), risk-management and insurance matters, people development and training and information technology. Since joining the Jaguars, Megha has worked on team-owner Shahid Khan's acquisition of Fulham Football Club and the $63 million public-private funded improvements to EverBank Field.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Megha worked in the New York office of the law firm Proskauer. Proskauer is an international law firm known for its preeminent sports law group. During her time at Proskauer, Megha worked on public and private acquisitions and financings and securities offerings, including the acquisition of the Jacksonville Jaguars, the Houston Astros and the Cleveland Browns. While at Proskauer, Parekh also worked on a variety of matters, including public and private company acquisitions, and equity and debt financings.

Megha was named in December 2012 and 2013 to Forbes Magazine's 30 Under 30 Sports List, which honored the country's top sports athletes and executives under the age of 30 who "represent the entrepreneurial, creative and intellectual best of their generation."

Megha joined Proskauer in 2009 after graduating magna cum laude from Harvard Law School and Harvard College, where she was a sports writer for The Harvard Crimson and served as an intern for baseball's Boston Red Sox. Megha also serves on the board of directors of Women in Sports and Events and Florida Sports Foundation.

PETER RACINE

PRESIDENT,
JAGUARS FOUNDATION

As president of the Jaguars Foundation, the philanthropic arm of the Jaguars, Peter Racine oversees grant making, community relations and other charitable initiatives of the team. The Foundation's mission is to support the community through three major areas: 1) children, youth and families, 2) military and veterans, and 3) community and neighborhood revitalization; along with other NFL and team charitable initiatives such as Women's Breast Cancer awareness, prevention and treatment.

Racine began his career in nonprofit work as a college volunteer at the Covenant House homeless and runaway youth shelter in New York City and went on to help begin Covenant House shelters in Houston, Texas and Toronto, Canada. From 1987 to 1992, he and his spouse Kelly established and operated Covenant House's programs for street children in Honduras where he served as Executive Director. He was featured on Dateline-NBC for his work with young glue addicts and in Time Magazine for work on behalf of minors exploited by prostitution rings. Upon returning to the United States, Racine was hired as the first Executive Director of the Northeast Florida Exchange Club Center for the Prevention of Child Abuse, where he served until joining the Jaguars Foundation in September of 2000.

Racine has been a partner in various national and international initiatives, including the Community Partnership for Protecting Children with the Edna McConnell Clark Foundation; the Early Childhood Violence Prevention Project with the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, University of Florida and Jacksonville Children's Commission; Outreach to Urban Street Children with the European Economic Community; the Sports Philanthropy Project with The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation; and currently with JCCI for the JAX-2025 Community Visioning Initiative, and the Local Initiatives Support Corporation (LISC)-Jacksonville's EPIC neighborhood revitalization initiative with The Community Foundation, Jessie Ball duPont Fund and the City of Jacksonville. In 2013, Racine won a Suncoast Regional EMMY® Award as executive co-producer of the "Jaguars Teen Talk...Game Plan for Success" television show, which was broadcast on all local independent stations, cable and network affiliates.

Racine received his B.A. at Rutgers University in New Jersey, and his M.T.S. at Catholic Theological Union in Chicago. He and his spouse Kelly reside in Jacksonville.

Steven Ziff joined the Jacksonville Jaguars as Vice President, Marketing & Digital Media in September of 2014. Steve is responsible for all areas of marketing, creative, and digital media, including jaguars.com and social media.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Ziff worked for the San Diego Padres as Senior Vice President, Sales & Service, responsible for the sales and development of ticketing, premium seating & suites, and all non-ballpark events and concerts.

Prior to joining the Padres, Ziff served as Senior Vice President of Marketing & Brand Strategy for the Florida Panthers & the BB&T Center, overseeing all areas of marketing, creative, partner brand activation, game presentation, grassroots & fan development, and community development for the club and the arena, as well as the Florida Panthers Foundation. His responsibilities also included generating new revenue streams and leveraging partnerships for the Panthers and Sunrise Sports & Entertainment.

Before joining Sunrise Sports & Entertainment in April of 2007, Ziff spent two years at Office Depot leading its retail, local, and college marketing for North American stores. Ziff also has more than seven years of experience with Alloy Marketing + Media and AMP Agency, based in Boston, leading strategic development and execution of national marketing promotions for some of the largest Fortune 500 brands including Reebok, Verizon Wireless, Volkswagen, Heineken, Dunkin' Donuts and New Balance.

A native of South Florida, Ziff received his B.S. in Marketing from the University of Central Florida. Ziff and his wife Allison reside in Saint Johns, Fla. with their daughter, Riley, and son, Cade.

JAGUARS IN LONDON

On Aug. 21, 2012, the Jaguars made history by becoming the first team in NFL history to commit to playing four home games at London's historic Wembley Stadium.

With a goal of raising the profile of the franchise and the community, Jaguars Owner Shad Khan along with NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell declared that the Jaguars would play one game in the United Kingdom for the 2013, 2014, 2015 and 2016 season. "The Jacksonville Jaguars will be a bold and ambitious NFL franchise," said Jaguars Owner Shad Khan.

During the 2014 season, the Jaguars hosted the Dallas Cowboys in front of 83,603 fans. The team ventured out into the community and partnered with the NFL's Play 60 program to promote healthy living with local London schools.

In 2015, the Jaguars will face the Buffalo Bills on Oct. 25. The NFL announced June 3 that it selected Yahoo! Inc. as its exclusive partner to deliver the first-ever live stream of an NFL game to a global audience across mobile devices and for free. CBS will broadcast the game in the Jacksonville and Buffalo markets.

HEAD COACH GUS BRADLEY

GUS BRADLEY

HEAD COACH

Gus Bradley was named the fifth head coach in Jacksonville Jaguars history on January 17, 2013. Bradley has 25 years of coaching experience including nine seasons in the NFL.

The Jaguars finished Bradley's second season as head coach with 43 of the 53 players on the roster joining the club in the last two seasons. Rookies combined for an NFL-high 82 starts for the club with 10 different rookies making starts. Sixteen different rookies have started at least one game for the Jaguars over the last two seasons. Offensively, the Jaguars started at least four rookies in 15 of 16 games, including quarterback Blake Bortles, who started the final 13 games and set the franchise rookie record for passing yards. Defensively, the Jaguars improved from 31 sacks in Bradley's first season to 45 in 2014, the sixth-most in the NFL. The Jaguars led the NFL with 12 sack/forced fumbles and ranked third in the NFL with 19 total forced fumbles.

Bradley led the Jaguars to a 4-12 mark in his first season at the Jaguars helm. The Jaguars overhauled their roster in 2013, with 31 newcomers and rookies combining to make 44 starts. Of the 53 players on the final roster, 20 were rookies or first-year players. The club posted a 4-4 mark following the bye week with three of the wins on the road. Six of the club's first eight games were against 2013 playoff teams and the club played seven games overall against playoff teams including both Super Bowl participants.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Bradley spent four seasons (2009-12) with the Seattle Seahawks as defensive coordinator and played a vital role in the club advancing to the postseason twice. The Seahawks posted an 11-5 mark in 2012, the third-best in franchise history, and advanced to the divisional round of the playoffs.

Bradley developed the Seattle defense into one of the NFL's top units during his tenure. The Seahawks ranked sixth in the NFL in total defense (319.2 yards per game) from 2011-12, third in points per game (17.5), fifth in takeaways (62), first in opponents passer rating (73.2) and fifth in interceptions (40).

Under Bradley's direction in 2012, the Seahawks led the NFL by allowing a franchise-record low 15.3 points per game despite playing with the third-youngest (25 years, 195 days) defensive starting unit in the league. The Seahawks allowed a franchise-low 306.2 yards per game which ranked fourth in the NFL, finishing 10th against the run (103.1) and sixth against the pass (203.1).

Bradley was responsible for the development of two rookies who played key roles for the Seahawks in defensive end Bruce Irvin and linebacker Bobby Wagner. Irvin, the 15th overall pick of the draft, led all rookies with eight sacks while Wagner (2nd round) ranked second among rookies in tackles with 140, and fourth with three interceptions. Safety Earl Thomas was voted to his second consecutive Pro Bowl. Second-year cornerback Richard Sherman earned first-team Associated Press All-Pro honors after leading the team and tying for second in the NFL with eight interceptions. Defensive end Chris Clemons excelled under Bradley's tutelage, posting 33.5 sacks in 48 games including a career-high 11.5 in 2012.

In 2011, Bradley's defensive unit ranked ninth in the NFL, allowing 332.2 yards per game, finishing in the top-10 for only the sixth time in the club's 36-year history and for the first time since 1997. Nine of his 11 regulars started at least 14 games on a squad that ranked the second-youngest in the NFL (26 years, 59 days). Seattle ranked in the top 10 in multiple categories, including second in fewest touchdowns allowed in the second half (11), third in second half points allowed (119), fourth in opponent yards per rush attempt (3.79), fifth in turnover differential (+8), fifth in most takeaways (31) and seventh in points allowed per game (19.7).

Bradley's group sent three players to the 2012 Pro Bowl, with Thomas voted as a starter. He was joined in Hawaii by fellow secondary mates safety Kam Chancellor and cornerback Brandon Browner.

In Bradley's first year as defensive coordinator, the Seahawks posted two shut-outs at home, the first time since 1986 they accomplished that feat.

Bradley joined Seattle after spending three years (2006-08) with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under Defensive Coordinator Monte Kiffin, serving the last two as linebackers coach after joining the Bucs in 2006 as their defensive quality control coach. Derrick Brooks earned Pro Bowl appearances in 2007 and 2008 under Bradley's guidance.

Prior to Tampa Bay, Bradley spent 10 seasons (1996-2005) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, North Dakota State, including six as the assistant head coach (2000-05). He also served as defensive coordinator for the Bison from 1997-2002, and again in 2005. Under Bradley's guidance, North Dakota State's defense led the Great West Football Conference in scoring defense (13.7 points per game), pass defense (150.3 yards), total defense (272.4) and turnover margin (+1) in 2005.

Bradley was the head coach at Fort Lewis College for four months (December 1995 - March 1996) and was defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Fort Lewis for four seasons (1992-1995). Prior to Fort Lewis, he was a graduate assistant coach at NDSU for two seasons (1990-1991).

Bradley played collegiately at North Dakota State (1984-1988), where he was a free safety and punter, a four-time academic All-North Central Conference selection and a valuable member of the 1988 national championship football team. He earned his bachelor's degrees in business administration (1989) and physical education (1990) from North Dakota State as well as a master's degree in athletic administration from NDSU in 1992.

Bradley has been actively involved in the local community since his arrival in Jacksonville. He is the spokesperson for the Ashley Furniture HomeStores' A Hope to Dream program which provides beds to underprivileged children. In addition, Bradley has made numerous appearances on behalf of the Jaguars and served as the keynote speaker at a variety of events.

Bradley and his wife, Michaela, have four children; Carter, Anna, Eli and Ella.

GREG OLSON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Greg Olson, who has 28 years of coaching experience, was named offensive coordinator on January 21, 2015. Olson was assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach for the Jaguars during the 2012 season. His coaching experience includes 13 years in the NFL and 15 at the collegiate level. His resume includes eight seasons as an offensive coordinator in the NFL with Detroit (2005), St. Louis (2006-07), Tampa Bay (2009-11) and Oakland (2013-14).

Olson spent the last two seasons with Oakland as offensive coordinator where he tutored three young quarterbacks in Terrelle Pryor, Matt McGloin and 2014 first-round draft pick Derek Carr. Olson played a key role in the development of Carr, who threw for 3,270 yards and 21 touchdowns, tops among rookie quarterbacks. His 21 touchdown passes ranked 15th overall in the NFL. The Raiders allowed only 28 sacks, the sixth-fewest in the NFL. The Raiders ranked 12th in the NFL in rushing (125.0) in 2013, sixth in yards per rush (4.6) and third with 18 rushes of 20-plus yards. The Raiders became the first team since 1978 to have four different players record a 100-yard rushing game in the same season. Pryor set the single-season franchise record for a quarterback with 576 rushing yards and ranked second among NFL quarterbacks.

Prior to joining the Jaguars the first time, Olson served four seasons with the Buccaneers including the last three as offensive coordinator. He spent the 2008 season as quarterbacks coach. Olson was responsible for the development of quarterback Josh Freeman, the 17th overall pick in the 2009 draft. Under Olson's guidance, Freeman threw for 8,898 yards and 51 touchdowns in his first three seasons as a starter. In 2011, Freeman ranked eighth in the NFL with a 62.8 completion percentage and 13th with 3,592 passing yards.

In Olson's second season as offensive coordinator in 2010, Freeman ranked sixth in the NFL with a 95.9 passer rating while throwing for 3,451 yards, 25 touchdowns and only six interceptions, placing him ninth for touchdown-to-interception ratio in NFL single-season history. Olson helped guide the Buccaneers to one of their best offensive seasons in team history, setting franchise records for yards per play (5.61), average per rush (4.64 yards), average per pass play (7.21), passer rating (96.2) and fewest interceptions thrown (six). The Buccaneers also finished with the fourth-most points scored (341), third-most yards in total offense (5,362) and second-best third down percentage (42.2%) in a single season in team history.

The Buccaneers were the youngest team in the NFL in 2010 and wide receiver Mike Williams, a fourth-round draft pick, finished the year leading all rookie receivers in the league in every major receiving category while setting a single-season team record with 11 touchdown receptions. Running back LeGarrette Blount's 1,007 rushing yards led all rookie running backs and he became just the second undrafted rookie running back in NFL history to finish with over 1,000 yards. It marked the first time since 1968 that a team had two different players lead all rookies in rushing and receiving yards.

Despite his late elevation to the coordinator position in 2009, Olson's offense showed consistent growth around Freeman. The offense recorded three games of 400-plus yards of total offense, including 469 yards at Carolina for the fifth-best single-game performance in team history and the most by the team in over 20 years. Working closely with Olson, Freeman led all rookie quarterbacks in completion percentage (54.5) while setting Buccaneer rookie records for touchdown passes (10) and passing yards (1,855) despite starting in just nine games.

In his first season in Tampa Bay in 2008, Olson was part of an offense that ranked 14th in the NFL and ninth in the NFC in total offense. In addition, the Buccaneers featured the 11th-ranked passing offense in the NFL as Tampa Bay signal callers passed for 3,788 yards. The Buccaneers offense finished the season amassing 5,456 total yards, the highest total in team history, while scoring 361 points, the second-highest total in team annals. Under Olson's tutelage, Jeff Garcia tied for second in the NFL for fewest interceptions (six), was ninth in the league and third in the NFC in completion percentage (64.9) and ninth in the NFL and fifth in the NFC in quarterback rating (90.2).

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Olson spent two seasons (2006-07) as offensive coordinator for the St. Louis Rams. In his first year with the Rams in 2006 he helped guide a high-powered offense that ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense (360.4 yards per game) and a passing offense that ranked third (247.6) in the NFC.

Under Olson's direction, the 2006 Rams became just the fourth team in NFL history to produce a 4,000-yard passer (Marc Bulger), a 1,500-yard rusher (Steven Jackson) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Torry Holt and Isaac Bruce). Bulger, Jackson and Holt were all selected to the Pro Bowl. Bulger also posted career-highs in passing yards (4,301), passing touchdowns (24) and passing attempts (588) and completions (370) while ranking second in the NFL in interception percentage (1.4%). Jackson also had a career year in 2006, leading the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 2,334, and he led all NFL running backs with 90 receptions and was fifth in the NFL in rushing yards with 1,528.

Prior to his time with the Rams, Olson spent one season as quarterbacks coach (2004) and one season as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach (2005) for the Detroit Lions. In 2004 Olson took over play-calling duties for the Lions with three games remaining in the season and the Lions offense went on to average 403.6 total yards per game. In 2005, Olson was named offensive coordinator of the Lions in Week 11.

Olson entered the NFL as quarterbacks coach for the San Francisco 49ers in 2001 under head coach Steve Mariucci. Quarterback Jeff Garcia threw for a career-high 32 touchdown passes while posting a career-best 94.8 passer rating and 62.7 completion percentage in 2001. Following one season as tight ends coach/recruiting coordinator at Purdue, Olson spent one season as quarterbacks coach for the Chicago Bears in 2003.

From 1997-2000, as quarterbacks coach at Purdue, Olson played a key role in the development of Pro Bowl and Super Bowl-winning quarterback Drew Brees. Under Olson, Brees was a Heisman Trophy finalist in 1999 and 2000 while winning the Maxwell Award as the nation's most outstanding player in 2000. Brees finished his collegiate career as the Big Ten and Purdue's all-time leader in passing yardage (11,792), touchdown passes (90), total yards (12,693), completion percentage (61.1%), completions (1,026) and attempts (1,678). He also ranked fourth in NCAA Division I-A history for total offense, completions and attempts upon his departure from Purdue. Under Olson, Brees had seven 400-yard passing games and 16 300-yard passing games. Brees earned Big Ten player of Year honors in 1998 and 2000 and All-Conference accolades for three straight years (1998-2000).

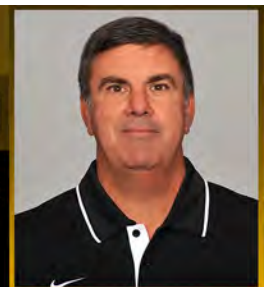

Olson began his coaching career in 1987 as a graduate assistant under the tutelage of head coaches Dennis Erickson (1987-88) and Mike Price (1989) at Washington State, where he earned his master's degree in athletic administration. He spent four seasons (1990-93) as an assistant at Central Washington University and two seasons at Idaho (1994-96). At Central Washington Olson developed quarterback Jon Kitna, who went on to become an NFL starter at Seattle, Cincinnati and Detroit.

BOB BABICH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bob Babich is in his third season as defensive coordinator for the Jaguars after being named to the post on January 19, 2013. Babich has 32 years of coaching experience, including 12 seasons in the NFL as an assistant and six as a head coach on the collegiate level.

Babich oversaw a defensive unit in 2014 that ranked sixth in the NFL in sacks with 45, the fourth-most in team history. In addition, the Jaguars led the NFL in sack-fumbles (12), ranked second in fumble recoveries (14) and third in forced fumbles (19). The 19 forced fumbles were the most in franchise history while two of the fumble recoveries resulted in defensive touchdowns. The Jaguars defense excelled in the red zone, only allowing opponents to score touchdowns on 48.2 percent of their red zone trips, the eighth-best mark in the NFL. Over the last 12 games, the Jaguars defense allowed only 19 points a game including 13 or fewer in two of the last three outings after allowing 34.5 points in the first four games.

In his first season with the Jaguars, Babich directed a unit that improved throughout the season. The defense improved from 11 sacks in the first eight games to 20 in the second half of the season, 26th in the NFL in takeaways to

COACHING STAFF

13th, 31st to 4th in average per rush and 32nd to 11th in rushing yards per game. Rookies combined to make 35 starts on defense including 15 starts by 2013 second-round draft pick Johnathan Cyprien who totaled 98 tackles, the most among all rookie defensive backs. Linebacker Paul Posluszny led the team with 161 tackles and was named to his first career Pro Bowl.

Babich spent nine seasons (2004-12) with the Chicago Bears where he served six years as linebackers coach and three as defensive coordinator under Head Coach Lovie Smith. The Bears won three NFC North titles and advanced to the postseason three times. Babich was initially hired as linebackers coach in his first season and added the title of assistant head coach for the 2006 season in which the Bears advanced to the Super Bowl for the first time in 21 years. He was promoted to defensive coordinator in 2007, a title he held for three seasons. He served as the club's linebackers coach for his final three seasons.

In Babich's nine years with Chicago, the Bears linebacker corps was arguably the most productive in the NFL with Lance Briggs (7) and Brian Urlacher (4) combining to make 11 Pro Bowls. Urlacher was named the 2005 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, and in 2007 he became just the third player in franchise history to record five sacks and five interceptions in a single season. Briggs is one of four Bears linebackers to be selected to seven straight Pro Bowls joining Hall of Famers Mike Singletary, Dick Butkus and Bill George. Either Urlacher or Briggs led the Bears in tackles in each of Babich's nine seasons with the team, Briggs in 2004 (168), 2008 (136), 2009 (147), 2011 (147) and 2012 (128) and Urlacher in 2005 (171), 2006 (185), 2007 (158) and 2010 (146).

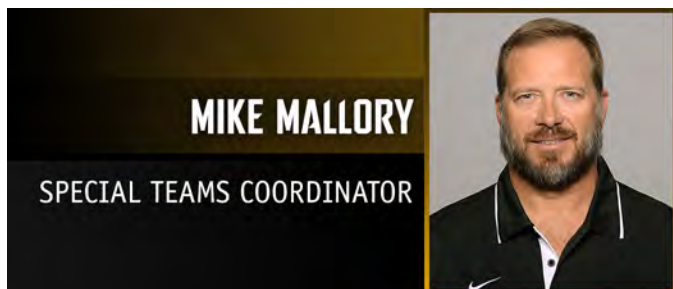

Babich began his NFL coaching career in 2003 with the St. Louis Rams as linebackers coach. The Rams improved from 22nd to first in the NFL with 46 takeaways, including a NFL-high 22 fumble recoveries. The Rams ranked fourth in the NFL in sacks in 2003, up from seventh in 2002.

Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, Babich spent 19 years as a college coach of which the final six were as a head coach. Babich served six seasons as head coach at North Dakota State University (1997-2002) where Jaguars Head Coach Gus Bradley served as an assistant under him. Babich earned a 46-22 career mark by posting five winning seasons with two NCAA Division II playoff appearances. The Bison were 9-2 in the regular season in his first year in 1997 and 12-1 in 2000, reaching the national semifinals before losing to the eventual national champion, Delta State. Babich's son, Bobby, played for his dad as a freshman at NDSU.

A native of Aliquippa, Pa., Babich began his career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Tulsa, from 1984-87 and later returned in 1991 for one season as a volunteer assistant coach/offensive line coach. He spent two seasons as an assistant at Wisconsin, one as an assistant offensive line coach (1988) and one as tight ends coach (1989). He coached linebackers at Bowling Green (1991) and East Carolina (1992-93) before spending three seasons at Pittsburgh in the same capacity from 1994-96.

Babich played two seasons at Mesa Community College before transferring to the University of Tulsa for his final two seasons. He and his wife, Nancy, have one son, Bobby; one daughter, Janie; daughter in law Lacey; son-in-law Cameron; granddaughters Lainey Marie, CharlieJane and Luella Rodgers and grandson, Bray.

MIKE MALLORY

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Mike Mallory was named special teams coordinator for the Jaguars on January 21, 2013. Mallory has 29 years of coaching experience including 22 years at the collegiate level.

In 2014, the Jaguars ranked 10th in opponents average starting field position after a kickoff (21.2 avg.) and 13th in average starting position after kickoff (21.9 avg.). Punter Bryan Anger ranked among NFL leaders in gross punting average (2nd, 47.4), punts of 50-plus yards (1st, 39) and punts of 60-plus yards (1st, 12). Kicker Josh Scobee led the team with 83 points, his seventh consecutive season with 80-plus points, and was successful on 10 field goals of 40-plus yards and two inside kicks.

The Jaguars' special teams unit in 2013 showed improvement in several areas from the previous season. The Jaguars improved from 20th in the NFL to second in opponents average starting field position (19.6), 27th to third in kickoff return average (25.9) and 27th to ninth in average starting field position after kickoff (22.5). The Jaguars led the NFL in highest percentage (85.4) of kickoff returns of 20-plus yards and allowed the fewest opponent kickoff returns of 20-plus yards (12). Scobee produced one of the best statistical seasons of his 10-year NFL career, leading the team with 91 points and connecting on 23 of 25 field goals (92.0). The 92 percent is tied for the second-best of his career. Anger led the NFL with 95 punts for 4,338 yards, surpassing the previous franchise records he set as a rookie. Jordan Todman finished with a 27.4-yard kickoff return average, the second-highest in franchise history for a season. The Jaguars blocked two kicks and forced one fumble on special teams.

Mallory previously spent five seasons (2008-12) with the New Orleans Saints, four as assistant special teams coach and one season as assistant secondary coach. From 2008-10 and in 2012, Mallory worked solely with the Saints special teams. He assisted in the development of kicker Garrett Hartley and punter Thomas Morstead. Hartley has converted 81.7 percent of his field goals since entering the NFL in 2008. Morstead, a 2009 fifth-round draft pick, has a 47.0-yard career average on 354 punts with a 41.0 net. He ranked second in the NFL in 2012 with a career-best 50.1-yard average and 43.2-yard net average.

As assistant secondary coach in 2011, Mallory helped tutor a unit where safeties Roman Harper (116) and Malcolm Jenkins (97) ranked among the team's top two leaders in tackles, while Harper's 7.5 sacks were a team-high and the second-highest total by an NFL defensive back since sacks were recognized as an official statistic in 1982. Cornerback Jabari Greer posted a career-high 83 tackles and 23 passes defended, while Patrick Robinson led the club with four interceptions in his second season.

Mallory spent the 2007 season at Louisville where he served as secondary coach. He served as linebackers coach at Kansas in 2006 after five seasons (2001-05) as an assistant at Illinois including his final two seasons as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach. He was promoted to linebackers coach in 2003 after spending his previous two years working with the safeties. Mallory began his coaching career at Indiana from 1986-87 and also had stints at Kent State (1988-90), Eastern Illinois (1991-92), Rhode Island (1993-95), Northern Illinois (1996-99) and Maryland (2000). He had a standout career as a linebacker at Michigan, twice earning All-Big Ten honors and was a two-year captain. He was a finalist for the 1985 Butkus Award, given to the nation's premier linebacker. During his collegiate career, he played in four bowl games and graduated with a bachelor's degree in sports administration.

A native of Bowling Green, Ohio, Mallory is from a distinguished football family. He is the son of Bill Mallory, who has served as a head coach at Indiana, Colorado, Northern Illinois and Miami University (Ohio). His brother, Doug, is currently the defensive assistant/linebackers coach for the Atlanta Falcons. His brother, Curt, is the secondary coach at the University of Wyoming.

Mallory and his wife, Kim, have a daughter, Kathryn, and a son, William.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Indiana 1986-87, Kent State 1988-90, Eastern Illinois 1991-92, Rhode Island 1993-95, Northern Illinois 1996-99, Maryland 2000, Illinois 2001-05, Kansas 2006, Louisville 2007, New Orleans Saints 2008-12, Jacksonville Jaguars 2013-15.

DOUG MARRONE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH-OFFENSE
& OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

A veteran of 23 years in coaching, Marrone joined the Jaguars as assistant head coach-offense/offensive line coach on January 20, 2015. Marrone has spent nine years in the NFL including the last two seasons as head coach of the Buffalo Bills.

Marrone compiled a 15-17 mark at the Bills' helm including a 9-7 mark in 2014, the most wins since 2004. He became only the third coach in Bills history to win 15 games in his first two seasons (Marv Levy, 19; Wade Phillips, 21). The Bills had six Pro Bowl selections during Marrone's two seasons.

The Bills had three different players with 60 receptions in 2014 for the first time in team history (Fred Jackson, 65; Sammy Watkins, 62; Robert Woods, 61) and the club produced six individual 100-yard receiving games. Watkins set team rookie records for receptions and receiving yards (982). The Bills ranked sixth in the NFL in 2014 with a plus-seven turnover differential.

In 2013, Marrone was at the helm of an offensive unit that led the AFC and finished second in the NFL in rushing (144.2 avg.) while also leading the league with 95.5 pct. red zone efficiency mark. Rookie quarterback E.J. Manuel started 10 games and set team rookie records for passing touchdowns (11) and completions (180).

Prior to joining the Bills, Marrone spent four seasons (2009-12) as the head coach of his alma mater, Syracuse, where he led the program to a 21-17 record in the last three seasons. He guided the Orange to an 8-5 record in 2010 and 2012 and both seasons culminated with a New Era Pinstripe Bowl Championship. The Orange set several school records in 2012, including total yards (5,681), passing yards (3,619) and first downs (300). Marrone earned American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Region 1 Coach of the Year honors in 2011 and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award.

Marrone spent seven seasons in the NFL (2002-08) before becoming a collegiate head coach. From 2006-08, Marrone served as the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints. He directed an offense that led the NFL in total offense (391.5 avg. in 2006; 410.7 avg. in 2008) and passing yards per game (281.4 avg. in 2006; 311.1 in 2008) in two different seasons (2006-08). The Saints' offensive line held their opponents to the fewest sacks allowed in the NFL in 2006 (16) and tied for the fewest sacks in the NFL from 2006-08 with 52 despite leading the NFL with 1,868 passing attempts during that span. Quarterback Drew Brees captured the NFL passing title in 2006 (4,418) and 2008 (5,069) and became just the second passer in NFL history to eclipse 5,000 passing yards (Dan Marino, 1984).

Prior to his arrival in New Orleans, the franchise had never had a 4,000-yard passer or registered more than 5,700 yards of offense. Brees eclipsed 4,000 passing yards and the offense posted more than 5,700 yards in each of Marrone's three seasons with the Saints. The Saints established a team record with an NFL-best 6,264 yards of offense in 2006, 5,780 in 2007 (4th in the NFL) and led the NFL again in 2008 with 6,571 yards.

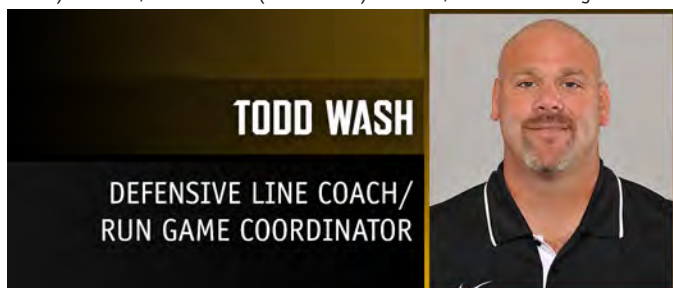

In Marrone's first season as an NFL offensive coordinator in 2006, left tackle Jammal Brown was voted to the All-Pro team and to the Pro Bowl in his first year at the position, while guard Jahri Evans was a unanimous All-Rookie selection. The Saints ranked fourth in the NFL in 2007 for total offense and set an NFL record for completions (440) and had franchise bests for passing first downs (222), attempts (652), touchdown passes (28) and completion percentage (67.5). In 2008, the Saints led the NFL in total offense while setting team records for points (463), total yards (6,571), net passing yards (4,977), touchdowns (57) and first downs (354).

Marrone was the offensive line coach of the New York Jets from 2002-05 and the team made two postseason appearances (2002, 2004) with him on the staff. In 2004, the Jets produced the NFL's third-best rushing offense (149.3 avg.) and Curtis Martin led the NFL with 1,697 rushing yards.

Before arriving in New York, Marrone served as tight ends/tackles coach at the University of Tennessee in 2001. He spent the 2000 season at the University of Georgia as offensive line coach after spending the previous five seasons (1995-99) at Georgia Tech where he was part of three consecutive bowl appearances. He was director of football operations for the Yellow Jackets in 1995 before coaching the tight ends in 1996 and offensive line from 1997-99.

Marrone began his coaching career in 1992 at SUNY Cortland (N.Y.) as the school's tight ends coach before having stints as the offensive line coach at U.S. Coast Guard Academy (1993) and Northeastern University in 1994. A native of Bronx, N.Y., Marrone was a sixth-round draft pick of the Los Angeles Raiders in 1986 and played two years in the NFL. He played with the Miami Dolphins in 1987 and with the Saints in 1989. He also had playing stints with Pittsburgh, Dallas and Minnesota before closing his career with the NFL Europe's London Monarchs from 1991-92. Marrone was a three-year letterman at Syracuse. He returned to Syracuse and graduated in 1991 with a degree in liberal arts. He and his wife, Helen, have two daughters, Madeline and Anne, and a son, Mack.

TODD WASH

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH/RUN GAME COORDINATOR

Entering his third season with the club, Todd Wash added run game coordinator to his title in 2015 after being named defensive line coach for the Jaguars on January 28, 2013. Wash and Jaguars Head Coach Gus Bradley were on the same staff at Seattle (2011-12) and the two also coached together at North Dakota State (2002-03) for two seasons and the 2007 season with Tampa Bay.

Under the guidance of Wash, the Jaguars' defensive line unit has shown steady improvement over the past two seasons. The Jaguars ranked sixth in the NFL with 45 sacks in 2014, the fourth-most in franchise history and most since 2005. Among the 45 sacks, 37 were credited to a defensive lineman. In addition, the Jaguars led the NFL with 12 sack/forced fumbles and ranked third in the NFL with a franchise-record 19 forced fumbles. The Jaguars forced five fumbles in Week 12 at Indianapolis, the most in franchise history. Sixth-year defensive tackle Sen'Derrick Marks had the best statistical season of his career, totaling 8.5 sacks, 15 tackles for loss and 16 quarterback hits. Veteran defensive end Chris Clemons registered eight sacks and second-year defensive end Ryan Davis notched a career-high 6.5 sacks. In Wash's first year with the Jaguars in 2013, the club improved its sack total from 20 in 2012 to 31 and totaled 19 sacks in the last seven games.

Wash coached the Seahawks defensive line from 2011-12 and helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in yards per game (319.2), third in fewest points allowed (17.5), first in opponents passer rating (73.2) and fifth in takeaways (62) during that span. The Seahawks registered an 11-5 regular season record in 2012, the third-best mark in franchise history, and advanced to the divisional round of the playoffs. The Seahawks led the NFL by allowing a franchise-record low 15.3 points per game and ranked fourth in total defense (306.2 yards per game).

Wash worked closely with current Jaguars defensive end Chris Clemons during his tenure in Seattle. Clemons, who posted the two highest sack totals of his career the last two seasons, posted a career-best 11.5 sacks in 2012 which ranked ninth in the NFL. Rookie defensive end Bruce Irvin led all NFL rookies with eight sacks. The 19.5 sacks between Clemons and Irvin ranked as the sixth-highest for a tandem in the NFL. The Seahawks improved from 33 sacks to 36 in 2012. In his first season in Seattle, Wash aided a unit that ranked ninth in the NFL in total defense (332.2) and fourth in opponents yards per rush attempt (3.79). Clemons posted his second consecutive season with 11.0 sacks and added 20-plus quarterback hits. Tackle Brandon Mebane led all NFC interior linemen with 56 tackles (40 solo).

Wash entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Buccaneers where he spent four seasons (2007-10) with the last three as defensive line coach. Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Wash had two stints (2002-03, 2005-06) as an assistant coach at his alma mater, North Dakota State. He spent his first season with the Bison as an assistant under Jaguars defensive coordinator Bob Babich. While with the Bison, Wash coached the defensive line and coordinated the run defense. In between appointments at NDSU, he spent the 2004 season as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Missouri Southern State. Wash began his coaching career at Fort Lewis College in 1996 as defensive coordinator and was promoted to head coach/defensive coordinator for three seasons (1997-99). He worked as defensive coordinator at Nebraska-Kearney from 2000-01. A two-time All-North Central Conference outside linebacker at North Dakota State, Wash played on two national championship teams with the Bison in 1988 and 1990. A preseason All-American and team captain in 1991, he went to camp as an undrafted free agent with the Houston Oilers in 1992. He holds two degrees from NDSU, including a bachelor's degree in physical education (1994) and a master's in athletic administration (1996).

Wash, born July 19, 1968, and his wife, Darci, have two daughters, Alyssa and Jenae, and one son, Marcus. Darci was an All-America basketball player at NDSU and played on three national championship teams. She was inducted into the Bison Athletic Hall of Fame in 2012.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Fort Lewis College 1996, 1997-99 (head coach), Nebraska-Kearney 2000-01, North Dakota State 2002-03, 2005-06, Missouri Southern State 2004, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2007-10, Seattle Seahawks 2011-12, Jacksonville Jaguars 2013-15.

LUKE BUTKUS

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

Luke Butkus is in his third season as the Jaguars assistant offensive line coach after joining the staff on January 28, 2013. Now in his eighth NFL season as a coach, Butkus spent two seasons with the Seattle Seahawks where he was on the same staff with Jaguars Head Coach Gus Bradley.

Butkus served as interim offensive line coach in 2014 and oversaw a unit that featured zero players that started for the club in the 2013 season finale. The unit featured two rookie starters – guard Brandon Linder and center Luke Bowanko – and only two players that had more than 14 career starts. Left tackle Luke Joeckel, the second overall pick in 2013, returned to the lineup after missing the final 11 games of his rookie season with an ankle injury. Only Joeckel and left guard Zane Beadles started all 16 games for the club. Butkus assisted with an offensive line that had nine different starters during the 2013 season.

Butkus spent the 2012 season as offensive line coach at his alma mater, Illinois. He was hired as part of Tim Beckman's first staff at Illinois.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Butkus spent five seasons working in the NFL, the last two with the Seahawks under Head Coach Pete Carroll as a quality control assistant working with the offensive line. He worked as an offensive assistant/assistant offensive line coach with the Chicago Bears under Head Coach Lovie Smith from 2007-09.

Butkus began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Oregon from 2005-06, helping the Ducks to appearances in the 2005 Holiday Bowl and the 2006 Las Vegas Bowl.

A three-year starting center at Illinois from 1999-2001, Butkus was a third-team All-America selection by the Associated Press in 2001 and was a two-time All-Big Ten selection in 2000 and 2001. He helped the Illini to a Big Ten title and an appearance in the Sugar Bowl in 2001, anchoring an offensive line that paved the way for then-school records in total points, points per game and sacks allowed.

Butkus was signed by the Chicago Bears as a rookie free agent in 2002 and spent most of the season on the San Diego Chargers' practice squad. He played two seasons in NFL Europe, for the Rhein Fire in 2003 and the Cologne Centurions in 2004, before moving into the coaching ranks.

A graduate of Bloom Township High School in suburban Chicago, Butkus is a nephew of NFL Hall of Fame linebacker Dick Butkus, who played with the Bears from 1965-73. Luke's cousin, Mark Butkus, lettered at Illinois from 1980-83, while his brother, Josh, also graduated from Illinois.

Butkus and his wife, Nici, have three sons, Benjamin, Byron and Bear.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Oregon 2005-06, Chicago Bears 2007-09, Seattle Seahawks 2010-11, Illinois 2012, Jacksonville Jaguars 2013-15.

Nathaniel Hackett is in his first season as the Jaguars quarterbacks coach after being named to the post on January 29, 2015. Hackett spent the last two years with the Buffalo Bills as offensive coordinator.

Hackett directed a Bills offense in 2014 that finished with an 86.0 passer rating, the highest for a Bills team since 2002. The Bills tallied 33 plays of 25-plus yards, the sixth-most in the NFL, and most for a Bills team since 2000. Bills quarterbacks combined for only 13 interceptions, the third-fewest in franchise history, and rookie wide receiver Sammy Watkins set team rookie records in 100-yard games (4), receiving yards (982) and receptions (65). Quarterback Kyle Orton posted a career-best 64.2 completion percentage, the third-highest in franchise history, and an 87.8 passer rating (second-highest of his career).

In his first year as an NFL offensive coordinator in 2013, Hackett oversaw an offense that featured rookie quarterback EJ Manuel and the running back duo of Fred Jackson and C.J. Spiller. The Bills ranked second in the NFL, first in the AFC, with a 144.2-yard rushing average while ranking second in the AFC with 56 rushes of 10-plus yards. The Bills led the NFL with a 95.5 percent red zone scoring mark. Manuel started 10 games and set franchise rookie records for passing touchdowns (11) and completions (180). Rookie wideout Robert Woods ranked fifth among all rookies with 40 receptions for 587 yards and three touchdowns.

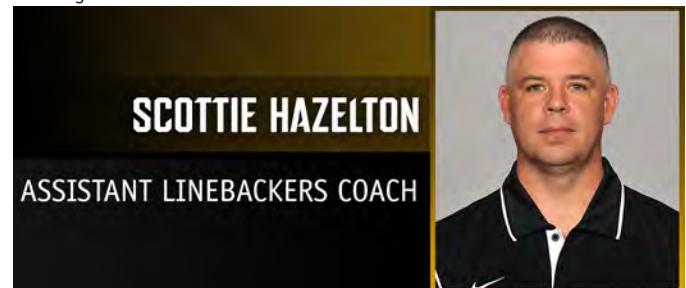

Hackett joined the Bills after three years at Syracuse working under current Jaguars Assistant Head Coach-Offense/Offensive Line coach Doug Marrone. Hackett served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/tight ends coach from 2011-12 after spending the 2010 season as quarterbacks/passing game/tight ends coach. Under his direction, the Orange set numerous records in 2012 including total offense (6,188 yards), yards per game (476.0), passing yards (3,757), touchdown passes (26), completions (295) and first downs (328). The school featured a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in 2012 for the first time in school history while eclipsing 500-plus yards of offense in seven games. He tutored All-America quarterback Ryan Nassib, who finished his career with a school-record 9,190 passing yards, 791 completions and 1,312 attempts while ranking second with 70 touchdown passes.

Prior to joining Syracuse, Hackett served four seasons as an offensive quality control coach in the NFL. He spent two seasons with Buffalo (2008-09) and Tampa Bay (2006-07). He began his coaching career at his alma mater, U.C. Davis, in 2003 where he served as assistant linebackers coach. He worked as an assistant to the offensive and defensive coordinators at Stanford from 2003-04. In December of 2004, he accepted the position of linebackers coach at Western Michigan, but returned to Stanford after he was hired as the specialist's coach and recruiting coordinator.

Hackett was a four-year letterman at U.C. Davis, where he played linebacker and served as the team's long snapper from 1999-2002. The Aggies reached the playoffs in each of his four seasons, finishing with a combined 41-9 record. He won the George Beleniz Award in 1998 as the team's Most Outstanding Redshirt and the "Aggie Pride" Award in 2002 as a senior. Hackett, the son of former NCAA and NFL coach Paul Hackett, was born on December 19, 1979 in Fullerton, Calif. He is married to the former Megan Baumgartner and they have two sons, Harrison and London, and two daughters, Briar and Everly.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Cal-Davis 2003, Stanford 2003-05, Tampa Bay Buccaneers 2006-07, Buffalo Bills 2008-09, 2013-14, Syracuse 2010-12, Jacksonville Jaguars 2015.

Scottie Hazelton, 41, was named the Jaguars assistant linebackers coach on February 10, 2014. Hazelton, entering his second season in the NFL, has 18 years of college coaching experience.

Hazelton was tutored as a defensive coach by Jaguars Defensive Coordinator Bob Babich and Jaguars Head Coach Gus Bradley at North Dakota State. During his career, Hazelton has coached every defensive position (defensive line, linebackers, defensive backs and defensive coordinator).

In his first season with the Jaguars, Hazelton worked closely with 2014 fifth-round draft pick Telvin Smith. Smith ranked second on the team with 99 tackles and nine tackles for loss, the third-most tackles by a rookie in 2014, while making 10 starts in 16 games played.

In 2013, Hazelton served as the defensive coordinator at the University of Nevada. Previously, Hazelton was linebackers coach at Southern California (2012) after five seasons at North Dakota State. Hazelton was the defensive line coach at North Dakota State from 2007-2009 before being promoted to the defensive coordinator/linebackers coach for the 2010 and 2011 seasons. In his first year with the Bison in 2007, the school earned wins against FBS opponents Central Michigan and Minnesota. The following year Hazelton's defense led the FCS in pass defense, ranked fifth in total defense (254.0 yards per game) and 19th in scoring defense (19.2 points against per game). When he assumed the role as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach, North Dakota State made its first trip to the FCS playoffs in 2010, followed by its first FCS National Championship in 2011.

Prior to joining North Dakota State, Hazelton had stints as the linebackers coach at Michigan Tech (2006), defensive coordinator for Missouri Southern State (2004-2005), defensive backs coach for St. Olaf College (2002-2003) and as a graduate assistant at North Dakota State (2000-2001). Hazelton began his coaching career as the defensive backs coach at Fort Lewis College from 1996-1998, before taking over as the defensive coordinator in 1999.

Hazelton, a native of Brighton, Colo., played linebacker at Fort Lewis College from 1992-1994, lettering for three years and earning his undergraduate degree in exercise science. He and his wife, Brooke, have two daughters, Ava and Sophie, along with two sons, Bode West and Crew Mosley.

RON MIDDLETON

TIGHT ENDS COACH/
ASSISTANT SPECIAL
TEAMS COACH

A 10-year NFL veteran as a player, Ron Middleton is in his third season with the Jaguars after being named tight ends/assistant special teams coach on February 7, 2013. Middleton spent the previous five years (2008-12) at Duke, serving as associate head coach and special teams coordinator, while also coaching the tight ends.

Middleton was responsible for a tight ends unit in 2014 that was plagued by injuries early in the season to veterans Marcedes Lewis and Clay Harbor. Lewis missed eight games with an ankle injury and Harbor was inactive the first three weeks with a calf injury. Undrafted rookie Nic Jacobs stepped into the lineup and played in 13 games with four starts. Harbor finished with a career-best 26 receptions for 289 yards while Lewis added two scores.

In Middleton's first season with the Jaguars, three different players made starts at tight end with Lewis (11), Harbor (2) and Allen Reisner (2). Lewis led the club with four receiving touchdowns including a score in three straight games for the first time in his career.

Under Middleton's guidance at Duke, kicker Ross Martin and punter Will Monday received first-team Freshman All-America honors in 2012. Martin set a school single-season record with 106 points while Monday led the ACC with a 44.6-yard average. The tight end duo of Issac Blakeney and David Reeves, both playing for the first time in their careers, combined for 50 receptions for 412 yards and four touchdowns.

Duke tight end Cooper Helfet twice earned honorable mention All-ACC honors in 2010 and 2011. In two seasons at Duke, Helfet caught 77 passes for 775 yards and six touchdowns. Kicker Will Snyderwine was a first team All-America selection in 2010 after connecting on a single-season record 21 field goals.

In the three-year span from 2010-12, the Blue Devils recovered an ACC-best eight inside kicks while ranking among the top four in kickoff coverage all three seasons. In addition, Duke was second in the ACC in punt return average in 2012 and scored two touchdowns.

Prior to joining the Blue Devils, Middleton spent one season (2007) on the staff at Alabama where he coached the tight ends and the special teams units. Under Middleton's direction, Alabama kicker Leigh Tiffin totaled 111 points with a school single-season record 25 field goals. In addition, Javier Arenas ranked among the SEC's top 10 leaders in both kickoff and punt return average while tight end Nick Walker caught 23 passes for 204 yards and two touchdowns.

The Atmore, Ala. native served three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers under Head Coach Jon Gruden. Middleton coached the tight ends and assisted with special teams and helped Tampa Bay to the 2005 NFC South Division championship. He was a member of the Buccaneers' training camp coaching staff in 2003 as a part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program, and was selected by Gruden in 2006 to attend the NFL's Coaches Career Development Symposium.

Middleton spent five seasons (1999-2003) on the coaching staff at Mississippi where he worked with the tight ends for three seasons and running backs for two campaigns along with serving as the special teams coordinator. The Rebels played in four bowl games during Middleton's tenure. Kicker Jonathan Nichols, who set 15 school records, earned All-SEC honors and captured the Lou Groza Award as the nation's top placekicker in 2003. In 2003, Nichols connected on 24 of 28 field goals and hit all 45 of his PATs en route to a school single-season record 117 points. In Middleton's final season, punter Cody Ridgeway garnered second-team All-SEC accolades while the Rebels led the SEC in net punting, kickoff returns and field goals.

Middleton began his coaching career at Troy from 1997-98 where he worked with the tight ends, offensive tackles and assisted with special teams. He also spent time in private business, serving as vice president of American Communications.

A four-year letterwinner at tight end for Auburn from 1982-85, Middleton helped the Tigers to a four-year ledger of 37-12 with four bowl games that produced three victories. In 1983, Auburn posted an 11-1 record, won the SEC title and defeated Michigan, 9-7, in the Sugar Bowl. Middleton earned a degree in pre-law/history from Auburn in 1988 and later received a master's degree in sports and fitness management from Troy in 1998.

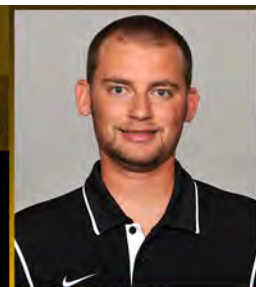

Middleton's NFL playing career spanned 10 seasons with five different teams. After signing with Atlanta as a rookie free agent, he spent two seasons (1986-87) with the Falcons before joining the Washington Redskins for the 1988 campaign. Following one season (1989) with the Cleveland Browns, Middleton returned to the Redskins for four seasons that included a win over Buffalo in Super Bowl XXVI. He finished his career with the Los Angeles Rams (1994) and the San Diego Chargers (1995).

Middleton and his wife, Kalita, have three children: Desman, Ron II and Zaria.

CHRIS O'HARA

OFFENSIVE COACHES ASSOCIATE

Chris O'Hara is in his second season as offensive coaches associate for the Jaguars after being named to the post on April 21, 2014. O'Hara is responsible for assisting in the day-to-day operations of the offensive coaching staff. O'Hara previously spent three seasons coaching on the defensive side of the ball at the University of Miami, one as a graduate assistant and two as a student assistant. Prior to working at the University of Miami, O'Hara spent two seasons at Temple University serving as a student assistant with the school's football team. A native of Swoyersville, Pa., O'Hara graduated from the University of Miami (Fla.) in December 2012 with a degree in sports administration.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Temple 2009-10, Miami (Fla.) 2011-13, Jacksonville Jaguars 2014-15.

MIKE RUTENBERG

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

In his third season with the club, Mike Rutenberg was named assistant defensive backs coach for the Jaguars on February 7, 2013. Rutenberg spent the four seasons prior (2009-12) at New Mexico State, where he coached the team's defensive backs. Jaguars Defensive Backs Coach DeWayne Walker was the team's head coach during Rutenberg's tenure.

Rutenberg worked closely with a group of young defensive backs the last two seasons. The Jaguars have drafted seven defensive backs in the last three seasons with Johnathan Cyprien (2013, strong safety), Josh Evans (2013, free safety), Dwayne Gratz (2013, cornerback), Jeremy Harris (2013, cornerback) Demetrius McCray (2013, cornerback), Aaron Colvin (2014, cornerback) and James Sample (2015, safety). Cyprien led the team with 111 tackles (77 solo) in 2014, third-most among all NFL defensive backs.

Rutenberg played a vital role in the development of the team's young secondary in 2013, which featured three rookie starters in Cyprien, Evans and Gratz. Cyprien finished second on the team and first among NFL rookie defensive backs with 98 tackles and added two forced fumbles and one interception.

In 2012, Rutenberg served as defensive backs coach at New Mexico State and added the responsibility of pass game coordinator. In 2011 he guided the group to nine interceptions and 32 passes defensed. Defensive back Jonte Green was a second-team All-WAC selection, while safety Donyae Coleman earned first-team honors. Coleman led the Aggies with 133 tackles and posted a team-high six interceptions which led the conference and tied for seventh in the nation.

Under Rutenberg's tutelage in 2010, defensive back Davon House, who signed with the Jaguars this year, earned first team all-WAC honors for the second straight season after leading the team with two interceptions. He was also named to the 2011 Senior Bowl and was drafted by the Green Bay Packers in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft.

COACHING STAFF

In 2009, Rutenberg shared secondary coaching duties with R. Todd Littlejohn but focused on the team's safeties. The Aggie defensive backfield ranked No. 36 in the nation, giving up just 202.9 yards passing per game.

Prior to joining the New Mexico State staff, Rutenberg spent three years (2006-08) at UCLA where he was the Bruins' defensive graduate assistant and assistant to Walker, the school's then defensive coordinator. In 2007, he worked with a unit that ranked 29th nationally in total defense and helped recruit a top-10 class.

Rutenberg served as the assistant to Washington Redskins Head Coach Joe Gibbs from 2004-05. He served as a player personnel intern in 2003 and assistant for the Redskins.

Rutenberg, born Oct. 29, 1981, received his bachelor's degree from Cornell University in 2003. He and his wife, Stacey, reside in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Washington Redskins 2003-05, UCLA 2006-08, New Mexico State 2009-12, Jacksonville Jaguars 2013-15.

Robert Saleh, 36, is in his second season with the Jaguars after being named the linebackers coach on Feb. 10, 2014. Saleh, who is entering his 11th year in the NFL, spent three seasons as the defensive quality control coach for the Seahawks from 2011-13.

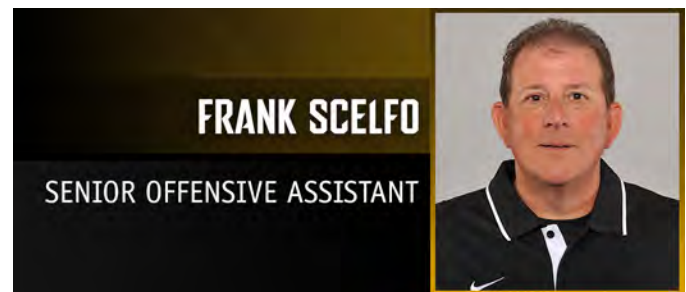

In 2014, six different players made starts at linebacker for the Jaguars. Under Saleh's guidance, 2014 fifth-round draft pick Telvin Smith stepped into the starting lineup and ranked third among all rookies with 99 tackles. Smith played in all 16 games and led the team with two fumble recoveries while ranking second with nine tackles for loss. Fifth-year pro J.T. Thomas entered the season with only two career starts but moved into the starting lineup with a season-ending injury to veteran Paul Posluszny. Thomas registered a career-high 80 tackles along with two interceptions, two tackles for loss and five passes defended while manning the middle of the defense.

As a part of Seattle's staff, Saleh worked under Head Coach Gus Bradley (Seahawks defensive coordinator, 2009-12) and Defensive Line Coach Todd Wash (Seahawks defensive line coach, 2011-12). During his three seasons with the Seahawks, Saleh was responsible for assisting the defensive staff with day-to-day duties, while focusing on the development of the linebackers.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Saleh spent six seasons with the Texans, including the final two as the assistant linebackers coach. In Houston, Saleh oversaw the growth of the Texans linebackers, including AP Defensive Rookie of the Year performances by DeMeco Ryans (2006) and Brian Cushing (2009). Saleh served as the Texans defensive assistant from 2005-08, handling the quality control aspects of the defense.

Saleh joined the Texans in 2005 after four seasons working in the collegiate ranks at Georgia (2005), Central Michigan (2004) and Michigan State (2002-03). A native of Dearborn, Mich., Saleh attended Northern Michigan University where he started at tight end for four years. Saleh and his wife, Sanaa, have three sons, Adam, Zane and Sam and one daughter, Mila.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Michigan State 2002-03, Central Michigan 2004, Georgia 2005, Houston Texans 2005-10, Seattle Seahawks 2011-13, Jacksonville Jaguars 2014-15.

A veteran of 32 years in coaching, Frank Scelfo is in his third season in the NFL. Scelfo spent his first two seasons as quarterbacks coach with the Jaguars before he was named senior offensive assistant on January 28, 2015.

Scelfo worked with 2014 first-round pick Blake Bortles in 2014. Bortles, the third overall pick, started the final 14 games and set the franchise rookie record for completions (280) and passing yards (2,908). He rushed for 419 yards on 56 carries, the highest rushing average (7.48) by a NFL quarterback in 2014. Veteran quarterback Chad Henne directed the Jaguars offense in 2013, starting 13 of 15 games. He completed a career-high 305 passes while throwing for 3,241 yards and 13 touchdowns.

Scelfo spent two seasons (2010-11) as quarterbacks coach for the University of Arizona where he tutored Eagles 2012 third-round pick Nick Foles. Foles finished his college career as the school's all-time leader in passing yards (10,011), touchdowns (67), attempts (1,369) and completions (933). As a senior in 2011, Foles threw for a school single-season-record 4,334 yards and 28 touchdowns while also setting school marks for attempts (560) and completions (387).

In 2010, Scelfo worked with Foles, Matt Scott and Bryson Beirne. Foles earned honorable-mention All-Pac 10 honors after throwing for 3,191 yard and 20 touchdowns. Scott engineered two victories as the starter and Beirne appeared in three games with a 221.4 pass efficiency rating. The Wildcats averaged 307 passing yards per game, one yard shy of the school single-season best, and checked in with a combined 68 percent completion rate and 25 scoring throws.

Prior to joining Arizona, Scelfo spent three seasons (2007-09) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Louisiana Tech. In 2008, Scelfo directed the Bulldogs offense to a win in the Independence Bowl, the school's first bowl victory in three decades. The team ranked 27th nationally in rushing, with Daniel Porter leading the way with 1,164 yards. The Bulldogs had six games of 30 or more points and Scelfo mentored a sophomore quarterback, Ross Jenkins, as a first-time starter. Porter became Louisiana Tech's all-time rusher with 3,352 yards.

Scelfo entered the collegiate coaching ranks at Tulane where he spent 11 seasons (1996-2006) including the last eight seasons as offensive coordinator. He coached tight ends and was recruiting coordinator for the Green Wave in his first three seasons from 1996-98. With Scelfo on the staff, the Green Wave were ranked nationally in the top 30 in passing five times including the third-most passing yards in 2000. In 1998, the club finished with a 12-0 record, one of only two Division I-A undefeated teams, and a win in the Liberty Bowl.

During his tenure at Tulane, Scelfo tutored four quarterbacks that went on to the NFL in Patrick Ramsey, J.P. Losman, Lester Ricard and Shaun King. Each of the players finished their careers ranked in the top five in school history in career passing yards. A total of eight Tulane offensive players were selected in the NFL Draft during Scelfo's tenure.

The Abbeville, La. native produced Tulane's all-time passing leader (Ramsey), all-time rushing leader (Matt Forte) and all-purpose yardage leader (Mewelde Moore), all-time touchdown receptions leader (Roydell Williams) and all-time scoring leader (Seth Marler). Moore also became only the second player in NCAA history to produce 4,000 career rushing yards and 2,000-plus receiving yards during his time under Scelfo.

Scelfo began his coaching career on the high school level where he spent 14 years with stops in Louisiana at Prairie View (1982-83), Jesuit (1984) and River Oaks (1985-86), and in Texas at Vidor (1987), Orangefield (1988), Chapel Hill (1989-91), Kilgore J.C. (1992-94) and North Shore (1995).

Scelfo earned his bachelor's degree and a master's from Northeast Louisiana (now Louisiana-Monroe) in 1981 and 1983, respectively. He played baseball for the Indians and was named NLU's 1981 Athlete of the Year his senior season.

Scelfo is married to Holly Kingery, and the couple has two sons, Anthony and Jordan, both of whom played QB at their respective universities. Anthony was drafted by the Tampa Bay Rays in the 2008 Major League Baseball draft.

Dan Shamash was hired as the Jaguars defensive quality control coach on February 12, 2014. Shamash joined the Jaguars staff after two years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

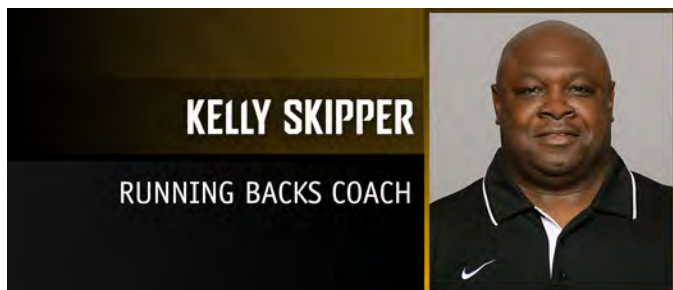

With the Buccaneers in 2013, Shamash served in the role of quality control to the head coach. Shamash assisted then-head coach Greg Schiano in football aspects ranging from situational football and game management to daily practice, squad meetings and research projects.

Prior to joining Tampa Bay, Shamash spent two seasons (2009-10) with the Cleveland Browns working as an offensive assistant coach where he was an assistant to the offensive line in 2009 and assisted the tight ends and running backs in 2010. Shamash solely handled all opponent film breakdowns, in addition to weekly and designated self-scout and analysis of the Browns' offense, while working directly with Offensive Coordinator Brian Daboll in preparation for daily practice scripting, scheduling and game planning. On top of his offensive responsibilities, Shamash worked with Head Coach Eric Mangini on studying situational football.

Before joining the Browns, Shamash began his NFL career with the New York Jets in 2008 as a coaching assistant. He initially got his start with the organization as an intern in the special events and game operations department while spending time as a defensive assistant for Columbia University in New York City, working with outside linebackers. Shamash also had a brief stint at Pace University as tight ends/running backs coach during spring 2011, before leaving to join the NFL office and the New York Jets as a consultant for the 2011 season.

Shamash, a New York native, earned his undergraduate degree from Carnegie Mellon University in 2008. Shamash was a three-year letter winner at inside linebacker and helped the Tartans to a 10-0 regular season record, the team's winningest season in the school's history.

Kelly Skipper joined the Jaguars as running backs coach on January 27, 2015 after spending the last eight seasons with the Oakland Raiders. Skipper has 26 years of coaching experience, including 18 seasons on the collegiate level.

Skipper served as running backs coach for the Raiders for the last six seasons, after two years as tight ends coach. During his time as a running backs coach from 2009-14, the Raiders ranked 16th in the NFL in rushing and 12th in average per rush. He oversaw a running backs group that ranked 12th in rushing (125.0) in 2013 and third in the NFL with 18 rushes of 20-plus yards. The Raiders became the first team since 1978 to have four different players rush for 100 yards in the same season. Fullback Marcel Reese was named to the Pro Bowl for the third straight year in 2014 and was also named to the 2013 Associated Press All-Pro second team. Running back Rashad Jennings finished the season with 733 rushing yards including an NFL-high 596 total yards in the month of November.

In 2012, Reese ranked fourth among all NFL running backs with 52 receptions and second with 496 receiving yards. In 2010, Skipper oversaw a running game that ranked second (155.9) in the NFL and established a franchise record by averaging 4.9 yards per attempt. Under Skipper's tutelage, Darren

McFadden became the first Raider since 2007 to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark with 1,157 yards on the ground. The tandem of McFadden and Michael Bush totaled 1,812 yards and 15 touchdowns. As tight ends coach in 2008, Skipper oversaw tight end Zach Miller who led the Raiders in receptions (56) and receiving yards (778).

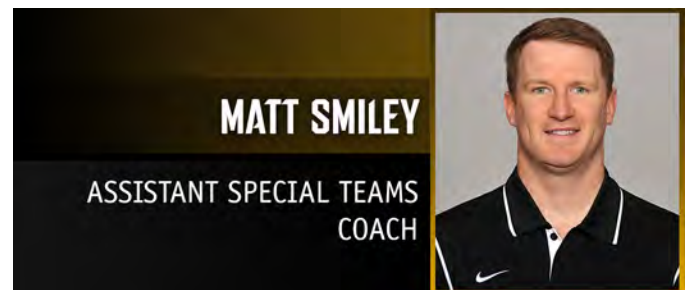

Prior to joining the Raiders, Skipper spent four seasons (2003-06) coaching running backs and special teams at Washington State. He also spent two summers, one with Seattle and one with Washington, as an NFL minority fellowship coaching intern.

From 1998-2002, Skipper was part of the UCLA coaching staff where he served as offensive coordinator from 2001-02. He tutored several players who went on to the NFL, including Lorenzo Neal, Michael Pittman, DeShaun Foster, Chris Ivory and Jed Collins.

Skipper began his coaching career as an assistant at his alma mater, Fresno State, from 1989-97. He started as a graduate assistant before he was elevated to full-time assistant in 1991. He handled running backs and return specialists, and served as recruiting coordinator during his time with the Bulldogs.

A native of Brawley, Calif., Skipper played running back at Fresno State and finished his career with 2,237 rushing yards and 28 touchdowns. He was a first-team All-Big West selection as a senior and earned his degree in business. He was inducted into the Churchill (Eugene, Ore.) High School Hall of Fame in 2008. He and his wife, Mary, have two children, Kaalen and Darius. Skipper's father, Jim, is a longtime NFL assistant and currently serves as running backs coach for the Carolina Panthers, and his brother, Tim, is in his first year as running backs coach at the University of Florida.

Entering his third year with the Jaguars, Matthew Smiley was named assistant special teams coach for the Jaguars on February 7, 2013. Smiley has 10 years of coaching experience, eight on the collegiate level.

In 2014, Smiley assisted a unit ranked 10th in opponents average starting field position after a kickoff (21.2 avg.) and 13th in average starting position after kickoff (21.9 avg.). Punter Bryan Anger led the NFL in punts of 50-plus yards (39) and 60-plus yards (12), while ranking second in gross punting average (47.4).

In Smiley's first season with the Jaguars, the special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. The Jaguars ranked second in opponents average starting field position (19.6), third in kickoff return average (25.9) and first in highest percentage (85.4) of kickoff returns of 20-plus yards. Kicker Josh Scobee produced one of the best statistical seasons of his 10-year NFL career, leading the team with 91 points and connecting on 23 of 25 field goals (92.0). Anger led the NFL with 95 punts for 4,338 yards, surpassing the previous franchise records he set as a rookie. Jordan Todman finished with a 27.4-yard kickoff return average, the second-highest in franchise history for a season. The Jaguars blocked two kicks and forced one fumble on special teams.

Smiley spent the 2012 season as special teams coordinator at Charleston Southern. He previously served three seasons (2009-11) as special teams coordinator at Eastern Illinois. Under Smiley's tutelage, kicker Austin Signor earned first-team All-OVC honors in 2009 after leading the nation in touchbacks on kickoffs and ranked 30th nationally field goals. Punter Kevin Cook ranked ninth in the nation in punting average in the 2010 season.

Prior to joining Eastern Illinois, Smiley coached at Eureka College, where he served one season as offensive coordinator and one season as defensive coordinator. In October of 2008, he was named interim head coach. At Eureka, Smiley also oversaw the development of the Red Devils special teams with the kickoff coverage team ranking second in NCAA Division III for least return yards allowed in 2007. During the two-year stint, he coached eight All-SLIAC performers. Smiley entered the coaching ranks as an undergraduate assistant at Illinois after being a walk-on wide receiver with the Fighting Illini. He worked two seasons (2006-07) at Dartmouth College as special teams coordinator.

Smiley graduated from Illinois in 2001 and served in the United States Air Force as a maintenance officer in Grand Forks, N.D. While on active duty, Smiley was deployed four times in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and received the USAF Commendation Medal for his efforts. While stationed in Grand Forks he also worked with the specialists at the University of North Dakota where he coached two All-America kickers in 2001 and 2003.

Smiley also holds a master's degree from North Dakota. He is married to the former Marissa Bushue. The couple have four children: Madelyn (8), Ella (6), Ava (4) and Caleb (2).

Tony Sorrentino was named offensive quality control coach for the Jaguars on January 28, 2013. Now in his 11th year in coaching, this is Sorrentino's third season in the NFL.

In his role with the Jaguars, Sorrentino assists Jerry Sullivan in the development of the wide receivers while providing research and analyzing opponents for the offensive staff.

Sorrentino spent the 2012 season at his alma mater, The College of New Jersey, as quarterbacks coach and passing game coordinator. He also spent one season overseeing the linebackers in 2007.

In 2011, Sorrentino served as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Miami (Fla.). He assisted with the quarterbacks and wide receivers and ran the defensive and special teams scout teams.

Prior to joining Miami, Sorrentino served as quarterbacks coach at the University of Minnesota in 2010 and offensive quality control coach in 2009.

Sorrentino began his coaching career in 2005 as an assistant at Morristown Beard High School in New Jersey and also had stints at West Essex (N.J.) High School and Montville (N.J.) Township High School. He completed summer internships with the Baltimore Ravens in 2007 and the Houston Texans in 2002-03.

Sorrentino received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education and a master's in exercise science from The College of New Jersey, where he was a four-year letterman at wide receiver.

Sorrentino and his wife, Kara, reside in Jacksonville.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Morristown Beard High School 2005, West Essex High School 2006, The College of New Jersey 2006-07, 2012, Montville Township High School 2008, Minnesota 2009-10, Miami (Fla.) 2011, Jacksonville Jaguars 2013-15.

A veteran of 43 years of coaching, Jerry Sullivan has served the past three seasons as the wide receivers coach for the Jaguars. Sullivan has 22 years of NFL coaching experience and 21 at the collegiate level.

Sullivan has coached several Pro Bowl receivers in his career, including the San Diego Chargers' Anthony Miller (1992-93) and Tony Martin (1996), Detroit Lions' Herman Moore (1997-98) and Germaine Crowell (1999) and Arizona Cardinals' David Boston (2001) and Anquan Boldin (2003).

In 2014, Sullivan oversaw a group of young wideouts that included three rookies in Marqise Lee (37-422, 1 TD), Allen Robinson (48-548, 2 TDs) and Allen Hurns (51-677, 6 TDs). Hurns and Robinson became the first rookie duo in NFL history to register 48 or more receptions in a season, and Hurns' six receiving touchdowns were the most by a rookie in franchise history.

In his second season with the Jaguars, Sullivan oversaw a receiving corps that saw six different players earn starts. The unit was led by third-year pro Cecil Shorts who caught a career-high 66 passes for 777 yards and three touchdowns. Ace Sanders, the team's 2013 fourth-round pick, finished the season with 51 catches, the second-most by a rookie in team history (Justin Blackmon had 64 receptions in 2012) and the third-most by an NFL rookie in 2013. Four different receivers (Sanders, Jeremy Ebert, Mike Brown, Lamear Thomas) made their first career reception in 2013.

Sullivan tutored a Jaguars wideout unit in 2012 that improved throughout the season. Shorts (55-979, 7 TDs) and Blackmon (64-865, 5 TDs) became the first Jaguars receiver duo since 2001 to have 800-plus receiving yards. Blackmon led all NFL rookies in receiving yards and tied for the most receptions while setting franchise single-season rookie records for catches, yards, average per reception and touchdowns. Shorts registered four 100-yard receiving games and a franchise-record four catches of 50-plus yards.

Sullivan, 67, did not coach in 2011 and spent the offseason working with NFL players in Minnesota including Arizona Cardinals Pro Bowl receiver Larry Fitzgerald and Green Bay Packers tight end Jermichael Finley. He previously served as wide receivers coach/senior assistant for the San Francisco 49ers from 2005-10. The 49ers selected wide receiver Michael Crabtree with the 10th overall pick in 2009 and he had 103 receptions for 1,366 yards and eight touchdowns under Sullivan's tutelage. Under the guidance of Sullivan, 2008 sixth-round pick Josh Morgan posted a career-high 52 receptions for 527 yards in 2009 and had a career-best 698 receiving yards on 44 receptions in 2010. In 2008, Sullivan's unit was highlighted by the play of 15-year veteran wideout Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's Len Eshmont Award for his courageous and inspiring play. Bruce had seven touchdown receptions, his most since 2002, and led all receivers with 835 receiving yards on 61 catches.

Prior to his time with the 49ers, Sullivan spent one season as wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins in 2004. He was a member of the Arizona Cardinals coaching staff for three seasons (2001-03). In his first two seasons with the club, Sullivan mentored the team's wide receivers, where he worked with a group that included David Boston. Boston led the NFL with 1,598 receiving yards on 98 receptions in 2001 and was selected to the first Pro Bowl of his career. Sullivan was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2003 where he worked with wide receiver Anquan Boldin. Boldin finished third in the NFL in receptions (101) and receiving yards (1,377) on his way to being named the NFL's Rookie of the Year as well as a starter on the NFC's Pro Bowl squad.

Sullivan's NFL coaching career began in 1992 with the San Diego Chargers where he spent five seasons (1992-96). He coached wide receivers in Detroit from 1997-2000. Prior to entering the NFL coaching ranks, he spent 21 years as an assistant on the collegiate level. Sullivan was an assistant at Kansas State (1971-72), Texas Tech (1973-75), South Carolina (1976-82), Indiana (1983), Louisiana State (1984-90) and Ohio State (1991).

A native of Miami, Sullivan played quarterback at Miami Jackson High School. He earned a scholarship to Florida State and later transferred to Delta State.

Sullivan and his wife, Connie, have two sons, Jon-Eric, who has spent the past 10 seasons with the Green Bay Packers as an area scout, and Matthew along with daughter, Allison. They have four granddaughters.

COACHING BACKGROUND: Kansas State 1971-72, Texas Tech 1973-75, South Carolina 1976-82, Indiana 1983, Louisiana State 1984-90, Ohio State 1991, San Diego Chargers 1992-96, Detroit Lions 1997-2000, Arizona Cardinals 2001-03, Miami Dolphins 2004, San Francisco 49ers 2005-10, Jacksonville Jaguars 2012-15.

DeWayne Walker is in his third season with the club after being named defensive backs coach for the Jaguars on January 24, 2013. Walker has 27 years of coaching experience, including nine in the NFL, and spent four seasons as head coach at New Mexico State before joining the Jaguars.

Walker is responsible for the development of a young secondary that includes six draft picks from the last two seasons. Five of the six draft picks were in the starting lineup for the 2014 season-final: Johnathan Cyprien (2013, strong safety), Josh Evans (2013, free safety), Dwayne Gratz (2013, cornerback), Demetrius McCray (2013, cornerback) and Aaron Colvin (2014, cornerback). McCray, a seventh-round pick, was inserted into the starting lineup for the final 12 games in 2014 and totaled a career-high 47 tackles. Colvin saw action in the final six games after beginning the season on the non-football injury list.

Under Walker's tutelage the last two seasons, Cyprien has totaled 209 tackles in 30 career starts along with two forced fumbles and nine passes defended. Cyprien's 111 combined tackles in 2014 were the third-most by an NFL defensive back. Evans has started 25 games since entering the NFL as a sixth-round pick in 2013 and totaled 144 tackles including a career-high 90 last season. Gratz has started 21 games and registered three interceptions and 12 passes defended.

Walker compiled a 10-40 record during his tenure at New Mexico State. In 2011, the Aggies finished with a 4-9 mark with wins over Big Ten opponent Minnesota, the first in school history, a third straight win against in-state rival New Mexico, a home win over Idaho and a program first victory against Fresno State.

The Aggies had five players earn All-Western Athletic Conference honors in 2011, the most since joining the WAC and since the 2002 season. Kick returner/wide receiver Taveon Rogers was named to five All-America teams as he led the team with 1,318 kickoff return yards and three touchdowns. He ranked second in the nation in all-purpose yards per game with 196.3 and had a team-high 59 catches for 1,048 yards and nine touchdowns. Running back Kenny Turner, who rushed for 1,074 yards and 10 touchdowns, was named a second team All-WAC selection. Turner became just the second 1,000-yard rusher for the Aggies since the 2000 season. Donyae Coleman also thrived under Walker's system, leading the Aggies in tackles with 133 and interceptions with six. He led the WAC interceptions and ranked seventh in the country. The 2010 season was a turning point for the Aggie football team regardless of the 2-10 overall record. Walker helped the Aggies to their second win over in-state rival New Mexico in as many years, making it the first time since the 1998 and 1999 seasons that New Mexico State put together two straight wins against the Lobos. Walker tutored defensive back Davon House to first team all-WAC honors as he finished his career with 11 interceptions, while leading the team with three INTs in 2010. House, who signed with the Jaguars this year, was a fourth-round draft pick of the Green Bay Packers in the 2011 NFL Draft.

Despite a 3-10 overall record and a 1-7 mark in WAC play in 2009, the Aggies finished the year in the top six in the conference in pass defense, total defense and scoring defense. New Mexico State was ranked 36th in the nation in pass defense and 54th in pass defense efficiency. The Aggies also beat in-state rival New Mexico in Albuquerque for the first time since the 1999 season. House was named a first team All-WAC selection, after leading the league in passes defended and interceptions. House also broke the school record for most interception return yards for a career.

Prior to joining New Mexico State, Walker spent three seasons (2006-08) as UCLA's defensive coordinator. He served as UCLA's interim head coach for the 2007 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl game. In 2008, Walker's unit finished 48th in the nation in total defense, allowing 337 yards a game. UCLA's passing defense was atop the nation's leaders ranking 11th overall and second in the Pac-10, holding its opponents to just 167.6 yards per game through the air. In 2007, the Bruin defense once again found itself listed among the national leaders in several categories. UCLA ranked 14th in rushing defense (109.2 yards per game), 29th in total defense (343.23 yards), 29th in scoring defense (22.3 points) and 32nd in pass efficiency defense (115.26). The Bruins also ranked second nationally in tackles for loss per game (8.77), third in third-down conversion defense (29.1%), tied for 15th in sacks per game average (3.0) and tied for 17th in fumbles caused (14). Defensive backs Trey Brown (tied for first, 1.77/pg) and Alterraun Verner (tied for 11th, 1.46/pg) ranked among the nation's best in the passes defended category, while defensive end Bruce Davis ranked tied for ninth in the nation in sacks per game (.92).

In 2006, the Bruins were among the national leaders in rushing defense (tied for ninth in the NCAA and tied for first in the Pac-10 with 91.08 yards per game) and total defense (33rd nationally at 304.83) and allowed almost half as many touchdowns (27) as the previous year (48). UCLA allowed 91.1 yards per game, 2.83 yards per rush and just nine touchdowns on the ground, the first time since 1985 that the Bruins had allowed fewer yards per game on the ground. The Bruin defense also ranked fifth nationally in third-down conversion defense (28.4%, 50 of 176).

Walker spent two seasons (2004-05) with the Washington Redskins as secondary coach under head coach Joe Gibbs. In 2005, the Redskins finished 10-6 and won a postseason game. The Redskins led the NFL in lowest opponent completion percentage (54.4) and ranked tied for second in fewest touchdown passes allowed (15), 10th in pass defense (192.6 yards) and 14th (tied) in interceptions (16). Walker played a key role in the development of rookie cornerback Carlos Rogers and the continued fine play of Shawn Springs. In 2004, Walker's first season in Washington, Springs became the first cornerback in NFL history to lead his team in sacks (five) and interceptions (six) in the same season.

Walker served as secondary coach of the New York Giants from 2002-03 and was associate head coach/secondary coach at Southern California under Pete Carroll in 2001. The Trojans ranked seventh in the nation with 19 interceptions and were 16th in pass defense (179.2) and fewest touchdown passes allowed (11). He was secondary coach with the New England Patriots for three seasons (1998-2000), the first two under Carroll and his final season under Bill Belichick. During Walker's tenure with the Patriots, defensive backs Ty Law and Lawyer Milloy each earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

Walker began his coaching career at Mt. San Antonio College (1988-1992) and also had stints at Utah State (1993), Brigham Young (1994), Oklahoma State (1995) and California (1996-97). He participated in the NFL's minority coaching internship program, working with the San Francisco 49ers in 1996 and the Patriots in 1997.

A former cornerback, Walker played three seasons professionally, one in the CFL with the Edmonton Eskimos in 1982 and two in the USFL with the Arizona Outlaws in 1983 and Oakland Invaders in 1984. He was a two-year starter at Minnesota from 1980-81 after spending his first two years at Pasadena City College. Walker earned his bachelor's degree in liberal arts from Regents College in 1992. He and his wife, Zan, have two daughters, Kesha and Kendra, and a son, Kevan.

AND ADMINISTRATOR OF COACHING

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING STAFF

TOM MYSLINSKI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COORDINATOR

Tom Myslinski is in his fourth season with the Jaguars after being named head of strength and conditioning on January 27, 2012. Myslinski played nine seasons as an offensive lineman in the NFL, including as a guard on the Jaguars' 1995 inaugural team, and spent three seasons as strength and conditioning coach for the Cleveland Browns.

Myslinski spent two seasons on the collegiate level, serving as strength and conditioning coach for football at North Carolina in 2011 and Memphis in 2010. He was responsible for planning and designing the interior of a $3 million, 13,000-square-foot weight room at Memphis. Myslinski was instrumental in maintaining a 92 and 88 percent start rate throughout the last two seasons.

A native of Rome, N.Y., Myslinski previously served three seasons (2007-09) with the Browns as the head strength and conditioning coach. He was the club's assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2004 and also worked for the Browns on a part-time basis in 2003. He spent two seasons (2005-06) as head strength and conditioning coach at Robert Morris. A fourth-round draft pick of Dallas in 1992, Myslinski played in 60 games with 25 starts including stints with Washington (1992), Buffalo (1993), Chicago (1993-94), Jacksonville (1995), Pittsburgh (1996-97, 2000), Indianapolis (1998) and Dallas (1999).

While playing in the NFL, Myslinski served as a volunteer assistant strength and conditioning coach at the University of Pittsburgh from 1998-2001, working primarily with offensive and defensive linemen. Prior to his stint at Pittsburgh, he spent 1996 as the volunteer strength and conditioning coach at the University of North Florida, where he managed all aspects of physical and mental development with the school's student-athletes. He also has served as a martial arts consultant to numerous collegiate athletic programs.

Myslinski developed and patented the "Tunch Punch Ladder" hand agility pad and has trained under offensive line guru Tunch Ilkin, who is the developer of the Tunch Punch system, which is used extensively by offensive line coaches throughout the NFL. He has published peer-reviewed research in the Journal of Strength and Conditioning Research on the development of strength and power using heavy chains and bands in addition to weights. Myslinski is registered and certified by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and serves on the organization's Coaching Performance Committee.

Myslinski earned all-conference honors at the University of Tennessee and earned eight varsity letters including four in football and four in track and field. He started at guard for back-to-back SEC championship teams (1989-90) and was also a member of the Volunteers' 1991 NCAA Champion track and field team. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology in 1992 and was a two-time Academic All-SEC member. He later earned his master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh in exercise physiology. Myslinski and his wife, Amy, have three children: Thomas, Emily and Michael.

CEDRIC SCOTT

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Cedric Scott is in his fourth season on the Jaguars coaching staff as assistant strength and conditioning coach working under Head of Strength and Conditioning Tom Myslinski.

Scott worked briefly in 2012 at the University of North Carolina in the strength and conditioning department before joining the Jaguars. He previously served three years (2009-11) at the University of Southern Mississippi on the strength and conditioning staff, also spending his last two years as head strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball. He was a graduate assistant in 2008.

Scott was a standout defensive end for Southern Mississippi, where he received his bachelor's degree in exercise physiology and his master's degree in sports administration. He earned All-America honors as a senior defensive end and was named the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year in 2000.

Scott was the fourth-round draft pick for the New York Giants in 2001 and played several years in the NFL. He also spent time with the Scottish Claymores of the World League in 2004 and was part of the Canadian Football League's 2005 Grey Cup Championship team with the Edmonton Eskimos. That same year, the defensive line broke the team record for the most sacks. A native of Gulfport, Miss., Scott and his wife, Dorian, have two sons, Cedric Jr. (4) and Cameron (1).

JESS LANGVARDT

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING ASSOCIATE

Jess Langvardt is in his third season on the Jaguars coaching staff as a strength and conditioning associate working under Head of Strength and Conditioning Tom Myslinski. Prior to joining the Jaguars, Langvardt spent the 2012 season with Tulane as assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Langvardt previously served as head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, Sterling College, from January to July 2012, and he spent the 2011 season as an intern with the Indianapolis Colts. Prior to working with the Colts, Langvardt earned his master's degree from the University of Memphis where he coached from January 2009 to July 2011. His main responsibilities were assisting with football under three different football strength coaches, including Myslinski, while also working directly with softball and men's and women's golf.

Langvardt was a four-year letterman in football and baseball at Sterling College and earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science, while also getting his teacher's certification. He played three years for the Wichita Wild Professional Indoor football team. He served as an assistant coach for four seasons (2005-08) at his alma mater following graduation. Langvardt and his wife, Jessie, reside in Jacksonville.

CHRIS POLIAN

DIRECTOR OF

Chris Polian, a veteran with 21 years of NFL scouting experience, joined the Jaguars in 2013 as director of pro personnel after spending three seasons (2009-11) as vice president and general manager of the Indianapolis Colts. Polian was promoted to Director of Player Personnel on May 28, 2015. Polian spent the 2012 season with the Atlanta Falcons as executive scout. He first joined the Colts in 1998, where he served as director of pro scouting for three seasons (1998-2000). He held the title of assistant director of football operations from 2001-03, was promoted to assistant general manager/football operations in 2004 and spent five seasons (2005-09) as vice president of football operations.

From 1999-2009, the Colts earned a 128-48 regular season record, the best mark in the NFL by a margin of eight games, and earned playoff appearances in 10 of 11 seasons, including seven division titles and a Super Bowl championship in 2006. The club became the only team to win 12-plus games in seven consecutive seasons. Prior to joining the Colts, Polian worked with the Carolina Panthers for four years (1994-97). He was an assistant in the player personnel department for the Sacramento Gold Miners in 1993.

The New York City native earned a bachelor's degree in management from John Carroll University in 1993. His father, Bill, is a former general manager of the Bills (1986-1993), the Panthers (1994-97) and the Colts (1997-2009) and is currently an NFL analyst for ESPN. His brother, Brian, is in his second year as the head coach at Nevada. His brother, Dennis, is an assistant director of football administration/Pro Scout for the Titans. He and his wife, Debbie, have three children, Jack (12), Caroline (11) and Kate (8).

ANDY DENGLE

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF
PLAYER PERSONNEL

Andy Dengler is in his 18th season with the Jaguars and his third as assistant director of player personnel after being promoted to the post on May 2, 2013. Dengler spent two seasons as director of college personnel prior to his elevation. He had been promoted to national scout on Jan. 12, 2009 and has been a Jaguars college scout since 1998. Dengler is responsible for scouting the top collegiate players throughout the nation. He joined the Jaguars from the National Football Scouting combine, where he was an area scout in the northeast and mid-Atlantic regions the previous four years.

Previously Dengler served as an assistant head coach, offensive line coach and defensive backfield coach at St. Joseph's College (Ind.) from 1992-95. He was offensive coordinator, interim head coach and offensive line coach at Tiffin University 1990-92, as well as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green (1988-90) and an assistant high school coach in Circleville, Ohio.

Dengler graduated with a degree in history from Heidelberg College, and he received his master's in secondary education from Bowling Green. He was born Sept. 9, 1963 in Berea, Ohio.

JOHN IDZIK

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

John Idzik joined the Jaguars as a consultant prior to the 2015 NFL Draft and was named a special assistant to the general manager in May 2015. Idzik previously spent two years (2013-14) as the New York Jets general manager. Prior to joining the Jets, he spent six seasons with the Seahawks as the vice president of football administration. He was active in both pro and player evaluations with the Seahawks while also overseeing player negotiations, the team's salary cap, all football operations budgets, staff and team contracts and team travel. The Seahawks won two NFC West Division titles during his tenure.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Idzik spent three seasons (2004-06) in a similar capacity as senior director of football operations for the Arizona Cardinals, helping to build an NFC Championship team. Idzik entered the NFL in 1993 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He spent 11 years with the Buccaneers, first as a pro personnel assistant and then was elevated to director of football administration in 1996 and assistant general manager in 2001. During that span, the Buccaneers won Super Bowl XXXVII, played in two Conference Championships, won two division titles and qualified for the playoffs five times.

His career began in coaching in 1982 with SUNY Buffalo and he spent time with the Aberdeen Oilers in Scotland in 1990 before serving as a graduate assistant at Duke University from 1991-92.

Raised in a football family, Idzik's father, also John, served as a longtime NFL assistant coach with the New York Jets, Baltimore Colts, Miami Dolphins and Philadelphia Eagles. They became one of the NFL's few father-son Super Bowl champions in 2003 when the younger Idzik's Buccaneers won Super Bowl XXXVII, after his father was the offensive backfield coach of the Super Bowl V champion Baltimore Colts.

Idzik graduated magna cum laude and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors from Dartmouth College in 1982, earning a bachelor's degree in mathematics, while also lettering at wide receiver. He later earned a master's degree in liberal studies from Duke in 1992. He and his wife, Carol, have two sons, Bryant and Bradley, and one daughter, Holly.

CHRIS DRIGGERS

DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Chris Driggers is in his 22nd year with the Jaguars and his 18th year in scouting. He is one of six current staff members who joined the Jaguars in 1994. He was promoted to Director of Pro Personnel on May 28, 2015. Driggers spent the last six seasons as a pro scout after nine seasons scouting the southwest region of the country. In May 2015, Driggers was promoted to director of pro personnel. He began his career with the Jaguars in football operations before moving up to salary cap administrator, assisting in player contract proposals, salary cap administration and negotiating player contracts. He became a scouting assistant in 1998.

A native of Jacksonville, Driggers graduated from the University of Alabama with a degree in finance. He and his wife have three sons, Thomas, Travis and Tyler.

PLAYER PERSONNEL

KYLE O'BRIEN

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Entering his third season as the Jaguars director of college scouting, Kyle O'Brien is in his 14th season in the NFL. O'Brien spent the 2012 season with the Kansas City Chiefs as regional scout. Prior to joining the Chiefs, O'Brien spent 10 seasons (2002-11) in the New England Patriots' personnel department. He served as national scout for two seasons (2010-11) and worked for five years (2003, 2006-09) as an area scout. He was the team's pro personnel scout from 2004-05. In 2015, O'Brien was named to the advisory council for the Nunn-Wooten Scouting Fellowship.

O'Brien originally joined the Patriots as a player personnel intern in 2000 and continued those duties during the Patriots' first Super Bowl season in 2001 while he attended Harvard. The Garden City, N.Y., native was a player personnel intern for the New York Jets in 1999. He attended Harvard where he lettered in lacrosse and was a graduate of Phillips Academy in Andover, Mass., lettering in football and lacrosse. He and his wife, Alexis, and their son, Finn, reside in Jacksonville.

PAUL ROELL

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

A veteran NFL scout of 24 years, Paul Roell enters his third season as the Jaguars assistant director of college scouting after previously serving as regional scout for the Minnesota Vikings for seven seasons (2006-12). Roell has been a part of five division title teams in the last 12 seasons, including three AFC South titles with the Indianapolis Colts from 2003-05. He spent 15 seasons (1991-2005) as a member of the Colts staff as an area scout. During his career with the Colts, he helped build a team that became one of the NFL's elite. The Colts went on to advance to the playoffs under three head coaches – Ted Marchibroda, Jim Mora and Tony Dungy. The Colts had a span of six playoff appearances in seven seasons and amassed a 48-16 regular season mark from 2002-05.

MARK ELLENZ

EASTERN REGIONAL SCOUT

Mark Ellenz is in his third season as the eastern regional scout for the Jaguars. Prior to joining the Jaguars, Ellenz spent 12 seasons with the Indianapolis Colts including the last seven as an area scout. He joined the Colts in January of 2001 and served five seasons as a scouting assistant. Before joining Indianapolis, he was an assistant defensive backs coach at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2000. He graduated from Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2001 with a master's degree in sports administration. Ellenz also earned a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of St. Thomas in 1998, where he was a three-year letterman at strong safety. He spent the 1998-99 seasons as an assistant training camp coordinator with the New Orleans Saints. He and his wife, Sara, have a daughter, Isabel.

JASON DESJARLAIS

COLLEGE SCOUT

Jason Desjarlais was promoted to regional scout on June 1, 2009, and he scouts the Midwest region of the country for the Jaguars. He joined the Jaguars as the BLESTO scout for the southeast area on May 18, 2007. Prior to joining the Jaguars, he was the special teams coordinator/defensive assistant at Yale University. While at Yale, he served as an intern for scouting during the Jaguars' 2006 training camp.

Desjarlais' college football experience includes stints at Jacksonville University (2005-06) as special teams/recruiting coordinator and secondary coach and the University of San Diego (2002-05) as defensive coordinator/recruiting coordinator. He also served as interim head coach in 2005; Bates College (2000-02) as defensive line and strength coach; the University of San Diego (1999-2000) defensive line coach; Humboldt State University (1997-99) as defensive line coach; and the University of Montana (Western) (1996-97) as defensive line coach.

Desjarlais attended the University of Montana at Western, playing DE there from 1992-95 and twice earning All-America honors (1994-95). He was also named Defensive MVP of the 1996 National All-Star Game. Desjarlais graduated with a bachelor's degree in Education, in addition to a Master's in Science (emphasis in Physiology) from Humboldt State University.

MARTY MILLER

COLLEGE SCOUT

Marty Miller is in his 14th season with the Jaguars, joining the organization on February 21, 2002. He is in his ninth season as the West Coast regional scout for the Jaguars. In addition to covering the West Coast, Miller has some additional pro personnel responsibilities scouting select free agents on NFL rosters. Previously, Miller worked the northeast United States as a regional scout. In his initial season in Jacksonville, he worked as the team's scouting assistant. In that capacity, he assisted the pro scouting department evaluating players in NFL Europe, the CFL, the Arena League and doing some advance scouting of NFL teams and their practice squads.

Miller also served as coordinator of football administration for the Los Angeles Xtreme of the XFL, and he worked as a part-time staff assistant for the San Diego Chargers and the Kansas City Chiefs. He is the son of Les Miller, a longtime NFL personnel director. Diagnosed with Young Onset of Parkinson's Disease in 2009, Miller hopes to use his platform as a representative of the NFL as a springboard to Parkinson's awareness and education. A graduate of Pacific Christian College, he and his wife, Kerinda, live in Boise, Idaho, with daughter, Channing, and son, Gannon.

TIM MINGEY

COLLEGE SCOUT

Tim Mingey has been with the Jaguars since 1994, serving as a college scout. He has the responsibility of scouting the southeast region of the United States. In February 2010, Mingey was presented the C.O. Brocato Scout of the Year Award from the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

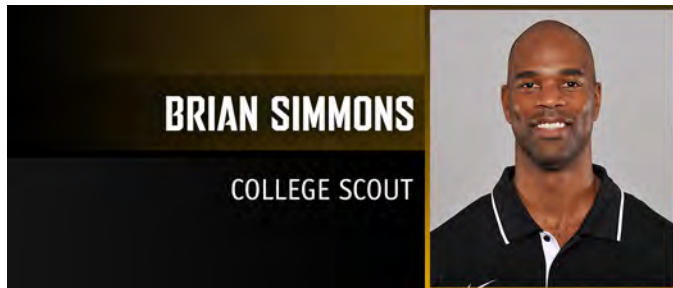

PLAYER PERSONNEL

Mingey is one of six current staff members who joined the franchise in 1994. Before joining the Jaguars, Mingey spent 11 years as a college assistant coach and then 10 years as a recruiting coordinator. His college coaching career began in 1973 as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach at St. Joseph's College (Ind.), where he had been a three-year varsity letterman as a defensive back. He was a graduate assistant at Western Michigan in 1974-75 before serving as defensive coordinator at Loyola Academy in 1976 and returning to Western Michigan as an assistant coach from 1977-81. In 1982, Mingey was coach of the secondary at East Carolina, and in 1983, he coached at Miami (Ohio) University as defensive coordinator/inside linebackers coach.

In 1984, Mingey was named the recruiting coordinator at the United States Military Academy. He served there until 1987, and then spent 1988-90 as recruiting coordinator at Tennessee. In 1991, Mingey returned for three more years at the U.S. Military Academy before joining the Jaguars.

Mingey received a bachelor of science degree in physical education from St. Joseph's College in 1972 and a master of arts in physical education in 1976 from Western Michigan. Mingey was born January 1, 1950 in Chicago.

BRIAN SIMMONS

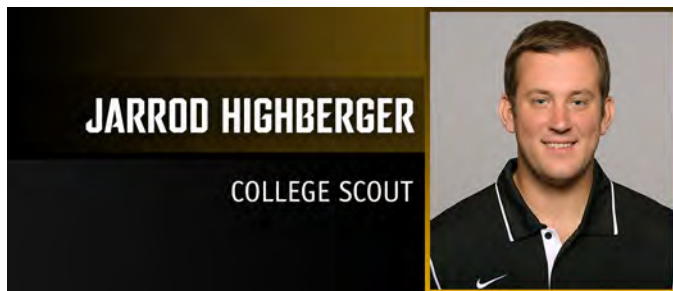

COLLEGE SCOUT

Brian Simmons was named a regional scout for the Jaguars on June 1, 2009. Simmons scouted the Northeast region of the country for the team from 2009 through 2013 before covering the Mid-Atlantic region and the state of Florida. Simmons was named 2014 AFC Scout of the Year by the Fritz Pollard Alliance. A veteran of 10 years as a player in the NFL, Simmons played linebacker for the Cincinnati Bengals and New Orleans Saints before beginning his career in scouting.

Simmons, 40, was selected 17th overall in the 1998 college draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. He played nine seasons (1998-2006) with the Bengals before spending his final season with the New Orleans Saints in 2007. In 2004, he was selected for the Good Guy Award by the Cincinnati chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America.

A native of New Bern, N.C., Simmons attended the University of North Carolina where he played from 1994-97 and was a team captain and a first-team Consensus All-America selection as a senior. He graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology in 1998, the same year he was inducted into the UNC Football Ring of Honor.

Simmons and his wife, Rachel, have a daughter Brianna, and a son, Tyler.

JARROD HIGHBERGER

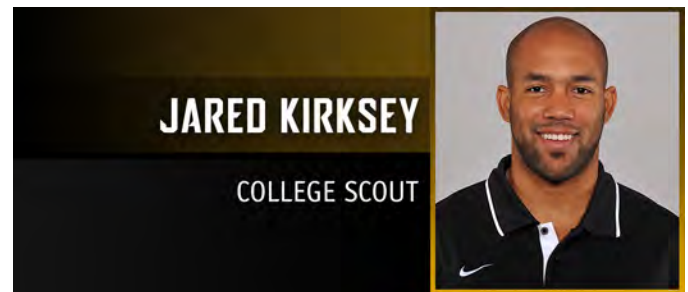

COLLEGE SCOUT

Jarrod Highberger was promoted from scouting assistant to college scout on May 6, 2013. He is responsible for scouting the Southwest area of the United States.

Highberger joined the Jaguars in December of the 2010 season as an administrative assistant in the player personnel department following a two-year coaching tenure at Robert Morris University in Pittsburgh, where he served as the quarterbacks coach under Head Coach Joe Walton. The Colonials were Northeast Conference champions in 2010.

A native of Blairsville, Pa., Highberger earned his bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh, where he was a four-year starter at quarterback for the Tartans under Head Coach Rich Lackner. He obtained a master's degree from Robert Morris University in Instructional Leadership during his coaching tenure.

Jarrod is married and resides in Pittsburgh.

JARED KIRKSEY

COLLEGE SCOUT

Jared Kirksey is in his eighth season in the NFL and his third season with the Jaguars. Kirksey was originally hired by Jacksonville in May 2013 to serve as the BLESTO Scout for the Jaguars Player Personnel department and was promoted to College Scout prior to the 2014 season. Kirksey serves as the Jaguars' primary college scout in the Northeast, covering Connecticut, New Jersey, Maine, Delaware, New Hampshire, Maryland, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island and Vermont. Kirksey provides reports on the top players from that area for use by the Jaguars Player Personnel department.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Kirksey spent three seasons (2010-12) with the Buccaneers and two years before that with the Houston Texans (2008-09), where he served as the college and pro scouting intern. During his time with the Texans, Kirksey was in charge of evaluating specialists (punters, kickers, long snappers) from all 32 teams around the league, among other numerous duties. Kirksey also worked closely with Texans General Manager Rick Smith and Director of Personnel Brian Gardner in evaluating free agents and the status of the organization.

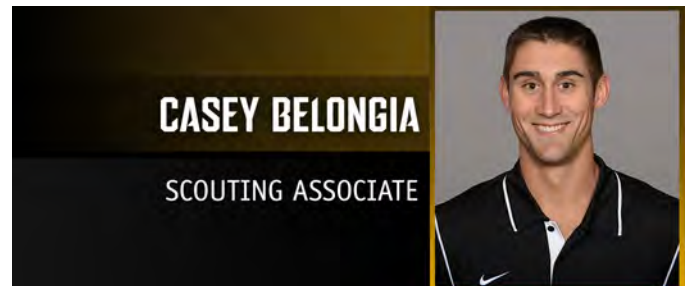

Kirksey played collegiately at the University of Central Florida as a senior in 2007. He was born on July 29, 1985 in Gainesville, Fla. His father, Larry, previously served as the wide receivers coach for the Houston Texans and was the Jaguars wide receivers coach in 2003.

ANTONIO ROBINSON

SCOUTING ASSOCIATE

Antonio Robinson was hired by the Jaguars in May 2013 and is in his third season in the NFL. In his current role, Robinson's duties consist of arranging free agent workouts and college visits, developing "point-of-attack" tape, preparing the team's draft board, coordinating college pro days and evaluating and scouting players. Robinson has nearly three years of coaching experience at the high school level, serving as the running backs coach at Leon High School in Tallahassee, Fla. Robinson was responsible for conducting drills and developing game plans. Robinson graduated from Florida State University in the spring of 2013 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Management. His brother, Anthony, is a scout for the Atlanta Falcons.

CASEY BELONGIA

SCOUTING ASSOCIATE

Casey Belongia is in his first season as a scouting associate after serving as an intern in the Jaguars personnel department following the 2014 regular season and through the 2015 NFL Draft.

Belongia was an intern with the Jaguars equipment staff for the 2014 season and served as an equipment staff intern while in high school with the Green Bay Packers in 2007 and spent seven seasons assisting the club's equipment staff. He graduated from St. Norbert College (De Pere, Wis.) in 2014.

TONY KHAN

FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
AND TECHNOLOGY

Tony Khan was named senior vice president, football technology & analytics for the Jaguars in July of 2012 and is entering his fourth season in that role. Khan arrived in Jacksonville after serving as general manager and a member of the Board of Managers of Bio-Alternative LLC since 2008. Khan, 32, vacated his position at Bio-Alternative in June, 2012 in order to take on his current role.

Under Tony Khan's guidance, the Jaguars created a Football Technology and Analytics group in 2012. In addition to being a valued asset to the coaching and scouting departments, this group also explores new technology and its applications within all areas of the Jaguars organization. These areas include fan experience, player development and injury prevention in addition to game analysis and player evaluation.

In late 2014, Khan also created the statistical research department at the Fulham Football Club, a department that he also currently oversees, with an aim to analyze football player performance and to develop proprietary football performance metrics to aid the club's efforts to gain promotion back into the English Premier League.

Khan also is the owner and chairman of TruMedia Networks, a Boston-based engineering firm specializing in sports analytics solutions for leagues, franchises, and media partners across the sports industry.

Khan graduated from the College of Business at the University of Illinois in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science degree in finance.

Khan grew up in Champaign-Urbana, Ill., where he was born on October 10, 1982. He graduated from the University of Illinois Laboratory High School in 2001, where his graduating class had the highest ACT average of any class at any school in America. He was also an Illinois State Scholar and a National Merit Semifinalist.

The award for dedication to the basketball program at the University of Illinois Laboratory High School is known as the Tony Khan Award.

Khan currently serves on the advisory board of the University of Illinois Laboratory High School. He is single and lives in Jacksonville.

SKIP RICHARDSON

DIRECTOR OF TEAM SECURITY

A veteran of 23 years in law enforcement, Skip Richardson joined the Jaguars on July 21, 1995. He directs every phase of security for the team, as well as handling security matters involving the NFL office. He works closely with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies. He was a member of the NFL security task force that was established after Sept. 11, 2001. Richardson also worked with Paul Tagliabue's staff regarding security for Super Bowl XXXIX in Jacksonville.

Richardson was previously a police S.W.A.T. team supervisor for the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office and planned security for all special events held in Jacksonville, such as the annual Florida-Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and the Jazz Festival. Richardson retired as a supervisor from the Jacksonville Sheriff's Office in 1995.

He received a degree in criminology from Florida State University. A native of Jacksonville, Richardson is active in the Police Athletic League. Richardson has been active in Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Florida and the Jacksonville Symphony Guild. He is a member of the American Society for Industrial Security, National Association of Chiefs of Police, Stadium Managers Association and the Florida Association of Licensed Investigators.

TIM WALSH

DIRECTOR OF
FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Tim Walsh was named the Jaguars' director of football administration in 2007. He is in his 19th year with the Jaguars organization and works closely with General Manager David Caldwell, Head Coach Gus Bradley, as well as Special Assistant to the General Manager John Idzik.

Walsh's responsibilities include managing the Jaguars salary cap, developing the Jaguars strategic planning, crafting contract proposals and parameters, negotiating player contracts and budgeting and coordinating the Jaguars compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement and NFL Player Personnel rules.

Walsh started his NFL career in 1996 with the NFL Management Council, for which he monitored the league-wide salary cap and analyzed NFL player contracts. Walsh graduated summa cum laude in accountancy from the University of Notre Dame and earned his master's degree in sport management from the University of Richmond. He is a member of the Leadership Jacksonville Class of 2012.

HAMZAH AHMAD

DIRECTOR OF
FOOTBALL LOGISTICS
AND FACILITIES

Hamzah Ahmad is in his third season with the Jaguars after being named the director of football logistics & facilities in February 2013. He oversees team logistics, which includes home hotel operations, selecting away game hotels and coordinating the team travel for domestic games and London. He is also responsible for the EverBank Field facility, as it relates to football.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Ahmad spent the previous eight seasons with the Atlanta Falcons (2005-2012) in various roles, but most recently as the senior event marketing/travel advance coordinator. He began his career as a training camp intern with the Falcons and completed a total of three internships with Atlanta before being hired as a full-time staff member.

Ahmad is originally from Pakistan and moved to Jacksonville with his family when he was 12 years old. He attended high school locally at Nease High School and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from the University of Florida in 2004. Hamzah and his wife, Brandi, have two sons, Jayden (3) and Mayson (1).

MARCUS POLLARD

DIRECTOR OF
PLAYER DEVELOPMENT &
YOUTH FOOTBALL

Marcus Pollard is in his third season as director of player development and youth football for the Jaguars after being named to the post on March 24, 2013. In his current role, Pollard coordinates all team life skills programming as well as the Jaguars Rookie Club and NFL Rookie Success Program. Pollard works closely with players on continuing education, career internships, professional development, employee assistance and financial education. In addition, Pollard oversees the organization's youth camp programs and is a vital member of the team's community outreach initiatives.

Pollard played 14 seasons (1995-2008) in the NFL as a tight end and spent time with Indianapolis, Detroit, Seattle, New England and Atlanta. He earned a roster spot as an undrafted rookie in 1995 with the Colts after a tryout during training camp and played in all but six games for the club over a nine-year span from 1996-2004. He went on to play in 192 games with 131 starts and recorded 349 receptions for 4,280 yards and 40 touchdowns.

A native of Lanett, Ala., Pollard played basketball at Bradley University for two years after transferring from Seward County Community College in Liberal, Kan. He did not play collegiate football.

Following his retirement, Pollard served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Lanett High School, from 2008-12. He and his wife, Amani, were cast members of the reality television show "The Amazing Race" in 2011. The couple has two sons, Myles Ashton and Micah Jayden, and two daughters, Aja Amani and Ayris Mae.

ZACH BEISTLINE

FOOTBALL STATISTICS ANALYST

Zach Beistline is entering his fourth year with the Jaguars. Beistline began as a football operations intern in 2012 before being hired as a football statistics analyst in January 2013. In his current role, Beistline works closely with the coaching and scouting departments on research projects by providing statistical analysis.

Zach graduated from the University of North Carolina in 2012 with a degree in Exercise and Sport Science.

MIKE PERKINS

DIRECTOR OF
FOOTBALL TECHNOLOGY

Mike Perkins marks his 22nd season with the Jaguars in 2015. His primary role is overseeing the football technology department for football operations, but he has worn many hats since joining the Jaguars in 1994. The football technology department manages all IT needs for the football side of the organization.

After 18 years as the Jaguars' video director, Perkins was promoted in 2012 to his new role as director of football technology. Perkins' duties included the design and construction of the Jaguars' locker room upgrade at EverBank Field, in addition to design, planning and implementation of office space and technology for the football facilities.

In 2013, he served as project manager for phase two of the construction, bringing a new training room, rehab room and coaches offices on-line. He also oversaw the design and construction of the new Jaguars football facilities. Another new initiative under Perkins' direction was the implementation of iPads for use by all coaches, scouts and players to view practice and game video. His group is also incorporating a new scouting system with the iPad implementation to increase efficiency.

Perkins' responsibilities continue to include the shooting, compiling and editing of all game and practice video for coaches' and scouting analysis, cataloging NFL and college game video and producing "cut-ups." He also manages all video equipment and design of the Jaguars' video department, including applying the team's state-of-the art XOS editing system, and researching new technologies as they come available.

One of six current staff members who joined the franchise in 1994, Perkins was hired by the Jaguars on May 12, 1994, after serving as video coordinator for three years at Syracuse University. Prior to that, he served with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as assistant video director from 1987-90. Perkins was born May 24, 1967, in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Perkins and his wife, Jennifer, and sons Tyler and Barrett live in Jacksonville.

SCOTT TRULOCK

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scott Trulock was hired as the Jaguars head athletic trainer on February 10, 2014 and is entering his second season with the organization. Trulock, who spent the previous seven seasons as the head athletic trainer for the University of North Carolina's football program, joined the Jaguars with 11 years of NFL experience. As the head athletic trainer for UNC's football program since 2007, Trulock oversaw a staff of two full-time assistants and two graduate assistants. Trulock was tasked with maintaining the health of Carolina's football student-athletes and rehabilitating injuries quickly and successfully.

Trulock began his career in the NFL as an assistant athletic trainer with the Philadelphia Eagles from 1996-98. Trulock then worked for the San Diego Chargers from 1999-2001 before joining the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as the director of rehabilitation from 2002-03. Trulock won a Super Bowl ring in 2002 when the Buccaneers defeated the Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII. Trulock spent three seasons (2004-06) as an assistant athletic trainer with the Denver Broncos. During his tenure in the NFL, Trulock was a member of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers' Society (PFATS). In the PFATS, Trulock served as the director of research for the research and education foundation. In this role, Trulock was responsible for spearheading the surveillance of injury data in order to establish trends in injury patterns to NFL players. Additionally, Trulock presented this information at many local, state and national meetings.

Trulock received his master's degree in athletic training from UNC in 1996. Returning to Carolina as the football program's head athletic trainer in 2007 presented Trulock with the opportunity to re-join one of the top sports medicine programs in the country. As an advocate for research dating back to his days in the master's program, Trulock utilized the full complement of physicians, faculty and researchers in the sports medicine department to provide cutting edge healthcare for UNC's football student-athletes.

Trulock, a native of Orlando, Fla., earned his undergraduate degree in sports medicine from Valdosta State in 1994. Scott and his wife, Jamie, have two daughters, Corinne and Riley.

1. EverBank promises that the yield on your Yield Pledge® Checking and/or Money Market Account will stay in the Top 5% of Competitive Accounts based on Bankrate Monitor National Index survey data from the last week of each month. "Competitive Accounts" are similar accounts from the 10 largest banks and thrifts in 10 large U.S. banking markets. This includes data from the 5 largest banks and 5 largest thrifts in each market, except in markets without 5 banks and 5 thrifts. Each week Bankrate.com surveys these institutions and distributes its results on a paid subscription basis. Not all institutions report each week. EverBank reserves the right to change its Yield Pledge calculation method as necessary to accommodate changes in Bankrate's survey methodology at any time.
2. EverBank does not charge ATM fees. EverBank automatically reimburses ATM fees paid at other U.S. ATMs every month on accounts with a minimum average daily balance of $5,000. Reimbursement subject to termination for fraud or abuse.

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 1 AT PHILADELPHIA

September 7, 2014 at Lincoln Financial Field

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|----|---|----|----|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-1) | 14 | 3 | 0 | 0 | - | 17 |
| PHILADELPHIA EAGLES (1-0) | 0 | 0 | 14 | 20 | - | 34 |

The Jaguars opened their 20th season in strong fashion by forcing fumbles on the Eagles' first two possessions and turning both into touchdowns, but they were unable to make a 17-0 halftime lead stand up as Philadelphia scored 34 second-half points. In addition to the forced fumbles the defense turned in five sacks and an end zone interception, all in the first half. With two rookies starting at wide receiver, Chad Henne got plenty of production from the pair as Marqise Lee had six catches for 62 yards and Allen Hurns scored the Jaguars' only touchdowns of 34 and 21 yards on his first two receptions, adding a 46-yard catch to finish the first quarter with three receptions for 101 yards. After Hurns' second touchdown Josh Scobee's 49-yard field goal made the score 17-0, but two more opportunities to extend the lead failed on a missed 50-yard field goal try and a blocked 36-yard attempt. In the second half Philadelphia wasted no time in mounting a comeback. On the first series Darren Sproles ran 49 yards up the middle for a touchdown, and on the next possession the Eagles got within 17-14 on Zach Ertz's 25-yard pass from Nick Foles. The teams exchanged several punts before opening the fourth quarter with the score still 17-14, but the Eagles scored on all three of their possessions in the final quarter, first tying the game at 17-17 on Cody Parkey's 51-yard field goal. Foles then hit a wide open Jeremy Maclin with a 68-yard bomb behind the coverage before Parkey added a 28-yard field goal at the two-minute mark to make it 27-17. It was still a 10-point game with two minutes left, and the Jaguars began at their own 20-yard line with no time outs remaining. On second down Henne was stripped by Trent Cole and Fletcher Cox scooped up the loose ball, rumbling 17 yards for the final points. The Jaguars had three rookies in their opening day lineup for the first time since 2009, with Lee and Hurns joined by right guard Brandon Linder. Ryan Davis had two of the Jaguars' five sacks and a fumble recovery, while Chris Clemons and Andre Branch each had a sack and forced fumble. The game marked just the second time in team history (9/13/09) the Jaguars forced turnovers on the opponent's first two possessions.

WEEK 2 AT WASHINGTON

September 14, 2014 at FedEx Field

|----------------------------|---|----|---|----|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-2) | 0 | 7 | 0 | 3 | - | 10 |
| WASHINGTON REDSKINS (1-1) | 7 | 14 | 3 | 17 | - | 41 |

The Jaguars struggled from the start against a productive Redskins team that took a 21-0 lead before Jacksonville managed to gain a first down. The Redskins lost starting QB Robert Griffin II and WR DeSean Jackson to injury in the first quarter, but Kirk Cousins threw for 250 yards and two touchdowns in relief to lead the 41-10 Washington win. The Jaguars offense was forced to punt six times after three-and-out possessions including their first four of the game as the Redskins defense tormented Chad Henne, sacking him 10 times on the day. Washington scored touchdowns on its second, fourth and fifth drives, building a 21-0 lead on Darrel Young's 20-yard pass from Cousins and two one-yard runs by Alfred Morris. A 63-yard catch-and-run by Mercedes Lewis put the Jaguars on the scoreboard just after the first half's two-minute warning, making it 21-7, but by halftime Washington dominated the stats with 308 total yards to 87, 21 first downs to four, and a possession time advantage of 20:56 to 9:04. A Kai Forbath 36-yard field goal made it 24-7 in the third period before the Redskins added 17 fourth-quarter points. The Jaguars ran a total of five plays in Redskins territory, all on a fourth-quarter drive that resulted in Josh Scobee's 36-yard field goal, while Washington had six red zone drives and four goal-to-go possessions that all resulted in scores. The Redskins' 10 sacks were a team record for a Jaguars opponent, with Ryan Kerrigan leading the way with four sacks. The Jaguars' 25 rushing yards, the second-fewest in team history, were led by Henne's 17 yards on three carries. The Jaguars' eight first downs tied their fewest ever, while the Redskins' 32 first downs tied the second-most by a Jaguars opponent.

WEEK 3 VS. INDIANAPOLIS

September 21, 2014 at EverBank Field

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (1-2) | 0 | 20 | 0 | 14 | - | 44 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-3) | 10 | 0 | 3 | 14 | - | 17 |

The Blake Bortles era officially began in Jacksonville when the rookie quarterback took the field for the start of the second half, but it was too late to change the outcome in a 44-17 loss to Indianapolis in the Jaguars' home opener. The Colts scored on each of their first six possessions, a first for a Jaguars opponent, in opening up a 30-0 halftime lead. The points included three field goals of 48, 43 and 25 yards by Adam Vinatieri and three touchdown passes by Andrew Luck to Ahmad Bradshaw, Dwayne Allen and Coby Fleener. The Jaguars struggled to get started and punted on their first four possessions. By halftime the Colts' dominance was underlined by 18 first downs to 2, 330 yards to 55, 239 passing yards to 22, 22 pass completions to 4, and a possession time advantage of 21:28 to 8:32. Bortles saw his first NFL action on the first play of the second half, and he directed his first scoring drive on the next possession, marching the team 59 yards in eight plays to set up Josh Scobee's 41-yard field goal. The Jacksonville defense then stiffened, stopping Indianapolis on a fourth-and-goal at the Jacksonville four-yard line. Six plays later Vontae Davis picked off Bortles' deep sideline pass to Allen Robinson, and the Colts then drove 64 yards in 10 plays with Luck throwing his fourth touchdown pass of the day to Hakeem Nicks. But Bortles responded with the first touchdown pass of his career on the next series when Allen Hurns caught his deep pass across the middle and broke two tackles on the way to a 63-yard touchdown. The Colts answered when Greg Toler picked off Bortles and returned the ball 47 yards for a touchdown and a 44-10 lead with 2:58 remaining. On the Jaguars' final possession Bortles connected with Cecil Shorts, who was seeing his first action of the season, with a 10-yard touchdown pass to close out the scoring. The Colts finished with 529 total yards of offense as Luck completed 31 of 39 passes for 370 yards and four touchdowns. The Jaguars had three turnovers and Indianapolis converted all three into touchdowns.

WEEK 4 AT SAN DIEGO

| SAN DIEGO CHARGERS (3-1) | 3 | 14 | 10 | 6 | - | 33 |

In Blake Bortles' first NFL start the Jaguars stumbled on their first two possessions, but Bortles led back-to-back touchdown drives in the second quarter to give Jacksonville a 14-10 lead. The San Diego offense, however, proved too potent as the Chargers pulled away with four straight scoring drives to claim a 33-14 win as Philip Rivers threw for 377 yards and three touchdowns with two 100-yard receivers. Jacksonville lost a Toby Gerhart fumble on the second play of the game, the first of three Jacksonville turnovers, but the defense held and forced San Diego to punt. The Jaguars' next possession ended at midfield with a failed 4th-and-1, and Nick Novak's ensuing 33-yard field goal opened the scoring. Jacksonville then marched 68 yards in 10 plays with Gerhart pounding in from the one for a 7-3 lead. The Chargers answered with an 83-yard drive capped by 24-yard and 47-yard completions from Rivers to Eddie Royal for a 10-7 San Diego lead. The Jaguars countered with a 76-yard drive highlighted by a 44-yard completion by Bortles to Allen Hurns to the San Diego two, from where Bortles hit newly-acquired tight end Nic Jacobs in the back of the end zone for a 14-10 lead. Another Rivers-to-Royal completion of 43 yards put San Diego ahead for good, 17-14, just before the half. The Chargers kept momentum in the third quarter as they scored on their first three possessions with a Rivers touchdown pass to Malcolm Floyd and two more Novak field goals. San Diego tacked on another field goal in the final minutes for the 33-14 final margin. Among the bright spots for Jacksonville was Bortles, who completed 29 of 37 passes for 253 yards, while the Jacksonville defense held San Diego to a field goal on all four of its red zone opportunities. The Jaguars had five rookies in the starting lineup on offense, with Bortles joined by wide receivers Allen Robinson and Allen Hurns, and linemen Luke Bowanko and Brandon Linder.

WEEK 5 VS. PITTSBURGH

October 5, 2014 at EverBank Field

| PITTSBURGH STEELERS (3-2) | 0 | 10 | 0 | 7 | - | 17 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-5) | 3 | 3 | 3 | 0 | - | 9 |

Scoring on their first possession and trailing 10-6 at halftime, the Jaguars gave Pittsburgh a fight but were unable to overcome an eight-point deficit in the fourth quarter in losing 17-9. Blake Bortles made his first home start and completed 22 of 36 passes but was victimized by two interceptions, the second of which was returned for the game-winning touchdown. After the Jacksonville defense forced a three-and-out on the Steelers' opening possession, the Jaguars put together a 15-play drive that resulted in a 43-yard Josh Scobee field goal. The Steelers tied it at 3-3 on Shaun Suisham's 24-yarder early in the second quarter, and then Ben Roethlisberger directed a 10-play drive that started with a 27-yard completion to Heath Miller and ended on a one-yard touchdown pass to Michael Palmer for a 10-3 lead with 1:53 remaining in the first half. Bortles then directed a two-minute drive covering 58 yards in 10 plays – including completions of 13, 18 and 17 yards – to set up Scobee's 35-yard field goal to get within 10-6 at the half. In the third quarter Scobee kicked a 36-yarder on a drive sparked by a 20-yard Storm Johnson run and a 20-yard Bortles pass to Toby Gerhart, and while that made it a one-point game at 10-9 the Jaguars had been forced to settle for a field goal for the second straight red zone possession. The fourth quarter began with the Steelers' only turnover, a sack and fumble by Roethlisberger that Abry Jones forced and Andre Branch recovered at the Jaguars' 17-yard line. But two play later Bortles' pass to the flat for Allen Hurns was picked off by Brice McCain and returned 22 yards for a touchdown, making it 17-9 with 11:32 left in the game. The Jaguars managed to gain one first down on their final two possessions and were forced to punt twice as Pittsburgh ran the final 10 plays to end the game. The Jaguars had seven rookies in their starting lineup including six on offense. With a large contingent of Steelers fans, the 66,198 tickets distributed were the most for a Jaguars game at EverBank Field since December of 2012 against New England.

WEEK 6 AT TENNESSEE

October 12, 2014 at LP Field

|----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (0-6) | 7 | 0 | 0 | 7 | - | 14 |
| TENNESSEE TITANS (2-4) | 3 | 7 | 3 | 3 | - | 16 |

After failing to recover Jacksonville's onside kick, Tennessee blocked Josh Scobee's 55-yard field goal try on the Jaguars' last play of the game to preserve a 16-14 divisional win at home. In the end the Jaguars posted season-highs in seven offensive categories: 379 total yards, 75 plays, 27 first downs, 297 net passing yards, 32 pass completions, 46 pass attempts and a possession time of 31:07. But the stats weren't enough to overcome two turnovers and six sacks, even though the Jacksonville defense also yielded season-lows in total yards and points and added three sacks to their season total. The Jaguars began the day with a strong start, marching 80 yards to score their first opening-possession touchdown of the season on a one-yard plunge by Storm Johnson, making his first NFL start. The scoring drive highlight was a 59-yard catch and run by Clay Harbor, who was finally tackled at the Tennessee 7. The Titans scored on their second possession with a 25-yard field goal after Charlie Whitehurst completed passes of 18, 11 and 25 yards. In the second quarter he had completions of 37, 17 and 22 yards to set up a one-yard touchdown run by Jackie Battle for a 10-7 Tennessee lead with 1:04 left in the first half. Opening the third quarter the Titans extended their lead, driving 77 yards to the Jacksonville 3, with the help of two third-down penalties on the Jaguars, to set up Ryan Succop's 21-yard field goal. The first turnover of the game came on Jacksonville's next possession, a 14-play series that ended with Blidi Wreh-Wilson's interception of a Blake Bortles pass at the Tennessee 16. His return to midfield put Tennessee in position to take advantage, which they did with Succop's 42-yard field goal for a 16-7 lead at the beginning of the fourth quarter. The teams exchanged punts a couple of times before the second Jaguars turnover, this time a fumble by Cecil Shorts at the Titans' 10 at the end of a 16-yard completion. The defense held and gave Jacksonville the ball again at their own 17 with 2:43 remaining and no timeouts. Bortles calmly directed the 83-yard drive, capping it with a 20-yard touchdown strike to Harbor with 37 seconds left. After Scobee's successful onside kick the Jaguars advanced only to the Tennessee 37, from where the 55-yard field goal try was blocked.

WEEK 7 VS. CLEVELAND

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|---|---|----|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| CLEVELAND BROWNS (3-3) | 3 | 3 | 0 | 0 | - | 6 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-6) | 0 | 7 | 3 | 14 | - | 24 |

The Jaguars claimed their first win of the season with a stingy defense, including three second-half takeaways that led to 17 points, and a strong running game to beat Cleveland 24-6 at EverBank Field. The Jaguars' season-high 185 rushing yards were led by Denard Robinson's 127, with touchdowns scored by Robinson and rookies Storm Johnson and Allen Robinson. In getting his first win as a starter, Blake Bortles was intercepted three times but the Jacksonville defense yielded just a field goal and made two fourth-down stops following the turnovers. Cleveland scored first on a 40-yard Billy Cundiff field goal that was set up by Tashaun Gipson's first interception and 31-yard return on the Jaguars' second possession. Cundiff added a 22-yarder in the second quarter to cap a 14-play drive after the Jacksonville defense held following first-and-goal at the 4. On the Jaguars' next series Bortles was picked off again by Gipson, and the defense did its job again by stopping the Browns on fourth-and-one at the Jacksonville 24. With 1:33 left in the half, Bortles marched the Jaguars 76 yards in three plays with completions of 16, 24 and 31 yards, the last to Allen Robinson with 37 seconds remaining for a 31-yard touchdown that gave the Jaguars their first halftime lead since opening day at 7-6. The only scoring of the third quarter was Josh Scobee's 30-yard field goal, which was set up by a Paul Posluszny fumble recovery on Telvin Smith's sack and forced fumble. Bortles' last interception came at the Cleveland six, and the Browns moved to the Jacksonville 43 from where the Jaguars defense held again on a fourth-and-5 early in the fourth quarter. The biggest break of the game came in the middle of the fourth quarter when Jordan Poyer tried to field Bryan Anger's punt at his own two-yard line but muffed the catch and the ball was recovered by LaRoy Reynolds at the Cleveland eight. From there Denard Robinson scored his first NFL touchdown for a 17-6 lead with 5:58 remaining. The clincher came two plays later when Telvin Smith intercepted Brian Hoyer at the Cleveland 22 and returned it to the seven. Storm Johnson scored from the three for a 24-6 lead with 4:35 left. The defense turned in one more fourth-down stop on the Browns' final possession when Chris Clemons got a sack for the third straight game.

WEEK 8 VS. MIAMI

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|---|----|----|---|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| MIAMI DOLPHINS (4-3) | 0 | 10 | 14 | 3 | - | 27 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-7) | 0 | 3 | 3 | 7 | - | 13 |

A strong performance by the Jacksonville defense was nullified by turnovers, including two interceptions returned for Dolphins touchdowns, as the Jaguars lost at home 27-13. The Jaguars appeared to be off to a strong start, narrowly missing a touchdown on the opening possession on a long pass from Blake Bortles to Allen Robinson. Forced to settle for a field goal, they came up empty when Josh Scobee's 48-yard try was blocked. A series of punts ensued for the rest of the first quarter, but on the first play of the second period Bortles' pass was intercepted by Louis Delmas and returned 81 yards for a touchdown. Jacksonville answered quickly though, with a 14-play, 66-yard drive ending with a 30-yard Scobee field goal. After the Jacksonville defense forced a third consecutive three-and-out, the Jaguars moved to the Miami 37 before Bortles fumbled at the end of a nine-yard run at the Miami 23. The Dolphins capitalized again, with Caleb Sturgis hitting a 43-yard field goal with 58 seconds left in the half to cap an 11-play drive. The Jaguars dominated the first half statistically—with 21:26 to 8:34 time of possession, 11 to 3 first downs, 219 to 56 total yards and 118 to 26 rushing yards—but trailed 10-3 due to the two turnovers. The third quarter began with the Jaguars defense forcing another punt after Ryan Davis' second sack of the day, but the Jaguars' first play of the half resulted in a second interception returned for a Miami touchdown, this time 22 yards by Brent Grimes for a 17-3 lead. The Jaguars answered with a 10-play drive to set up Scobee's 40-yard field goal, but Miami responded two series later with a 95-yard scoring drive that included a 50-yard pass and a 30-yard run before Ryan Tannehill threw a three-yard touchdown pass to Rishard Matthews for a 24-6 advantage. Miami tacked on another field goal in the fourth quarter before the Jaguars' final possession of the day ended with a 48-yard Bortles touchdown pass to Allen Robinson. Denard Robinson turned in his second straight 100-yard rushing game, including a 41-yarder, as the Jaguars ran for 176 yards. J.T. Thomas, making his first start at middle linebacker for the injured Paul Posluszny, got his first NFL interception in the end zone in the fourth quarter.

WEEK 9 AT CINCINNATI

NOVEMBER 2, 2014 at Paul Brown Stadium

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-8) | 3 | 0 | 7 | 13 | - | 23 |
| CINCINNATI BENGALS (5-2-1) | 0 | 12 | 7 | 14 | - | 33 |

The Jaguars, trailing by 16 points in the second quarter, battled back to get within three points with 8:13 left in the game, but turnovers and special teams miscues led to a 33-23 loss in Cincinnati. The Bengals led 12-3 at the half on an Andy Dalton-to-Mohamed Sanu 19-yard touchdown pass and a Mike Nugent field goal. The additional two points came on a safety when a Bryan Anger punt was blocked through the end zone, this after his previous punt was tipped and deflected before rolling dead at 27 yards. Cincinnati extended the lead to 19-3 in the third quarter on a Jeremy Hill one-yard run, but the Jaguars responded with a 40-yard scoring pass from Blake Bortles to Allen Hurns to cap a three-play, 64-yard drive. Cincinnati's next possession ended with a Sherrod Martin interception before the Bengals scored again on an 18-yard A.J. Green touchdown catch to make it 26-10 early in the fourth quarter. Jacksonville answered again with another Hurns touchdown, this time on an 18-yard pass capping an eight-play, 75-yard series. J.T. Thomas' interception at the Cincinnati 17 was returned to the seven, setting up a Denard Robinson five-yard touchdown run to get the Jaguars within three at 26-23. But Josh Scobee's ensuing kickoff went out of bounds, giving the Bengals possession at their own 40, and they took just one play to reach the end zone one more time on a 60-yard Hill run to close out the scoring. Hill finished with 154 rushing yards while Denard Robinson finished with 94 yards on 17 carries, narrowly missing a third straight 100-yard rushing performance. Hurns turned in 117 receiving yards and two touchdowns on a career-high seven receptions. Bortles posted a career-best passer rating of 96.4 with 247 passing yard and two touchdowns while completing 22 of 33 passes. On defense Thomas and Martin got interceptions while Sen'Derrick Marks notched his fourth sack of the season.

WEEK 10 VS. DALLAS

NOVEMBER 9, 2014 at Wembley Stadium

| | | | | | | |
|----------------------------|----|----|---|----|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |

In their second-ever home game at Wembley Stadium the Jaguars took an early lead but were unable to hold off a productive Dallas team that scored 24 first half points, falling 31-17. Though he was not certain to play because of a back injury, Tony Romo started and completed 20 of 27 passes for 246 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Cowboys. Dez Bryant did the most damage with six receptions for 158 yards and two touchdowns, all in the first half, while NFL rushing leader DeMarco Murray ran for 100 yards on 19 carries. Denard Robinson scored both touchdowns for the Jaguars, on runs of 32 and 1 yards, while Blake Bortles threw for 290 yards including 119 to Cecil Shorts. Both teams scored on their initial possession, with the Cowboys getting a 54-yard Dan Bailey field goal before Robinson's 32-yard scoring run which capped a 9-play, 80-yard drive for a 7-3 lead. Dallas then added three first half touchdowns with Jason Witten catching a two-yards pass in the first quarter—set up by a Jaguars muffed punt at their own six-yard line—before Bryant's 35- and 68-yard scores in the second. Bryant's second touchdown came on a one-play drive with 19 seconds left in the first half, one play after a Jaguars punt to the Dallas 32. Joseph Randle tacked on a 40-yard touchdown run on the Cowboys' first possession of the second half to cap an 87-yard drive and give Dallas a 31-7 lead. The Jaguars' next four possessions ended with two failed fourth-down plays, one punt and an interception. Jacksonville got a safety in the fourth quarter when the Cowboys were called for holding in their own end zone on a punt, and the Jaguars scored on their final possession of the day when Denard Robinson ran in from a yard out and then Allen Robinson caught two two-point conversion pass. The Jaguars reached their bye week with a 1-9 record.

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 12 AT INDIANAPOLIS

NOVEMBER 23, 2014 at Lucas Oil Stadium

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (1-10) | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | - | 3 |
| INDIANAPOLIS COLTS (7-4) | 3 | 0 | 0 | 0 | - | 23 |

A strong start by the Jaguars defense—including five sacks, five forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries in the first half—was later negated by four consecutive Colts scoring drives as the Jaguars lost 23-3 in Indianapolis. Nine of the Jaguars' 12 possessions ended in a punt or a turnover as the team was held to a season-low in points. On the fourth play of the game Chris Clemons got the first of his three sacks and forced an Andrew Luck fumble that Telvin Smith recovered at the Colts' 46. But two plays later Blake Bortles was intercepted and the Colts, despite Clemons' second sack in as many drives, capitalized with a 46-yard Adam Vinatieri field goal for a 3-0 lead. The Colts' next possession ended with another strip sack, this time by Chris Smith with Sen'Derrick Marks recovering at the Colts 12 to set up Josh Scobee's 28-yard field goal to make it 3-3. On Jacksonville's next series the turnover battle continued as Denard Robinson was forced to fumble and the Colts recovered at the Jacksonville 41. Clemons got his third sack of the day on the next drive before another Indianapolis fumble which was recovered by Telvin Smith at the Jacksonville seven. The Jaguars were unable to take advantage there, but the defense held on a goal line stand at the end of the first half and Indianapolis took a 6-3 halftime lead on Vinatieri's 20-yard field goal. The game turned in the third quarter, when the Jaguars failed to gain a first down and went three-and-out three times while the Colts scored 17 points on three consecutive drives with a Trent Richardson one-yard run, a Luck-to-T.Y. Hilton 73-yard pass and a 32-yard field goal. In that period Indianapolis was four-for-four on third down, gained 11 first downs and more than doubled the Jaguars' time of possession. The Jaguars fell to 1-10 for the first time. The Colts' six fumbles tied the most by a Jaguars opponent, and through 11 games the Jaguars defense recorded 33 sacks, their most in a season since 2007.

WEEK 13 VS. NEW YORK GIANTS

NOVEMBER 30, 2014 at EverBank Field

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| NEW YORK GIANTS (3-9) | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | - | 24 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-10) | 0 | 3 | 0 | 9 | - | 25 |

Turning in the largest come-from-behind win in franchise history, the Jaguars got two second-half touchdowns from their defense to erase a 21-0 second-quarter deficit and claim a 25-24 win at home against the Giants. Josh Scobee's 43-yard field goal with 28 seconds remaining provided the winning margin, capping Blake Bortles' first game-winning drive of 11 plays and 55 yards. Both teams punted on their initial possession but then the Giants took over, scoring touchdowns on three consecutive drives including a 19-play, 91-yard march that consumed 9:51 and made it 7-0 on Rashad Jennings' two-yard run. A three-yard touchdown pass from Eli Manning to Preston Parker and a Jennings 17-yard run made it 21-0 midway through the second quarter. Scobee's 28-yard field goal on the Jaguars' next series made it 21-3 at halftime. In the second half the Jacksonville defense took over, getting a touchdown on the Giants' first series when Manning was sacked by Geno Hayes and fumbled at his own eight-yard line with J.T. Thomas recovering the ball in the end zone. A Giants missed 43-yard field goal try later in the quarter preceded the Jaguars' second touchdown, a 30-yard Bortles pass to Marqise Lee. The Jaguars' two-point conversion try fell incomplete, leaving the score at 21-16. The Giants' next possession ended in another Jaguars defensive touchdown as Aaron Colvin scooped up a Larry Donnell fumble and returned it 41 yards to give the Jaguars their first lead at 22-21 with 2:04 gone in the fourth quarter. Another two-point conversion try fell incomplete, leaving Jacksonville with a one-point lead. After two punts the Giants regained the lead on Josh Brown's 33-yard field goal, making it 24-22 with 3:26 remaining. The Jaguars responded, driving 55 yards in 11 plays with Bortles completing four consecutive passes and running for 11 and 20 yards. After Scobee's kick made it 25-24, the Jaguars defense sealed the win on the next play when Sen'Derrick Marks got his second sack of the day and forced a Manning fumble which Chris Clemons recovered. The Jaguars' 21-point comeback win broke the previous team record of 15 points in 1996, and the game marked the first time in franchise history the defense scored two touchdowns in a game.

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 14 VS. HOUSTON

DECEMBER 7, 2014 at EverBank Field

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|----|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| HOUSTON TEXANS (7-6) | 3 | 7 | 7 | 10 | - | 27 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-11) | 7 | 6 | 0 | 0 | - | 13 |

The Jaguars scored first and built a 13-10 halftime lead but were unable to hold it as Houston scored on its first three possessions of the second half to post a 27-13 win. Blake Bortles threw his first first-quarter touchdown pass of the season on the Jaguars' second possession, hitting fellow rookie Allen Hurns on the run with a four-yard pass. Houston answered on the next series with a 44-yard Randy Bullock field goal capping a 54-yard drive, and the Texans took their first lead on their next possession, marching 52 yards in six plays with Ryan Fitzpatrick scoring on a four-yard run for a 10-7 Houston lead early in the second period. The Jaguars' two longest drives of the day came in the second quarter and both resulted in Josh Scobee field goals of 33 and 37 yards to cap 11- and 13-play drives and make it 13-10. In the second half the game turned as the Jaguars' first three possessions ended in punt, interception and punt while Houston scored on its first three drives of the half. The Texans took the lead for good at 17-13 on Alfred Blue's one-yard run which capped a 16-play, 84-yard drive. Bortles was then intercepted by D.J. Swearinger at the Jacksonville 32 and Arian Foster's ensuing one-yard scoring run gave Houston a 24-13 lead early in the fourth. Bullock tacked on a 44-yard field goal for a 14-point lead at 27-13, and the Houston defense stopped the Jaguars on fourth down on each of their last two possessions. Scobee eclipsed the 1,000-point mark for his career with his two field goals and PAT, giving him 1,002 in his 11-year career to become one of nine active NFL players with 1,000 points. Sen'Derrick Marks got 1.5 sacks on the Texans' first two possessions to increase his season total to 8.5, while Hurns' touchdown was his sixth, a franchise record by a rookie wide receiver. Houston's J.J. Watt turned in three sacks to increase his season total to 14.5, and Foster finished with 127 rushing yards.

WEEK 15 AT BALTIMORE

December 14, 2014 at M&T Bank Stadium

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (2-12) | 6 | 6 | 0 | 0 | - | 12 |
| BALTIMORE RAVENS (9-5) | 7 | 3 | 7 | 3 | - | 20 |

An ominous start, with Baltimore blocking a punt for a touchdown on the first series of the game, set the stage for an unusual contest that included six field goals, just one offensive touchdown and a successful onside kick and fake punt by the Jaguars, but Jacksonville's inability to reach the end zone cost them in a 20-12 loss in Baltimore. After the blocked punt put them in a 7-0 deficit, the Jaguars scored on each of their next three possessions with Josh Scobee kicking field goals of 53, 45 and 53 yards for a 9-7 lead. On the next series Scobee missed from 42 yards and Justin Tucker's 22-yarder midway through the second quarter gave Baltimore back the lead at 10-9. Tucker then missed a 54-yard try before Scobee ended the first half with his fourth field goal of the day, this one from 45 yards again to give Jacksonville a 12-10 halftime lead. That would be the end of the Jaguars' scoring, however, as they punted on their first four possessions of the second half. Baltimore put together a 6-play, 80-yard drive early in the third quarter on which Joe Flacco completed all five of his passes including 22- and 29-yarders to set up his three-yard touchdown pass to Owen Daniels for a 17-12 Baltimore advantage. The five-point margin stood through most of the half, and the Jaguars were unable to march beyond the Baltimore 34-yard line, where they failed on a fourth-and-nine with 3:29 left in the game. From there the Ravens drove 49 yards in eight plays for a 33-yard field goal that gave them an eight-point lead with 1:11 remaining. Then on fourth-and-19 Blake Bortles' desperation pass was intercepted to seal the win for Baltimore. The Ravens defense harassed Bortles, sacking him eight times on the day including four in the fourth quarter. The Jaguars' two successful special teams plays – an onside kick in the second quarter and a fake punt in the third – went for naught as the team was unable to score following either surprise play.

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

WEEK 16 VS. TENNESSEE

December 18, 2014 at EverBank Field

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|---|---|---|---|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| TENNESSEE TITANS (2-13) | 7 | 3 | 0 | 3 | - | 13 |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-12) | 0 | 7 | 7 | 7 | - | 21 |

Closing out the home portion of their schedule on a Thursday night, the Jaguars offense produced three touchdowns including two on consecutive 11-play drives to reverse a 10-0 deficit and spark a 21-10 win over Tennessee. The night began with the Titans taking the opening possession and marching 84 yards in 12 plays, eating up nearly half of the first quarter, to take a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard pass from Charlie Whitehurst to Leon Washington. The Jaguars, meanwhile, struggled to get started. They punted on each of their first four possessions including three straight three-and-outs. Tennessee also punted three times but then scored again, this time on a 50-yard Ryan Succop field goal that made it 10-0 with 3:46 left in the first half. At that point the Jaguars awoke as Blake Bortles drove them 80 yards in 11 plays in just 3:15, capping the series with a four-yard touchdown pass to Mercedes Lewis. The Jaguars got the ball to start the second half and they picked up where they left off, with another 11-play drive covering 72 yards and ending with Toby Gerhart's one-yard run up the middle to give Jacksonville a 14-10 lead. After the teams exchanged a couple of punts each the Jaguars defense stood up, stopping Tennessee on a fourth-and-two at the Jacksonville 39-yard line. The offense made it pay off on the next play when Jordan Todman broke free on a 62-yard touchdown run that made it 21-10 with 9:13 remaining. The Jacksonville defense then did its part again, stopping Tennessee at the five-yard line after a first-and-goal at the seven, forcing the Titans to kick a field goal that made it an eight-point game with 6:06 left. A time-consuming 10-play possession by the Jaguars kept the ball away from Tennessee until 1:07 remained. The Titans, with no time outs, advanced to the Jacksonville 35 but Sen'Derrick Marks ended the game with a sack, the Jaguars' fourth of the night. The Jaguars became the first team in NFL history to have two rookie wide receivers with 48 or more receptions in Allen Hurns and Allen Robinson, while Todman's 62-yard run was the Jaguars' longest in four years.

WEEK 17 AT HOUSTON

December 28, 2014 at NRG Stadium

| | | | | | | |
|-----------------------------|----|---|---|---|---|----|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | | |
| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (3-13) | 10 | 0 | 7 | 0 | - | 17 |
| HOUSTON TEXANS (9-7) | 7 | 7 | 0 | 9 | - | 23 |

The Jaguars held the lead twice and were driving for a potential game-winning touchdown in the final minute before falling short and losing in Houston, 23-17, to close the season at 3-13. The Texans scored quickly, driving 83 yards in seven plays on their opening possession to take a 7-0 lead on Case Keenum's 10-yard pass to Arian Foster. The Jaguars responded on the next series with a 53-yard Josh Scobee field goal, capping an eight-play series, but it was the Jacksonville defense that gave the team its first lead on Houston's next possession when Dwayne Gratz intercepted Keenum and returned the ball 55 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 first-quarter lead. In the second quarter Houston put together an impressive 14-play, 74-yard drive to regain the lead at 14-10 on Alfred Blue's one-yard run up the middle. But the Jaguars battled back in the third quarter. After Scobee's 51-yard field goal try hit the left upright, the defense came up with another take-away, this time a fumble forced by Chris Clemons' sack and recovered by Ryan Davis at the Houston 23. On the ensuing play Cecil Shorts took a lateral pass and threw downfield to an uncovered Jordan Todman for a 23-yard touchdown as Jacksonville regained the lead at 17-14. Houston answered on the next possession, however, driving 80 yards in 12 plays and regaining the lead at 21-17 on Keenum's 8-yard pass to Andre Johnson early in the fourth quarter. The Texans extended their lead to six points when J.J. Watt sacked Blake Bortles in the end zone midway through the period, but the Jaguars were still not done. Their final possession began at their own 15-yard line with 2:51 remaining. An 18-yard completion to Shorts on fourth-and-10 kept the drive alive, and then Bortles ran 34 yards to set up first-and-goal at the Houston 10. A five-yard completion to Allen Hurns on second down moved them to the five, but two incomplete passes ended the comeback. An inability to convert third downs doomed the Jaguars, as they finished 0 of 11 while Houston was 10 of 18 on third down. Bortles, who started the final 13 games and broke the Jaguars rookie record with 2,908 passing yards, led the team with 61 rushing yards in the finale. Hurns, another of the seven rookies in the starting lineup in Houston, finished with 51 receptions and six touchdowns to tie the fourth-most in NFL history by an undrafted rookie in each category.

September 22, 1996 — at New England 28, Jacksonville 25

After spotting New England a 22-0 lead, the Jaguars rallied in the second half, scoring three touchdowns on 51-, 41- and 61-yard completions from Mark Brunell and a Mike Hollis field goal, to tie the score at 25-25. The Patriots had the only possession in overtime and won on a 40-yard field goal by Adam Vinatieri.

November 24, 1996 — Jacksonville 28, at Baltimore 25

The Ravens led 25-10 going into the fourth quarter. After a touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Pete Mitchell, the defense recovered a fumble at the Ravens' 19-yard line. Brunell found Willie Jackson six plays later, and Brunell ran in for the two-point conversion to tie the game at 25-25 with 1:24 remaining. The Jaguars won the toss, but were forced to punt. The Ravens fumbled, and Jacksonville drove down the field, with Mike Hollis winning the game with a 34-yard field goal.

October 26, 1997 — at Pittsburgh 23, Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars took a 10-0 lead into the second half, but Pittsburgh came back to take a 14-10 fourth-quarter lead. After a Mark Brunell TD pass to Pete Mitchell, the Jaguars took a 17-14 lead. The Steelers scored on a 19-yard field goal at the end of the fourth quarter to tie the game 17-17. The Steelers won the toss and scored on a 17-yard shovel pass from Kordell Stewart to Jerome Bettis.

October 29, 2000 — Jacksonville 23, at Dallas 17

The Jaguars ended a five-game losing streak with a 23-17 overtime road victory over the Cowboys, with Alvis Whitted scoring on a 37-yard pass from Mark Brunell on the first series of overtime for his second touchdown of the game. Brunell threw for three TDs and tied a team record for passing accuracy, as he completed 20 of 24 passes. Kyle Brady caught 10 of those passes for 134 yards, as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark for the second straight week.

November 14, 2004 — at Jacksonville 23, Detroit 17

The Jaguars continued their dramatic play with a 23-17 overtime win over the Detroit Lions at ALLTEL Stadium. David Garrard started his first game since 2002 in place of injured Byron Leftwich and led the team with 198 yards passing and two touchdowns. Jimmy Smith caught the game-winning 36-yard touchdown pass from Garrard in overtime. The Lions erased a 17-3 fourth-quarter lead with two Eddie Drummond touchdown returns.

September 25, 2005 — Jacksonville 26, at New York Jets 20

The Jaguars defeated the New York Jets 26-20 on a game-winning 36-yard touchdown pass from Byron Leftwich to Jimmy Smith at the Meadowlands. Both teams began the overtime with interceptions and after forcing the Jets to punt on their third drive, Leftwich threw 36 yards for the game-winner.

October 16, 2005 — Jacksonville 23, at Pittsburgh 17

The Jaguars defeated the Steelers 23-17 in Pittsburgh on a dramatic 41-yard interception return for a touchdown by Rashean Mathis in overtime. The Steelers won the toss and Quincy Morgan returned the kickoff 74 yards. On third down Maddox fumbled the snap and Reggie Hayward recovered the ball. The Jaguars stalled on offense and Chris Hanson recorded his team record-tying ninth punt of the game. Two plays later Mathis ended the game with his interception.

October 1, 2006 — at Washington 36, Jacksonville 30

Jacksonville erased a 10-point deficit in the fourth quarter to force overtime, but Washington scored on the opening possession of the extra period on a 68-yard touchdown reception by Santana Moss from Mark Brunell to claim a 36-30 win at FedExField.

September 28, 2008 — at Jacksonville 30, Houston 27

The Jaguars and Texans both scored 10 points in the fourth quarter to force overtime, but the Jaguars won the toss and David Garrard drove the Jaguars 51 yards in six plays and Josh Scobee connected on a 37-yard field goal for the game winner.

October 18, 2009 — at Jacksonville 23, St. Louis 20

The Jaguars won the toss in overtime and never gave the football up in a 23-20 victory over the Rams. Starting from the 20-yard line, David Garrard engineered a 13 play, 62-yard drive, which included a mixture of passes and runs to set up the 36-yard game-winning field goal by Josh Scobee.

December 26, 2010 — Washington 20, at Jacksonville 17

The Jaguars got the ball first, but they began at their own 11 following a miscue on the kickoff return. On third down David Garrard's pass was intercepted by Kevin Barnes at Jacksonville's 22, and three plays later Graham Gano hit the game-winner from 31 yards.

September 9, 2012 — at Minnesota 26, Jacksonville 23

After the Jaguars took a 23-20 lead with 20 seconds left, Minnesota took advantage of a short kickoff to start at its 31-yard line with 14 seconds remaining. Christian Ponder completed passes for 26 and 6 yards to reach the Jacksonville 37, from where Blair Walsh booted a 55-yard field goal to tie it at 23-23 as time expired in regulation. In overtime the Vikings used eight plays to go 55 yards, setting up Walsh's fourth field goal from 38 yards. The Vikings defense then held as the Jaguars failed to convert a first down.

October 21, 2012 — at Oakland 26, Jacksonville 23

For the second time in six games the Jaguars suffered a heart-breaking overtime loss on the road. In overtime, the Jaguars had the first possession, and on third down Chad Henne completed a pass to Cecil Shorts who fumbled and the Raiders recovered at the Jacksonville 21. From there Sebastian Janikowski kicked a 40-yard field goal to win the game.

November 18, 2012 — at Houston 43, Jacksonville 37

In overtime, Houston won the coin toss and took 14 plays to set up Shayne Graham's third field goal, from 25 yards. The Jaguars responded with an 11-play, 53-yard drive capped by Josh Scobee's third field goal that followed a 4th-and-10 conversion and a 28-yard run by Jalen Parmele to the Houston six. With the score tied at 37-37 Derek Cox intercepted Matt Schaub on the next series to set the Jaguars up at the Houston 47, but this time the Jaguars' 4th-and-10 conversion failed. Two plays later Schaub hit Andre Johnson with a short pass that he took 48 yards for the game-winner 12:59 into the overtime period.

| BUFFALO BILLS (10-7) | 14 | 3 | 3 | 7 | — | 27 |

The Jaguars won their first-ever playoff game with a come-from-behind victory over Buffalo and became the first road team to win a postseason game at Rich Stadium. Natrone Means rushed for 175 yards and a touchdown, and Mike Hollis kicked three field goals, the game-winner with 3:07 to play. Buffalo jumped out to a 7-0 lead, but Clyde Simmons intercepted Jim Kelly and ran 20 yards for a score to tie the game. Simmons also had two sacks. Buffalo took a 27-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Mark Brunell found Jimmy Smith for a 2-yard TD pass to tie the score, and Aaron Beasley recovered a fumble prior to Hollis' field goal.

| DENVER BRONCOS (13-4) | 12 | 0 | 0 | 15 | — | 27 |

The Jaguars won their seventh straight game as they shocked the football world with their upset victory over the 13-3 Broncos. After falling behind 12-0, the Jaguars scored on their next six possessions, all on drives of 50 yards and longer, taking a 30-20 lead. Denver had not lost at home all season and had not lost a playoff game at Mile High Stadium since 1984. Natrone Means rushed for 140 yards, and Mark Brunell threw TD passes to Keenan McCardell and Jimmy Smith. The Jaguars dominated in yards, first downs and time of possession.

In just their second season, the Jaguars' saw their hopes of reaching the Super Bowl end in the AFC Championship game on a cold night in New England. The game began ominously for Jacksonville on its first series, when punter Bryan Barker fielded a high snap and was tackled at the Jaguars' four-yard line. The Patriots scored a touchdown two plays later. Mistakes haunted the Jaguars throughout the game, with a total of four turnovers - three on their last four possessions - including an end zone interception and a fumble that was returned for a touchdown.

The Jaguars returned to the site of their historic playoff upset over Denver a year earlier, but the outcome was not to be the same. The Broncos took a 21-0 lead early in the second quarter, however the Jaguars closed the gap to 21-17 in the third quarter with a blocked punt returned for a touchdown and looked to make a rally. On the next series the defense forced a fumble, but the Jaguars could not capitalize as a fumbled snap at the Denver 16-yard line ended the Jaguars' momentum. The Broncos rolled up 511 yards on offense, 310 of them on the ground, and scored five rushing touchdowns in the game. The Jaguars held the ball for just 19:01, their lowest time of possession ever.

The Jaguars hosted their first-ever home playoff game and defeated the Patriots to advance to the divisional playoffs. Mark Brunell returned as the starter after missing nearly three games with a high-ankle sprain. For the Patriots, Scott Zolak started for the injured Drew Bledsoe. The Patriots did not score on their eight first-half possessions. The Jaguars took advantage and scored on two Mike Hollis field goals and a 13-yard run by Fred Taylor. New England scored 10 points before the Jaguars bounced back with 13 in the fourth quarter. Taylor's 162 yards rushing were the second-most in a postseason game in Jaguars' history, and his 33 attempts were the most. Hollis' four field goals without a miss extended his streak of consecutive field goals in the postseason to 12 and broke his postseason single-game record.

The Jaguars' season ended in 26 degree temperatures in New York, with the Jets jumping out to a 17-0 lead and coasting to the win. Jacksonville's only first-half score was a 52-yard pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the final play. The Jaguars couldn't stop New York's Keyshawn Johnson, who scored both rushing and receiving and also intercepted a pass. With the score 31-24 late in the fourth quarter, Brunell, who threw three TDs and three interceptions, had a chance to tie the game late after a Donovan Darius interception of Vinny Testaverde in the end zone. But the Jaguars went 3-and-out and the Jets added a field goal for their final points. Smith caught two TD passes and became the first Jaguar to have 100 receiving yards in a playoff game.

Scoring on their first five possessions, the Jaguars advanced to their second AFC Championship game in four seasons with a record-setting defeat of Miami, in what would be Dan Marino's final game. The 62 points scored were the second-most in NFL postseason history and the most scored in an AFC playoff game, and the 55-point margin of victory was the second-largest in NFL postseason history. Mark Brunell returned to action after missing the season finale with a knee injury. Fred Taylor ran 90 yards for a touchdown, the longest in NFL postseason history. The 41 points in the first half also tied the NFL postseason record. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown to take a 48-7 lead. The Jaguars scored twice more in the game, on a touchdown catch by Alvis Whitted and a five-yard run by Chris Howard. The 62 points scored were the Jaguars' most ever.

| JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS (15-3) | 7 | 7 | 0 | 0 | — | 14 |

The Jaguars' season came to a sudden end, as Tennessee defeated Jacksonville for the third time in the season. A record crowd of 75,206 saw the Jaguars get off to a fast start, with Kyle Brady scoring a touchdown on a seven-yard pass from Mark Brunell. The Titans responded with a nine-yard touchdown catch by Yancey Thigpen. Then the Jaguars took a 14-7 lead on a 33-yard TD run by James Stewart. But Reggie Barlow fumbled a punt that was recovered by the Titans and converted into a 34-yard field goal. The second half was all Tennessee, as the Titans scored 23 unanswered points and shut out the Jaguars. The Titans got a one-yard touchdown run by Steve McNair. Then came a safety of Mark Brunell, and on the free kick Derrick Mason returned the ball 80 yards for a touchdown. The Jaguars could not recover, as they had three turnovers in the last 16 minutes of the game. Tennessee scored once in the fourth quarter for the 33-14 final score.

| NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS (11-6) | 0 | 7 | 14 | 7 | — | 28 |

The Jaguars returned to the postseason for the first time since 1999 but saw their season end at New England with a 28-3 loss to the Patriots. The first quarter ended scoreless as both teams punted on their first two possessions. The Jaguars stopped the Patriots on downs on fourth-and-10 to end the quarter. The Patriots began the scoring with a six-play, 37-yard drive that was capped off with an 11-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Troy Brown. The Jaguars next drive was thwarted after 33 yards when Alvin Pearman lost a fumble at the Patriots' 44-yard line. After two punts, the Jaguars scored their only points on a Josh Scobee 36-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in the half. The Patriots erupted with back-to-back touchdown drives to start the second half. Each drive ended with Brady touchdown passes, the first to David Givens for three yards and the second for 63 yards to Benjamin Watson. On the Jaguars ensuing drive, Byron Leftwich was intercepted on fourth-and-five by Asante Samuel, who returned the pick 73 yards for a touchdown. David Garrard replaced Leftwich for the final three drives which ended with a 41-yard missed field goal and two turnovers on downs.

| PITTSBURGH STEELERS (10-7) | 7 | 0 | 3 | 19 | — | 29 |

The Jaguars got their first playoff win since the 1999 season and their first under head coach Jack Del Rio with a 31-29 victory, marking the first team to win twice in Pittsburgh in one season. The Jaguars held an 18-point lead at the start of the fourth quarter but trailed by one with six minutes to play. The Jaguars forced the Steelers to punt and David Garrard ran for 32 yards on fourth-and-two with less than two minutes remaining. Four plays later Josh Scobee hit the game-winning field goal from 25 yards. Bobby McCray sacked Ben Roethlisberger on the Steelers' next play and forced a fumble that was recovered by Derek Landri to seal the win.

MEDIA INFORMATION

RADIO BROADCASTERS

After a successful inaugural campaign in 2014, Jaguars games and official team radio programming returns in 2015 on 1010 XL AM and 92.5 FM, the team's flagship radio partner. In addition, the games will be simulcast on 99.9 Gator Country. Jaguars broadcasts feature play-by-play announcer Frank Frangie, who joins Jeff Lageman and Tony Boselli in the booth, and field reporter Rick Ballou.

A veteran broadcaster, Frangie has been and will continue to be an on-air talk show host at 1010 XL. He has called a full schedule of college football games for the past eight seasons for Touchdown Radio. Frangie is in his 27th consecutive year as a talk show host in Jacksonville, almost all of them in afternoon drive time. He is a Jacksonville native and a 1980 graduate of the University of Florida.

Lageman is in his 13th year as the Jaguars' radio analyst. Prior to that, he served four seasons as the analyst for Jaguars preseason TV broadcasts. Lageman is also co-host of "Jaguars All Access" on WJXT-TV in addition to co-hosting "The Gus Bradley Show" on radio and TV and "Jaguars Thursday" on 1010 XL. Lageman played defensive end for the Jaguars from 1995-98 and 10 seasons in the NFL after being drafted 14th overall in the 1989 draft.

Boselli served as color analyst for the Jaguars' preseason TV broadcasts for seven years prior to joining the radio broadcast booth in 2013. He has also been a regular analyst for NFL games broadcast nationally on Westwood One the past five seasons. Boselli is a co-host of "Jaguars Monday" and "Jaguars Thursday" on 1010 XL. He was the second overall selection in the 1995 draft – the first in Jaguars history – and was a five-time Pro Bowl selection.

Ballou has been paired with Frangie for their afternoon talk show for the past six and-a-half years on 1010 XL. Ballou is a Florida State graduate and has been in sports radio for 21 years, including seven at Sporting News Radio in Chicago. He also previously worked for PGA Tour Communications.

99.9 Gator Country serves as a promotional partner for the Jaguars and simulcasts Jaguars game broadcasts as part of a six-hour window on every Jaguars game day. The six-hour window accommodates pregame and postgame shows in addition to the game broadcast.

J.P. Shadrick co-hosts game day studio coverage along with Mike Dempsey for the Jaguars Radio Network. The game day coverage includes the Publix Tailgate Show, Countdown to Kickoff, Jaguars Postgame and The Scoreboard Show. Shadrick also hosts "Jaguars Monday" and "Jaguars Thursday" on 1010 XL.

PRESEASON TELEVISION

Jaguars TV programming, which includes preseason game broadcasts and ancillary programs, returns in 2015 to WJXT-TV Channel 4 for the second straight year. WJXT was previously the Jaguars' local television partner in 2001-02.

Veteran sports personality Sam Kouvaris of Channel 4 calls the play-by-play for the preseason games alongside former Jaguars quarterback Mark Brunell. Rounding out the broadcast team is Nikki Kimbleton serving as field reporter for the preseason games.

Kouvaris, who called Jaguars preseason games in 2001 and 2002, also serves as co-host of "Jaguars All Access" and "The Gus Bradley Show" each week during the season on WJXT. He has play-by-play experience and has called events for CBS, NBC, ABC and ESPN. Kouvaris has been at WJXT since 1981 and has been sports director/managing editor since 2000.

Brunell, a 19-year NFL veteran who played for the Jaguars from 1995-2003, assumed the role of color analyst for the Jaguars' preseason games in 2013. In addition to calling Jaguars preseason games, he serves as an on-air talent on various NFL-themed shows on ESPN. Brunell, who still holds many of the franchise's passing records, is also the head football coach at Episcopal School of Jacksonville.

Kimbleton is an anchor and consumer reporter for Channel 4's The Morning Show. Before coming home to Channel 4, she was the morning anchor for WNCT in Greenville, N.C. She also spent six years as a reporter and anchor with Birmingham's Fox-owned and operated station, WBRC.

THE PRIDE OF THE JAGUARS

The Pride of the Jaguars was created in 2006 as a visible way to recognize those who have had the greatest impact in the team's history. The members are:

- Tony Boselli, OT, 1995-2001; inducted in 2006
- Wayne and Delores Weaver, co-owners, 1995-2011; inducted in 2011
- Fred Taylor, RB, 1998-2008; inducted in 2012
- Mark Brunell, QB, 1995-2003; inducted in 2013

The Pride of the Jaguars is located on the fascia of the west upper deck at Everbank Field.

TONY BOSELLI (1995-2001)

Tony Boselli, the Jacksonville Jaguars' first-ever college draft choice, was the first member of the Jaguars franchise to be honored in The Pride of the Jaguars on October 8, 2006.

"Tony Boselli was the original Jaguar, and we are excited to recognize him," said Jaguars former owner Wayne Weaver. "We are proud of Tony's contributions on the field for this organization, and we're proud of his contributions off the field for this community. We welcome the opportunity to have Jaguars fans thank Tony for what he has meant to Jacksonville and the Jaguars."

"The seven years I spent in Jacksonville as a member of the Jaguars team were truly memorable. I also would like to thank all the Jaguars fans who made us feel so welcome when we first arrived in Jacksonville, and now that we have returned," Boselli said.

Boselli was the second player drafted overall in the 1995 college draft following an All-America career at Southern California. He started a then-team-record 90 of the 91 Jaguars games in which he played from 1995-2001 and was named to the Pro Bowl five times.

Widely considered the best offensive tackle in the game, Boselli allowed only 15.5 sacks in seven seasons and was named second team on the NFL All-Decade Team for the 1990s.

FRED TAYLOR (1998-2008)

Fred Taylor became the fourth inductee into the Pride of the Jaguars on September 30, 2012. Taylor was the second player, joining teammate Tony Boselli, whom he played with for his first four seasons with the Jaguars. Taylor, who started 136 of 140 games, is one of three players along with Brad Meester and Jimmy Smith to play for 11 or more seasons with the Jaguars.

Taylor ranks fourth in franchise history in scoring with 424 points (70 TDs, two 2-point conversions) and broke the rookie scoring record with 102 points (17 TDs) during the 1998 season. He is the only Jaguars rookie to rush for 1,000 yards (1,223). His 17 TDs (14 rushing and three receiving) as a rookie still sit atop the Jaguars single-season TD mark. Taylor, the Jaguars career-rushing leader with 11,271 yards, leads second-ranked Maurice Jones-Drew (8,071 career rushing yards) by 3,200 yards. Taylor holds five of the top eight single-season rushing totals in team history, with a team-record 1,572 yards on 345 carries (4.56 yards per rush avg.) in the 2003 season. Taylor's 234 rushing yards against Pittsburgh on November 19, 2000 are a Jaguars single-game high. Taylor rushed for 100+ yards on 48 occasions for the Jaguars, yet another team record.

While Taylor ranks among the best in nearly every Jaguars rushing statistic, he also sits at fifth in career receptions (286) and sixth in receiving yards (2,361). Taylor played for 11 seasons as a Jaguar, after being drafted ninth overall in the 1998 NFL Draft. After two seasons with New England, Taylor returned to Jacksonville to retire in a ceremony at EverBank Field on September 2, 2011.

Jaguars Owner Shad Khan acknowledged Taylor's place amongst elite company, stating, "Fred has earned his place in the Pride of the Jaguars, both with his record-setting performances on the field as well as with his involvement in the Jacksonville community throughout his career."

WAYNE & DELORES WEAVER (1993-2011)

Wayne and Delores Weaver were inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars at halftime of their final game as owners of the team on January 1, 2012, becoming only the second and third inductees.

Three days later their ownership of the Jaguars was transferred to Shahid Khan, ending an ownership run that began when the franchise was awarded on November 30, 1993.

During the 17 seasons of the Weavers' ownership the Jaguars were 138-134 in the regular season and 142-140 including postseason, with six playoff berths and two division titles. The Weavers were on hand for every game during that span – 352 total including 69 preseason, 272 regular season and 11 postseason games – and twenty Jaguars players were named to the Pro Bowl.

From 1995-2011 the Weavers, through the Weaver Family Foundation, contributed more than $22.6 million to Jacksonville agencies and organizations. The Jaguars Foundation also awarded more than $14.8 million in grants to area non-profit agencies during that time.

Wayne Weaver served on four NFL committees: Business Ventures, Investment, Finance and Compensation. Delores Weaver also served on two committees: NFL Charities and NFL Giving.

MARK BRUNELL (1995-2003)

Former quarterback Mark Brunell became the fifth member inducted into the Pride of the Jaguars on Dec. 15, 2013. Owner of nearly every Jaguars passing record, Brunell is one of 13 players in Jaguars history to play nine seasons or more. He started 117 of his 120 games played and completed 2,184 of 3,616 passes for 25,698 yards with 144 touchdowns and 86 interceptions – all still ranking as Jaguars career records. Brunell's 4,367 passing yards in 1996 led the NFL, he was voted to the AFC Pro Bowl squad three times and was named the game's MVP in 1997.

"I am truly honored and grateful for this recognition," Brunell said. "I cherish my memories of playing here in Jacksonville because in many ways those were the best years of my career. My family and I have returned to make Jacksonville our home, and we will continue to be part of this community and part of the Jaguars organization. I'm thrilled to join my teammates, Tony and Fred, and the Weavers in the Pride of the Jaguars."

"Mark Brunell epitomized the Jaguars in their early years, and he was one of the main reasons for their success during that time," Jaguars owner Shahid Khan said. "I personally recall how the Jaguars captured the imagination of NFL fans throughout the nation in those days and Mark Brunell was always in the highlights. Now that I have been here, I have gotten to see that this great quarterback is also a great person. Mark is a big part of the Jaguars family and the Jacksonville community, and it gives me great pride to join our fans in recognizing Mark and honoring him for his contributions to Jaguars history."

Brunell was the first player acquired by the Jaguars in a trade, joining the team on April 22, 1995 from the Green Bay Packers. He was the Jaguars' starting quarterback from 1995 through 2003, posting a winning record as a starter and leading the team to four playoff berths, eight postseason games and two AFC Championship games.

JAGUARS SPECIAL PROGRAMS / FACILITIES

JUNIOR JAGS

JAGUARS CUB CLUB

As the official healthcare provider of the Jacksonville Jaguars, Baptist Health is pleased to present the Jaguars Cub Club for our tiniest fans ages newborn to four years old. This club is sponsored by Baptist Health and Wolfson Children's Hospital and it's designed with families in mind. Members will receive a special edition Cub Club "onesie" or T-shirt, blanket and drawstring bag. Members and their parents are invited to participate in fun member-only events. Started in January of 2014, all babies born at Baptist hospitals receive free membership into the club.

The membership is available online at www.jaguarscubclub.com.

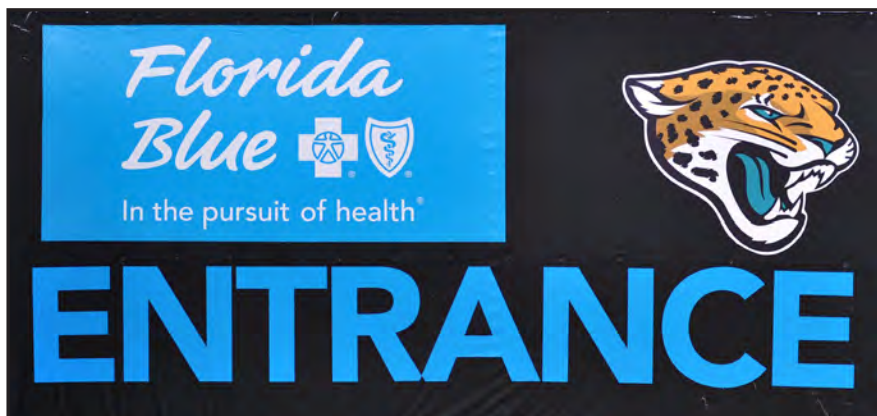

FLORIDA BLUE HEALTH & WELLNESS PRACTICE FIELDS

In July 2010, Florida Blue became the official sponsor of the Jaguars practice facility, formally known as the Florida Blue Health & Wellness Practice Fields.

The facility, located directly adjacent to EverBank Field, features three outdoor grass practice fields. The complex is used for Jaguars practices, OTAs, training camp as well as a variety of community and youth initiatives. Florida Blue will maintain naming rights, including nearly 100 signs located around the facility, through the 2015 NFL season.

Florida Blue, based in Jacksonville, is the official health care partner of the Jaguars and will continue to feature public service announcements during Jaguars home games promoting an array of health and wellness initiatives.

EVERBANK FIELD

"As the construction takes shape we can all envision what an impact this will have on EverBank Field and the game day experience," said Jaguars Owner Shahid Khan, "and that was one of the reasons from the beginning for embarking on this ambitious project. We want EverBank Field to be a world-class destination, and we want to bring energy and attention to Downtown Jacksonville. Our goal is to offer best-in-class amenities and the best in-stadium experience for our fans and for everyone who visits Jacksonville and EverBank Field."

With the 2014 video enhancements, EverBank Field now displays approximately 55,000 feet of video boards, a 660% increase from the previous display (7,200 square feet) and the most offered by any NFL stadium. "We owe our fans and this community nothing less than the best, and these enhancements will be the best," said Jaguars President Mark Lamping. "These stadium upgrades will drastically change the in-stadium experience and create a truly unique environment that you cannot get at home. This will be an eye-opener and an attention-getter for Jacksonville."

Hunt + Elkins, a joint venture, was the construction manager for the stadium project. Hunt Construction Group had previously built several sports facilities including Lucas Oil Stadium and University of Phoenix Stadium for football, and Marlins Park, Nationals Park, Busch Stadium and Citi Field for baseball.

Elkins Constructors is a Jacksonville-based construction company, as is Haskell Architects and Engineers, P.A. which was the designer for the scoreboard construction. The Haskell Company provided structural steel and steel installation services for the scoreboard and north end zone improvements. "Our company built the stadium for the City of Jacksonville at the inception of the Jaguars, opening in 1995," said Sid Perkins, Vice President of Field Operations for Hunt Construction Group.

Daktronics created the video boards, and Haskell was responsible for the project design. Each display boasts more than 21,700 square feet of active display area – almost enough to cover the entire field of play when combined. "We are honored to continue our long-standing relationship with the Jacksonville Jaguars and the City of Jacksonville," said Mike Kempney, Daktronics sales representative on the project. "Their new game-day experience will be unrivaled as the Jaguars unveil new LED fascia displays throughout the stadium and two of the world's largest high definition video displays. The Jaguars are proving their commitment to be on the leading edge of video technology and to the fans of Jacksonville. Daktronics is extremely proud of our ability to offer these high end systems which will set a new benchmark in professional sports." "These new cutting-edge video displays and related technological improvements will greatly elevate the fans' visual immersion and will set the standard for in-venue experience," said Christopher Holmes, AIA, LEED AP, Haskell's Project Design Principal.

NORTH END ZONE INTERACTIVE FAN AREA

At the north end of the stadium is a large two-level deck featuring cabana-style seating areas, video screens, bars and two large spa-type wading pools and other water features. There are sections dedicated to private functions as well as areas open to all fans in the seating bowl. Populous was responsible for the design of the north end zone area. "As the designers of the original stadium and planned improvements over the years, our focus at Populous has always been on keeping EverBank Field looking to the future by creating an experience that will evolve with Jaguars fans. The north deck expansion is an important step in accomplishing this goal and will enhance game day for everyone from general fans to premium patrons," said Dennis Wellner, Populous Senior Principal.

Permanent facilities in the deck area include men's and women's restrooms, food service space and utility boxes for connection to portable amenities. The connections provide power, data, water and drains for portable bars and food service for fans. Sun shades, seating and other amenities are also provided. These provisions are portable and removable for the installation of temporary seating for special events like the Florida-Georgia game, the Gator Bowl and concerts.

VIDEO BOARDS

The two massive end zone displays each measure 60 feet high by 362 feet wide and feature 13mm HD pixel spacing. The video boards are capable of showing any combination of live action, instant replays, vivid graphics, colorful animations, up-to-the-minute statistics, scoring information and sponsor advertisements. Below the north end zone display is a display measuring nearly 10 feet high by 320 feet wide featuring the same 13mm HD pixel layout. At the opposite end of the stadium are two ribbon displays on both levels of fascia in the seating bowl below the south end zone main display. Each ribbon display features 15mm HD pixel spacing. The top display, measuring more than 3 feet high by 365 feet wide, is curved to appear the same length as the bottom display, which measure more than 3 feet high by 295 feet wide.

Each side of the field features a ribbon display along the seating fascia, each measuring more than 3 feet high by 573 feet wide and featuring a 15mm HD pixel layout. Four new displays replace the previous displays in each corner of the stadium. These new displays each measure approximately 18 feet high by 32 feet wide and feature a 15mm HD pixel spacing. Two additional displays were installed above each tunnel at opposite corners of the stadium.

These displays each measure 6 feet high by 24 feet wide and feature a 15mm HD pixel layout. All of these video and ribbon displays provide the opportunity to present up-to-the-minute statistics, fantasy football updates, out of town scores and other game day information. All displays incorporate excellent image clarity and contrast, and provide multiple levels of protection from the elements. The wide angle viewing capability provides fans with a clear view of the displays from any seat in the stadium.

Daktronics also included its powerful Show Control System with this installation. This industry-leading system provides a combination of display control software, world-class video processing, data integration and playback hardware that forms a user-friendly production solution.

STEEL STRUCTURE

The new scoreboards are constructed of structural steel framing with ribbed metal siding and a single ply roof over rigid insulation on metal roof deck. The bowl side of each structure features the electronic video board. Each new section of scoreboard is supported by triangular structural steel towers similar to the existing supports. The design includes the electrical service for the video board operation, lighting of the interior spaces and lighting for the signage to be provided on the back side of the scoreboards. The installation incorporated power, cabling, sound and a new expanded state of the art scoreboard control room on the west side suite level of the stadium.

THE ROAR OF THE JAGUARS

THE ROAR, the Jacksonville Jaguars Cheerleaders, are an integral part of the Jaguars entertainment package during all home games. Under the direction of Christy Stechman Zynda, these NFL cheerleaders captivate fans with their high-energy dance routines. When not on the playing field, they serve as goodwill ambassadors for the Jaguars and the NFL by participating in community, corporate and charitable events throughout Jacksonville and the surrounding areas. Members of THE ROAR have been featured in the Sports Illustrated Swimsuit Edition, Maxim and in hundreds of television, radio, print and online interviews. All of this is in addition to the numerous hours of rehearsal preparing for game performances and THE Jr. ROAR Cheerleader program and halftime show.

THE ROAR have traveled nationally and internationally to entertain, model and represent the Jaguars and the NFL. They have performed at Walt Disney World, Universal Orlando, Atlantis, Beaches Negril, the Senior Bowl and at many events during Super Bowl week in several host cities. THE ROAR have entertained at NFL events in Mexico City and London, and have been photographed for their annual calendars in locations such as: Vieques Island, London and the British Virgin Islands. Our leading ladies also spend time entertaining our United States troops. Over the years, THE ROAR have visited many of the bases in the continental United States and the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, along with bases in Greenland, Honduras, Curacao, Egypt, Bahrain, Afghanistan, Kuwait, Puerto Rico and Andros Island.

JAXSON DE VILLE

NFL EXPERIENCE: 20th season

HEIGHT: 8.5 paws (about 7 feet)

WEIGHT: 403 pounds

BIRTH DATE: Not sure, but he celebrates each day as if it's EVERYONE'S birthday. His birthplace is DUUUUUUVVAAAAALLLLLL!

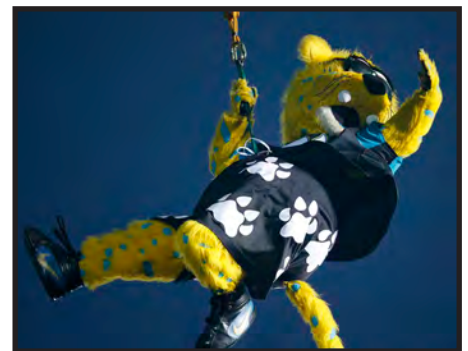

HOW ACQUIRED: Was a stray cat found by Wayne Weaver during the construction of EverBank Field and has never left, despite being asked multiple times.

FIRST APPEARANCE: August 18, 1996, Jaguars vs. 49ers preseason game

COLLEGE: Denied admission due to size, but got his MBA from an online college, which he uses quite often when he wants to sound important.

SEASON: Has never seen action in an NFL-sanctioned game ... Has played in several halftime games against some very tough Pop Warner teams (9- and 10-year olds) and has done quite well ... Head coach Gus Bradley said he looks forward to "watching Jaxson get better everyday and do his job." ... The league still refuses to make bigger helmets so he can play ... Due to that he remains a starter at his All-Pro position, "Left Out!"

STATS: IN 2014, completed his 19th straight season as "The Self-Proclaimed GREATEST MASCOT TO EVER LIVE!" ...does any other stat matter?

JAGUARS MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Credential requests are honored only for working media on specific assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. Credentials are not issued to freelance writers or photographers unless requested by a recognized news organization or sports publication. Independent web sites cannot be credentialed. All credential requests must be submitted in writing on company letterhead to Katie Vaughn, Jacksonville Jaguars, One EverBank Field Drive, Jacksonville, FL 32202, or by e-mail to vaughnk@jaguars.nfl.com or by fax at (904) 633-6055. Requests must be received at least one week prior to a home game.

PARKING: Parking in lots surrounding the stadium is limited. Every effort will be made to accommodate requests for media parking passes, but parking cannot be provided for all credentialed media. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to all stadium parking lots on game days. Television trucks which provide satellite, uplink or microwave functions will be parked in the TV truck compound near Gate 1, and a parking pass is required.

MEDIA ENTRANCE, CREDENTIAL WILL CALL: The media entrance at the stadium is Gate 1, at the southwest corner of the stadium. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission to the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the Media Will-Call window at Gate 1. The Media Will-Call window will open three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes will not be left at the Will-Call window.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline access for NFL games is strictly limited to photographers on assignment for a recognized news organization or sports publication. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers will be issued an NFL identification vest and must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field. The photographers' check-in location is near the media entrance in the service hallway.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKERROOM ACCESS: Members of the media needing to conduct postgame interviews will be given access to the Jaguars' interview room after each game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. Jaguars head coach Gus Bradley conducts his postgame news conference in the team meeting room. The visiting head coach is available in the Jaguars TV studio, which is down the hall past the visitors' locker room.

DURING THE WEEK

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom is available to working media during business hours throughout the week. High speed internet access, phones, Jaguars updates, transcripts, NFL news releases and other information is provided.

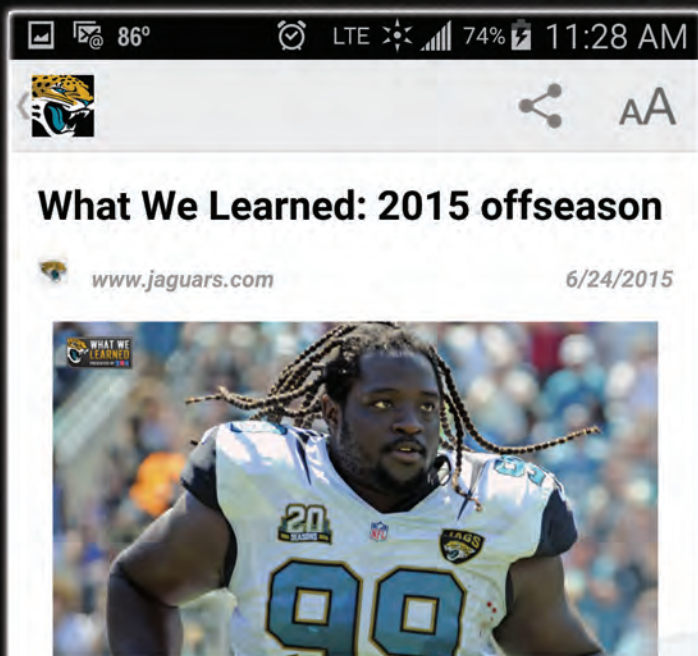

GUS BRADLEY INTERVIEWS: Head coach Gus Bradley conducts his weekly news conferences on Mondays in the media workroom and in the TV studio after practices. Specific interview requests for Coach Bradley and the assistant coaches must be made through the Jaguars communications department.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The Jaguars locker room is open to accredited media for specific interview periods during the week. Players are normally available on Mondays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays. All interviews should be arranged through the Jaguars communications department.

MEDIA WEBSITE: The Jaguars' media website can be accessed on the worldwide web at: pr.jaguars.com and on the NFL's Web Site at: www.nfl.com. Daily updates, transcripts, injury reports and other information is posted as well. First-time registration is required.

JACKSONVILLE – Here's What We Learned during the Jaguars' 2015 offseason program

1. This team appears improved. That's how it looked on paper entering the offseason – and that's how it appeared on the field in minicamps and organized team activities. While there is a limit to what can be gleaned from four weeks of non-padded practices, this roster just looks
